Grand Knight Message

The 2nd Degree of our order is “Unity.” It was great that 9 candidates from different councils gathered in Unity to experience the ceremony at our Council on Jan 16. Congratulations to Javier Sarabia from our Council on completing the 2nd Degree. Thanks go out to our Worthy Membership Director Chris Lopez PGK for his tireless efforts in ushering our newer Brothers through the process to full Knighthood.

We have some great events on the calendar in February calendar and hope you can plan on joining us for some of them to start the new year.

First up is the Super Bowl party sponsored by the Holding Company and hosted by Brother Keith Kutler on Sun Feb 4. This is a great opportunity to invite a Catholic gentleman and his family to a Knights Event and get them to join.

Tues Feb 13 is Fat Tuesday...and it is also the day we honor the Religious in our community with the annual Religious Appreciation Dinner. Chairman Mark Brosmer has a wonderful evening and dinner planned and really needs us (all Brother Knights!) to join the Religious for one evening of appreciation and dinner. If you have never attended the event, you should. It is a great venue to get to know the religious beyond the services they provide our community and they are always moved by the show of appreciation we offer.

Sun Feb 18 is a special day at Church of the Visitation. Msgr Jim Forsen is requesting the Council's help with the parish's 75th Anniversary Mass and Celebration. Archbishop Jose Gomez will be celebrating the 10:30am Mass and Msgr Jim is expecting our Council to really show up in numbers....Brothers, All Hands On Deck...more details to come.

Tues Feb 6 is our monthly Council meeting. Please make an effort to join us. The second half of the Columbian year is upon us and I ask you to take a moment to reflect on your personal relationship and involvement with the Knights. To those of you who have not visited the Hall recently, know that your Brothers will always welcome you warmly. Know that we are very thankful for the gift of your most valuable asset, time.

I look forward to seeing you at our events and Fish Fry's...

Billing and collecting member dues is a costly and time consuming project. Quickly paying your dues eliminates the need for costly second notices and follow up calls...so please help us by sending in your dues right away!

Our dues are low compared to most fraternal organizations and do not even cover the cost of Supreme fees, Bulletin production and Council operating costs (phone tree, copier, etc). It is important that we start the year with all of these important obligations adequately funded to be able to pursue our mission as Knights.

Our goal is collection of all dues by Mar 1...help us by sending in your dues now!

3 New Officers Installed at Jan 1

At the Jan Council meeting, the two open Outside Guard positions were filled by Michael Wagenbrenner and Chuck Mondello. We thank them for their willingness to serve!

Lecturer Paul Callinan requested to be replaced due to his busy work schedule and we are happy to welcome back past Lecturer Abel Hernandez to fill the remainder of Paul's term. We thank Paul for his many delicious meals and know he stands ready to help out as needed.

Decency Report

What It Means To Get Married in the Catholic Church

I believe that in every Catholic marriage, a couple bites off more than they can chew. As a sacrament, we know that marriage is bigger than just a commitment to fidelity and permanence. It's bigger than a commitment to raise a family and contribute to the good of society, These things are open to any couple, Christian or not. It's what we call natural marriage, and while it is a great good, for a Catholic, it's also incomplete.

When two baptized Catholics get married, they make a further commitment. They promise to be instruments of God's love. They commit to being transformed by God's love in order to become active participants in salvation history.

That means their primary work isn't about providing a home or stability, it's about providing sanctification, transforming the world in love. They become something greater than themselves, something beyond their abilities, and they commit to something they are incapable of. They know that God will be working through them to accomplish his will.

Sacramental marriage is risky, and it's dramatic! But we can have confidence in marriage - not because of our own abilities, but because of what God has promised to do in us and with us! We should be filled with joy and humility knowing that God is working through us to accomplish his will. And we should always pray for the grace to respond to this magnificent invitation more fully.

St Margaret's Center Christmas Event

The 2017 St Margaret Center Christmas Party was a great success at its new Lennox Middle School venue with approximately 300 families were served. Council 3744 was requested to help in the cleanup, which entailed moving hundreds of boxes to the on campus storage unit and to the Center, breaking down empty boxes and general cleanup. Thanks to the efforts of Brothers Brian Lockwood, Tom Hughes, Gregory Paquin with his son Cole and Robert Lutes, we accomplished this work within few hours. Thanks also go out to Brother Andres Centeno who was also a busy Santa Claus at the event (as he has been for a number of years). His efforts brought joy to so many of the children.

This event requires days of preparation including moving van loads of items from the center to the school site. Brothers Chip Mallek and Jason Mallek helped greatly in this effort. St Margaret Center very much appreciates the assistance.

Check the website (www.kofc3744.org) for more recognition of our many Brother Knights who quietly perform great works all year for St Margaret's Center!

Insurance Field Agent Report

Life Insurance as a Gift?

The typical reaction when you mention life insurance as a gift is a quick step back and a questioning stare. “How morbid” most think. While it may seem that way at first, life insurance is really a thoughtful gift. The problem is perception. Most think of death not the benefits insurance provide and the security it offers.

Life insurance should be a precautionary protective measure for a family. It's purchase can mean saving your home, sending your children to college, and preserving your spouse's quality of life in the event of your death.

One time to consider a life insurance gift for someone is when a new baby arrives. It's a low-cost way to set money aside for the future. Of greater importance, it ensures the child will have insurance as an adult, in case an illness later in life makes him or her uninsurable.

Newlyweds are also ideal recipients for life insurance. As they join their lives and financial responsibilities, young couples need to make sure that their early investments are fully protected. If something were to happen to one of them, the other may be faced with serious financial hardship. A life insurance policy is an ideal way to ensure their future and protect their assets.

Life insurance as a gift? Imagine what a life insurance policy can afford a charitable beneficiary: your church, high school, college, hospital, or club can all be a beneficiary of your policy.

As nontraditional as it may be, life insurance is a wise and caring gift to purchase for many people.
