

THE ELITE VOLLEYBALL CLUB

PARENT PLEDGE

COMMITMENT OF SUPPORT:

- Parents or Players are never to discuss any playing time issues at tournaments or practices unless previously arranged.
- Parents will refrain from distracting coaches or players during competition.
- Parents acknowledge that for a successful team effort, only one person can be in charge, and for this team that person is the coach.
- Parents acknowledge that the team coach is the primary contact in regards to training, practices and matches
- All parents will respect all coach's decisions.
- Parents agree to abide by all Elite contracts, rules and guidelines outlined in any Elite contracts or paperwork
- Parents acknowledge that the commitment to the club is also a financial commitment and regardless of whether or not their athlete can or does finish the official competition season they are assuming responsibility for completing all payments due in a timely manner.
- Any difference of opinion that a parent may have with the coach will be discussed with the coach in a civil manner and at a time and place NOT in the presence of any team members. Anything that cannot be resolved to our mutual satisfaction will then be addressed to the Club Director, again, NOT in the presence of team members or other persons, and at a time mutually convenient.
- Any discussion about team or players will include only my son, his abilities and what he needs to do to achieve what we are looking for from our team and club.
- I will make every effort to see that my child abides by the pledge he signed. This includes providing written / email notice in a timely manner, if my child cannot attend a practice or a tournament due to extenuating circumstances.
- I will be supportive of practice and tournament schedules.
- I will not make any negative or derogatory comments about players, coaches or clubs.
- I will be supportive of healthy eating and sleeping guidelines and all club training directives.
- I will support my child's participation in the Elite Volleyball Club.
- I will enthusiastically support the whole team and show good sportsmanship toward all members of this team and all members of opposing teams, at all times and under all circumstances.
I recognize and accept that I am the adult, and that I set the tone for this behavior.

☺ I understand, accept and will abide by these goals, rules, and standards of conduct. I also understand that any non-compliance can be cause for my sons release from the Elite Club.

Signature _____

Printed Name _____

Date _____