

PO BOX 587, Lexington NC 27293
 Phone (336) 236-6546
 Fax (336) 236-9546
 www.ot4kidsinc.com
 contact@ot4kidsinc.com

Does My Child Need Occupational, Physical or Speech Therapy?

Have you noticed any of the following behaviors or tendencies in your child?

	Yes	No
Decreased Attention Span/Distracted Easily
Clumsy or Falls frequently
Difficulty with writing skills
Difficulty interacting with other children
Behavior problems in school/inappropriate behavior in public
Will not sit still
Difficulty with riding a bike with or without training wheels
Difficulty with ball play (can't throw, catch, or kick a ball)
Increased or decreased pain tolerance
Sleeping difficulty
Likes or dislikes certain movements (car, swinging, spinning)
Unfounded fears (vacuum cleaner, heights, noises)
Frequent 'meltdowns'
Language difficulties
Difficulty following directions
Difficulty expressing wants, needs, or emotions
Others have trouble understanding them
Trouble adjusting to new schedules or changes in routine
Eating difficulties - stuffs mouth, messy eater
Picky eater or difficulty with food textures or gags easily
Cannot jump or difficulty jumping
Intentionally crashes into people and/or objects
Picky about clothing textures, tags, shoes
Avoids messy play
Toe-walking
Poor endurance / tires easily/difficulty keeping up with peers in team sports or games (soccer, basketball, tag)

If you checked YES to any of these items and are interested in Therapy Services, please contact OT 4 Kids for additional information.