to the tenth

Mountain Auction

Saturday, Nov. 6, 2010

Mass

5 p.m.

University Chapel, Doyle Hall

Silent Auction

6 p.m.

*Robert R. Jones Board of Trustees Room,
Doyle Hall*

Buffet prepared and served by Aramark Dining Services

Verbal Auction

8:30 p.m.

*Doyle Hall Dining Room
Mr. Daniel Carter, Auctioneer*

General Auction Rules

1. All sales are final; there will be no exchanges or refunds on items unless specified.
2. Items will be removed the evening of the auction only by showing a receipt for the item at the time of departure.
3. Values of items being auctioned are as stated by the donor, and are not warranted by the Mountain Auction Committee for tax purposes or for general value. The IRS advises that donations are tax-deductible only for the bid amount in excess of fair market value.
4. Unless otherwise specified, all items and services must be used within one year after November 6, 2010.
5. Payment by the successful bidder may be made immediately following the auction in the form of cash, check, VISA or MasterCard. Payment in full is required on November 6, 2010.

Silent Auction Rules

1. The silent auction will open for bidding immediately following check-in. Table closings will be announced during the evening. The closing bid circled by a Mountain Auction official constitutes the winning bid.
2. All items in the silent auction have bid sheets affixed nearby. To bid, write down your bid number and amount on the bid sheet; press hard to enter your bid on the sheets, which are in triplicate.
3. A valid opening bid must equal the minimum bid as stated on the bid sheet.
4. Each bid must be written on the topmost blank line available on the bid sheet. Bid sheets may not be removed from the table or covered by a bidder.
5. Bids must be made in the increments specified.
6. Winning numbers will be posted on the number board.
7. In the event of a dispute, a Mountain Auction official shall act as final authority and determine the winning bidder. Such decision shall be final.

Verbal Auction Rules

1. The verbal auction will begin at approximately 8:30 p.m. and continue until all items in that category have been auctioned.
2. Persons wishing to bid should display their bid number when the auctioneer requests bids.
3. Certain items will require a minimum starting bid, as designated by the auctioneer. Mountain Auction officials reserve the right to withdraw an item if the minimum bid is not received.
4. In the event of a dispute, the auctioneer shall act as final authority and determine the winning bidder.

Silent Auction Categories

Items in the Silent Auction are grouped in categories, which will close at various times throughout the evening. The closing of each category will be announced as it approaches.

V111 — Brown Derby Dinner for 12 priceless
The lucky winning bidder on this gift will have the opportunity to invite 11 guests of their choosing for a special evening meal at the St. Bonaventure Friary. The date and meal can be negotiated. Your hosts for the evening will be Chef Br. Ed Coughlin, O.F.M. Before Doyle Hall (the old Friary) was built, the friars lived on one of the residence floors or on the first floor of Devereux. They took their meals in what was then referred to as the BROWN DERBY, what we now call the University Club above the Hickey Dining Hall. We suspect that the upstairs and downstairs menus varied!
