TWA Welcomes
Jim Oleson

Tuesday September 17th, 2013 7:00 PM

at the Woodworking Shop
3141 Capital Boulevard, Raleigh, NC

Several members meet at 6:00pm at Buffalo Brothers Pizza & Wings for dinner prior to the meeting. Please join us!

Topic: Tapered Bent Laminations

Jim Oleson is a retired Radiation Oncologist and Ph.D. physicist who has started a second career as a furniture designer and maker. Jim builds graceful furniture featuring double tapered legs made from bent laminations. His technique allows him to taper his legs without exposing any of the glue lines that hold the lamination together. Jim will describe how he creates his beautiful table legs. You can see some of his work on his website, http://jro-furnituremaker.com/home.html

Host: Jeff Leimberger

Diane's TidBits

"It is imperative to ask our self every morning "what will I give those around me today?"

I was wondering what to write as my first president's message. It is really a daunting task when you have not done it in a few years. I thought of the many reasons that I decided to return to the presidential podium. My first run 15 years ago was the idea of Dan Cameron who thought my energy was just what the club needed. I am not even sure I agreed to be president before it was "too late", the gavel came down and I was it. A few great men formally called the Board of Directors took me under their protective wings and taught me all I needed to know. cough… cough…ha…ha!! They called me "kiddo" and made me feel welcome. They laughed at me when I was nervous, cried with me when we lost a member, helped implement plans for new ideas we wanted to explore, and they showed me that TWA is much more than an association. Becoming involved with this club is one of the best decisions I have made in my lifetime. I enjoyed my years then and I plan to do the same this time. I look forward to what is to come and getting to know all of you. I am terrible with names so please wear your name badges, that will help me out a great deal.

My focus is on membership, our numbers are low and it concerns me. We all want to have big name speakers but without membership to add to the kitty that is just not in our future. Jeff and his team have already secured some awesome meetings for the next year, I for one am very excited. We now need all of you to bring a friend or two, also bring a chair to be sure we have seating for all.

I have mentioned in recent months that my husband and I are currently taking care of his Mother who has had some tremendous heath scares recently. As she is unable to be on her own at this time we have relocated to Wilson, NC. That means that I am far away from my shop. I do have a small building here that I am currently turning into a quaint woodshop for myself. Anyone who was at the first Toys for Tots at our shop in Creedmoor a few weeks ago also knows that my lovely Mother does not want me anywhere near power tools because of my clotting disorder. She tries ahrd to make it very difficult for me to turn on a saw. It is nice to be loved but hard to steal a scroll saw from under her nose. Last weekend my husband took off to play golf and while the men were playing golf I built a 2'x4'x40" bench for my new shop!!! It felt great to be using my tools and creating something useful again. I have not lost my touch. I also have my scroll saw here and am getting back into the swing of things with it. I am being very careful…I promise. I even taught my 5 year old grandson how to use a palm sander. During the past few years that I have been fighting the illness I suffer from, I have truly missed the craft which I hold so dear. If you have not been in your shops in a while, go buy a few 2x4's and create something simple for your home or your shop, you will be amazed how much better it will make you feel. Next up for me are some shelves in our bedroom closet and then toy making for our beloved Toys for Tots program.

With a huge amount of things going on over the next few months be sure to keep your newsletter at hand and check the web for any new updates. Roger (our webmaster and my husband) will be making some changes and updates soon.

Till next time...

Meeting Minutes

August 2013 The meeting came to order at 6:55pm with Diane Philyaw presiding. Diane likes for everyone to talk to each other so she had the room stand and greet each other. She commented on the number of smiles she then saw throughout the room.

Announcements:

Notification was given of the next Board meeting, to be held Thursday August 22, all comers welcome, at Fred Ford's house.

Fred updated Toys for Tots, he is working very hard rounding up members to help with the workshops. Some toys are already ready (Terry Tenhouse has 80 boxes made). Incidentally if someone is missing a spatula, it is available from the July barbecue.

The Marines that run the local Toys for Tots program apologized for not showing up at the member's picnic. Our new contact is Gunny Floyd (16 years serving T4T). He will be at our September meeting to present a plaque of appreciation to the club for its continued support.

Fred announced that help is needed/ welcomed in Creedmoor for the workshop this weekend at Sue and Diane's.

Kay Baker has been running the Library and Membership duties for many years (13?), She needs help with her TWA activities and needs to have a librarian volunteer after September. We will not have library services available to us of a few folks do not volunteer. It does not require a great deal of your time. If 4 volunteer and work together, we are talking about a couple of hours a year. TWA has 15 chair positions and 7 board positions, 14 dedicated folks do it all. Help is needed. Nice pep talk delivered to the membership.

Pete Bucki was busy running another great raffle for a $250 gift certificate to Klingspor's, cost $10. All proceeds go to the T4T program. No surprise there as Pete is the Champion fund raiser for this program. He was also busy with the 4 min raffle.

All donations are tax deductible and donation receipts are now available if you need one.

Show & Tell:

Program:

Alan Leland was our guest presenter: Turning for Furniture Makers. Alan is a TWA club member and he demonstrated by creating a 1/2 size table leg. He mentioned that Sorby has new carbide tipped exchangeable cutters that fit a holder. He also noted the Carolina Wood turning symposium is in November. Several books noted Wood turning notes a good reference, he put resources in notes. Alan proceeded with the presentation, reminding us that the model is the story stick.

