The Higher Education Action & Research Consortium (HEARC) would like to invite you to a special seminar on the

The Mis-Education and Criminalization of Black and Latino Boys

with

Dr. Victor Rios

Associate Professor in the Department of Sociology

University of California, Santa Barbara

Professor Rios will discuss his findings from 10 years of ethnography in Northern and Southern California with "juvenile delinquent" and gang associated boys. Rios’ work analyzes the role of social control in determining the well-being of young people living in urban marginality, tracks the social consequences of the punitive state and punitive social control-across institutional settings, and examines young people’s resilience and responses to social marginalization. His book Punished: Policing the Lives of Black and Latino Boys, was recently featured in The Nation as a “Must Read.”

Refreshments will be provided!

For more information email: ucsb.hearc@gmail.com or add us on Facebook