Payment Options: Personal check, Money order, or PayPal; checks from outside the USA must be in US dollars from a US bank
Shipping Method: Orders shipped via USPS media mail (book/media mail rate) or via UPS, unless otherwise requested. Items are shipped upon receipt of payment Shipping Costs: Postage will be closely estimated, any balance will be credited or refunded. Postal insurance is extra, if desired.
Packing/Handling: 3% flat fee for orders under $300; no charge for orders $300 and up
Packing: Most items are wrapped in heavy paper and/or bagged, then boxed. Some smaller items will be wrapped, cardboard-sandwiched, and shipped in a padded envelope.
Prices/Availability: Prices are subject to change without notice. Supply is limited to stock on hand. All items are offered subject to prior sale.
Condition: Most items are in Fine to As New condition. Most recent catalogs are As New. Older catalogs are more likely to contain pencil/pen notes or handpricing. Most notable defects are described in the Comments column. Please ask if you would like a more detailed description of a particular item.
As New, Mint:		No signs of wear or defects, bright and crisp.
Fine+:		Nearly new, with minimal signs of use, wear, or discoloration.
Fine:		Nice copy, with minor scuffs, creases, notations.
Very Good:		More wear and scuffs, no serious defects.
Good:		Used and worn, complete, working copy.

How this list came to be
I am a fan of early U.S. coins (early half dollars) & 19th century medals from Connecticut.
These catalogs and other literature were accumulated over several years while researching half dollars & medals.

						Produced from 1908 through 1919, a complete set consists of 105 issues; fantastic reading; occasional Mehl price lists
B. Max Mehl of Fort Worth TX
Max Mehl	Feb 24, 1909	#11 - Pioneer Gold	85.00	30	797	small stain in one corner, but otherwise very nice - quite scarce!

