Treasurer Report --

It is not quite the end of the 2nd quarter of the year as I write this, and the bookkeeping for the quarter is not quite done, but it looks very good financially.

Month	Operating Income	Operating Expense
April	$10,433	$8,373
May	$6,936	$7,166
June	$9,240	$7,976
Totals	$26,609	$23,515

We collected $131.91 in Coins 4 Bread and have sent Local Aid and God's Storehouse each $65.95. In addition, through your generosity, we have received designated funds to send an additional $380 to Local Aid, $150 to Camp Lutherwood, $200 to Food for Lane County and $200 to the local branch of Habitat for Humanity. We are making a difference in our community. Look for the notebook of thanks in the Fellowship Hall sometime in July. That is a little over $1,000 given to our community as well as $650 in benevolence that is sent to the Oregon Synod.

Reformation - 500 years

More Martin Luther and Reformation tidbits for you... check out more at:
<https://www.livinglutheran.org/reformation/>

Luther's "theology of the cross" was not a theory about only the cross but the belief that God always reveals himself in the last place human beings would reasonably look: with the Israelites not the Egyptians; in a manger; on the cross; among mortal sinners in the church.

###

The chief Lutheran confession of faith, the Augsburg Confession, was presented on June 25, 1530, to Emperor Charles V. Luther compliments its main drafter, Philipp Melanchthon, by insisting that Luther could not have treaded so lightly. He also saw it as a fulfillment of Psalm 119:46: "I will also speak of your decrees before kings, and shall not be put to shame."

###

"Prior to the Reformation, worship was largely done for the people. The music was performed by professional musicians and sung in an unfamiliar language (Latin). The Reformation gave worship back to the people. ... Worship once again became participatory." - Kenny Lamm, Renewing Worship NC

Notes from the June Council Meeting

Review of the Secretary and Pastor reports.

Treasurer Report:

+Nancy recommended a $100 honorarium be donated to Luther House for the talk provided by Jim Norlie at the last quarterly potluck. Council approved.

New Business:

+The pastor received the results of the vitality survey taken by the congregation a couple of months ago. Council reviewed the results, and they will be presented to the congregation. It was decided the pastor would provide a 5-10 minute summary and the link to the results which people could download. If necessary, we can meet with interested people to discuss it further.
