

The Beach at Corral Creek represents one of the most spectacular and undisturbed settings on the Columbia River. Nestled in privacy and surrounded by majestic boulders and cliffs, "The Beach" development possesses a dramatic and panoramic view of the Columbia River. Over the millennia, Corral Creek carved its way to the Columbia and created a private bay. For decades the passage through Corral Creek to the undisturbed bay on the Columbia was known only by the locals as "The Beach". Along the shores of this spectacular stretch of the Columbia River families explored and created memories from a more simple time. The Beach at Corral Creek strives to re-create the innocence of those simple family vacations you had as a child.

The Beach at Corral Creek is an exclusive gated community containing 27 spacious lots with low bank river access. The project also offers a community beach area of 200+ feet of sandy shoreline.

Only minutes from the charming town of Chelan, The Beach at Corral Creek offers an opportunity to own part of a legacy reminiscent of those childhood vacations your family will enjoy for generations.