Max Mehl	1910		Star Coin Book, 4th Edition	35.00	127	n/a	wonderful condition relative to how these are usually found; this has a tight binding and covers, with some discoloration from age, but appears to have not been used much; Kolbe once called this "legitimately scarce"... (note: please also see the item listed under "Numismatic Bank" - which many believe is the predecessor to Mehl's book)
Max Mehl	Nov 11, 1911		#17 - Charles W. Cowell	225.00	76	1712	the first Adams' rated "A" Mehl sale; stunning US gold rarities, fantastic Fractional Currency, and landmark Pioneer & fractional gold: Bechtler, Kellogg, Clark, Gruber, Mormon, etc; catalog has a couple small spine chips, some wear at corners, but decent clean and complete; most lots have some kind of letter-code written next to them in pencil that I cannot figure out - therefore, a little distracting, but may be useful if you can figure out what it means... (?) ; rarely offered!
Max Mehl	Mar 20, 1912	19	#19 - P.H. Griffith	145.00	76	1805	(2) pages of plates; spine is chipped and rear cover is weak, but contents are clean and unmarked, nice crisp plates; an important sale (Adams A-) that is rarely offered
Max Mehl	Jan 21, 1914	27	#27 - Frank Clemes Smith	75.00	63	1296	George Tilden half dimes, early large cents, extensive early British coinage; (5) pages of plates; chipped spine, but internally clean
Max Mehl	(July 14) June 30, 1914	30	#30 - Major Richard Lambert	75.00	51	1373	(3) pages of plates; spine paper a bit chipped at corners
Max Mehl	Feb 29, 1916		#37 - Griffith, Henderson	55.00	42	1111
Max Mehl	Feb 27, 1917	41	#41 - Day, Clouser, Fisher	35.00	71	1786	removed from old binding - staple holes at spine; a few pencil notes - otherwise fine condition
Max Mehl	June 12, 1917	43	#43 - Jos. Wasserman	40.00	29	935	minor water staining in corners
Max Mehl	June 12, 1917	43	#43 - Jos. Wasserman	35.00	29	935	extensive early US and private gold; removed from old binding - staple holes at spine; a few pencil notes - otherwise good condition
Max Mehl	July 24, 1917	44	#44 - Hartell, Smith	45.00	39	909	early US medals; Indian Peace medals; bust half dollars; extensive Canadian; removed from old binding - staple holes at spine; a few pencil notes on front cover and within - otherwise good condition
Max Mehl	Oct 30, 1917	45	#45 - Carlberg	35.00	39	917	outstanding private gold and large cents; patterns; removed from old binding - staple holes at spine; a few pencil notes - otherwise fine condition
Max Mehl	Dec 12, 1917	46	#46 - Truax, Alenius	30.00	39	1100	extensive California fractional gold; pioneer gold, Leshner dollars; removed from old binding - staple holes at spine; a few pencil notes on front cover and within - otherwise good condition
Max Mehl	Mar 12, 1918	47	#47 - Shelton, Wilson, Graves	30.00	45	1337	~half of front cover is "sunned" but otherwise decent; a few pencil notes within
Max Mehl	Mar 12, 1918	47	#47 - Shelton, Wilson, Graves	25.00	45	1337	removed from old binding - staple holes at spine; a few pencil notes on front cover and within - otherwise good condition
Max Mehl	April 30, 1918	48	#48 - Burton, Strong	30.00	22	575	Colonials, half dollars, hard times tokens, large cents; removed from old binding - staple holes at spine; a few pencil notes on front cover and within, some staining - a nice study copy
Max Mehl	Oct 29, 1918	50	#50 - Elmer S. Sears part 2	60.00	61	1526	pioneer gold, bust half dollars, colonials, Bryan money, patterns, extensive half cents; removed from old binding - staple holes at spine; a few pencil notes on front cover and within - otherwise good condition
Max Mehl	May 17, 1921		#60 - James H. Manning; M.W. Broers	125.00	88	1860	outstanding offering included plated 1794$, stunning plated half cents with pedigree info, 1804$ with a great writeup, high grade 1801 half, American medals, fantastic Colonials, important world coinage; bound in contemporary marbled cardboard with original covers; front board is warped but internal catalog is fine - if you are needing a Manning, this is as interesting a binding as any
Max Mehl	May 17, 1921		#60 - James H. Manning; M.W. Broers	110.00	88	1860	outstanding offering included plated 1794$, stunning plated half cents with pedigree info, 1804$ with a great writeup, high grade 1801 half, American medals, fantastic Colonials, important world coinage; spine is somewhat chipped and covers are weak - otherwise nice and crisp; rarely offered

Parke-Bernet Galleries of New York NY (was purchased By Sotheby's New York in 1972, called S-P-B until October 1980, at which time name changed to Sotheby's)
Parke-Bernet	May 1-2, 1945	Arts of Russia - Yascha Bunchuk	75.00	81	455	this auction featured Russian art and literature, including numerous works pertaining to numismatics (Mentzov, Tolstoi, extensive Georgei Mikhailovich); this catalog is scarce and virtually unknown to the numismatic literature community

Parke-Bernet	October 10, 1946	Joseph B. Brenauer	40.00	23	133	outstanding medals, pioneer & territorial & US gold; 1927 George Clinton in gold; 1892 Columbian Expo in gold; 1908 Stuyvesant in gold; some European & ancient; catalogue rarely offered; Charles Davis states "While clearly a Parke-Bernet catalogue, and listed in Gengerke as such, the Foreword, signed "Charles Wormser, New Netherlands Coin Company," suggests that firm's involvement and possible inclusion in the NN series. Adams notes that NN sales through No. 24 (July 1946) were handled by Stuart Mosher "who was barely equal to the task," and as No. 25 was conducted in March 1947, the catalogue at hand calls neatly between the transition from Mosher to Wormser, just returned from Naval service."
Parke-Bernet	May 11-12, 1950	Sale #1162; George Singer	35.00	57	395	extensive US & foreign gold coins along with the well-catalogued Davis-Hale 1804 Dollar; a scarce catalog that has recent sale records well exceeding this price
