

Got to Be NC Agriculture Secret Word Scavenger Hunt

Serving Up Locally Grown Goodness

DIRECTIONS: Explore the fairgrounds to find the secret words. When you have found them all, complete this form and return to the Got to Be NC booth.

Stop 1: A _____ melon is a horticultural crop that shares its name with a popular soft drink, and resembles a cross between a honeydew melon and a pear.

Stop 2: There are more than _____ different varieties of soil in North Carolina.

Stop 3: _____ is a field crop that will be planted on more than 12 million acres of farmland across the country this year, and is used to make dollar bills and cooking oil.

Stop 4: Name three breeds of horse that commonly compete in horse shows:
_____, _____ and _____

Stop 5: _____ is a technique used to preserve fruits and vegetables for up to one year.

Stop 6: Did you know that at least _____% of North Carolina farmers are younger than 55 years old?

Stop 7: Name three types of seafood grown on North Carolina farms:
_____, _____ and _____

Stop 8: North Carolina's agricultural products are bought and used by people around the world, including many people in _____, one of our largest export markets.

Kids Club Entry Form

Name:

Age:

Address:

What is your favorite part of the Fair?
