

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 2, 2014

TODAY'S SKED:

Gov. Andrew Cuomo is in New York City with no public schedule.

Democratic lieutenant governor candidate Kathy Hochul will be in the NYC area meeting voters at several events, including senior centers.

9:30 a.m. - New York City Mayor Bill de Blasio makes announcement, in front of P.S. 95, 3961 Hillman Ave., Bronx.

10:25 a.m. - State Sen. Tony Avella appears on Brian Lehrer show, WNYC. Listen here: <http://www.wnyc.org/shows/bl/>

12 p.m. - Manhattan Borough President Gale Brewer attends Downtown Alliance/LMDC opening of a temporary plaza 1 block from the 9/11 Memorial and Museum at Albany St. and Greenwich St., Manhattan.

12:30 p.m. - Rep. Paul Tonko hosts Asst. Secretary of the U.S. Department of Energy Dr. David Danielson in an open forum on clean energy, RPI Center for Biotechnology and Interdisciplinary Studies, Bruggeman Conference Center, Troy.

12:30 p.m. - Avella visits College Point Senior Center, 22-38 College Point Blvd., Queens.

2 p.m. - State Sen. David Carlucci presents a local WWII vet with Medal of Good Conduct, 2000 Fountainview Drive, Monsey.

2 p.m. - Avella announces funding for Association for Neurologically Impaired and Brain Injured Children (ANIBIC) Center, Grand Central South service road and Commonwealth Blvd., Queens.

➔ 8 p.m. - Congressman Michael Grimm, state Sen. Martin Golden, Assemblywoman Nicole Malliotakis and Councilman Vincent Gentile join Harry Coghlan, Chairman of the Times Square Advertising Coalition (TSAC), and families affected by pediatric cancer to light more than a dozen of the giant digital screens in Times Square the color gold to raise awareness for pediatric cancer research, Times Square Plaza at Broadway between 43rd st. and 44th St., Manhattan.