Seattle 2018 Food Bank Stats

General

In 2018, Seattle food banks distributed 19,146,580 pounds of food, a 1.2% increase from 2017.

Total client visits also increased 5.4% from 2017, the highest 1-year increase since 2009.

Demographics

In 2018, seniors made up 36% of all client visits, totalling to 30% more senior visits than 2017.

Bulk Buy

With City, EFAP, and EFSP funding, Seattle Food Committee purchased 1,393,587 pounds of food in 2018.

- 24% fresh produce
- 25% dairy
- 43% protein

*2018 data is from 24 food banks in Seattle receiving Emergency Food Assistance Program (EFAP) funds. 5-year data is from 23 food banks in Seattle receiving EFAP funds.

*Icons made by Freepik from www.flaticon.com