Verse 1:

A brother and sister abused and afraid
Just "throw-away children" societies prey
Unspeakable things were all that they'd known
Then God sent two angels to give these kids a home
They grew to be a family
Through the seeds of love they'd sown

Chorus:

Love doesn't end when you give it away
It comes back to you in so many ways
When you plant a little seed
A flower blooms for all to see
Love doesn't end when you give it away

Verse 2:

Now years have gone by and the kids are all grown
These little flowers have flowers of their own
And oh the joy she had just watchin' them grow
Now she's gone but in our memory
She's never really far away
You can see her in the children
Each one a part of love's bouquet

Repeat Chorus

Bridge:

We're so busy with our own lives; we're so blind we cannot see
Let's take the time to look around us; and see those who are in need

Repeat Chorus
