

An artistic salon

The EEE Gallery, which will celebrate its one-year anniversary next week, has announced an evening combining the visual arts with performing arts.

On Nov. 17, from 6:30 pm to 9:30 pm, EEE Gallery presents the next installment of its Friday Night After Work series, "Burmin' It Up: Sparking Embers into the Future."

The mixed-bag evening features the work of two artists, live music by the Jazz Beatniks, comedy and improv with Tom Bolster and poetry by Frank Labriola. Matthew McDonnell's ink and acrylic on vellum, "Salome and the Baptist," (detail above) will be part of the exhibit.

EEE Gallery is at 228 Livingston Street 2nd floor. There will be a closing reception for the two artists, Matthew McDonnell and Robin Dann, on Dec. 3 at 6 pm. For more information, call (718) 403-9248.
