This beer pours black with a brown-tinged head. Due to how dark this beer is, any carbonation present is not readily visible. In the nose, there are leading notes of coffee (the blend they use is 75% Ethiopian and 25% Sumatra), followed by chocolate, and subtle roasted malt. The taste is a wonderful mélange of dark and milk chocolate, roasted malt, and coffee, with the perfect hint of sweetness. This beer is delicious!

*As a side note, Andrew did pick up one of these for Keith. Woo hoo!