Alan discussed briefly fluting and referred members to Terry Brown for expertise. He then proceeded to recommend turning your own door handles Make a collete for a holder. Use a chuck to make a tapered handle and drill in a mortise cut 1 1/2" deep crosscut.

This secretary freely admits that the technical aspects of this apparatus were not clear to HER.

We took a break at 8pm for snacks, a drink, and some socializing, and of course stretching of the legs. Thanks Chuck for providing for us.

Pete auctioned several items and raised $51, Klingspor donated 2 items to our cause. As all the tickets for the raffle were sold Pete pulled the winning ticket which was purchased by Sue Eckard. Congratulations Sue on the $250.00 win!

Our Guest speaker got into the Toys for Tots spirit and donated $80.00. If you would like to make a cash donation please see our Treasurer Hugh Fish or any member of the Board or the Toys for Tots committee. Donations are always welcome and appreciated.

Alan also demonstrates turning at Klingspor's most Mondays, come on out and visit with him and spend some money in our host's shop!

We adjourned satisfied we had received some more insight into the production of the spindle.

Respectfully submitted by: Janet Batker Secretary

Show and Don't Tell with TWA Members

Tuesday October 15th, 2013

When Master furniture maker Chuck Bender was visiting TWA, he mentioned that one way to tell an amateur woodworker from a professional is that the amateur can't help but point out his mistakes to people admiring their work. Chris Schwarz had a similar quote when he visited, pointing out that furniture makers have been hiding their mistakes from wealthy people for hundreds of years.

As woodworking is the pursuit of excellence, sometimes things don't work out to be excellent. Looking for anyone brave enough to share their stories and examples of 'skillful fixes'. Whatever you prefer -- demoing -- talking -- photos -- and willing to elaborate on the mistakes made and what and how you were able to come up with a FIX.

Please speak up at this months meeting so I know we will have a full agenda for October. There are lots of mistakes made and I just want to say thanks in advance for those willing to share their stories!!!

Host: Pete Bucki

Toys for Tots
Status Report by Fred Ford

We are off to a good start. I have contacted most everyone who signed up and a few extra that I knew would want to be involved. Because of your excellent response I need to only fill three more slots to complete the sign up for this year. We have 44 people filling the 192 openings. On average each person signing up attends 4.4 workshops. But you know how misleading averages are. We have members only able to attend 1 workshop and we have one who signed up for 11. I will not give his name but his initials are Pete Bucki. Go Pete!!!

Just because it appears that all spots are full please do not think that your participation is not needed or wanted. If you would like to join us, PLEASE contact me. Things come up and folks need to cancel for various reasons and I could always use extra hands to help out.

In addition to the actual workshop there is a considerable amount of set up and preparation work going on. Toy design is a big item, then jigs made, materials secured, and materials prepared. Each host and helpers spend days achieving these items.

As an example; for our first Creedmoor workshop Pete Hodges cut 500+ car bodies and sanded them. Pete Bucki, (there he goes again), cut 200+ car bodies. The two then donated another day setting up the workshop for action. That included 14 work stations. Each station needed something checked - fresh sandpaper, sharp drill bits and proper sizes, sharp router bits, jigs at the drill presses, and machinery maintenance. Before we arrived Sue Eckard had spent many hours cleaning away her and her families' projects. I just spent another day making new jigs and flap wheels for our next workshop. This kind of work goes on for all the workshops.

One more time. For all of you that can not participate in a workshop please consider making a toy in your own shop to contribute. It will not only add interest to our December meeting but it will also make one more child feel special on Christmas morning.

Please let me know what you are doing and as I learn of your activity I will add you to the table below. Thank you Don Frankfather for being my first addition. Please note the empty row waiting for your name.

Pete's Updates & Info

Our $250 Klingspor gift certificate raffle was a success; our net profit for Toys for Tots was $275.00. Thanks to all that participated and donated. The lucky winner was Sue Eckard, could not have happened to a better person. Our yearly trips to Creedmoor to build Toys are at Sue's shop. We plan on anther raffle, possibly in October this year, and a drawing in time for Christmas.

We have been promised a $200.00 donation to the T4T fund IF we can MATCH funds. That would be a nice easy boost of $400.00 to the TFT fund. Help us out to get that 200 bucks, please give your donation to our treasurer Hugh Fish, we will keep you informed of progress.

Here is another great opportunity that we can participate and make a few more $$$ for TFT. "Cary Players" is putting on a play in December called "A Christmas Story" and would like to add a toy that would be raffled off on the last night of the play. The toy would be on stage during the play and displayed in the lobby. The idea is for a large toy that would be given to a 9 year old boy in the 1940's. This could be a riding or pushing toy. Cary Players would do the raffle and give TWA publicity and a display in the lobby of the Cary Arts Center and donate the raffle $$ to TWA Toys for Tots. Publicity & Money - a good deal!!!! If you have ANY ideas what that toy would be or have access to one or have plans for one, I'll donate the wood and get a few TWA members to help build one. Please contact Pete Bucki at 919-380-8860 or peteb301@att.net – THANKS!!!

FOUR minute auction for September. We will have two planes to raffle One is a wooden jointer that needs a blade, the other is an adjustable depth molding plane, missing some parts. Along with those we have also received a VERY large quantity of Fine Woodworker magazines in pristine condition. Consists of issue #33 March 1982 Complete thru issue # 104 Feb 1994. Also issue #152 Dec 2001 complete thru #213 Aug 2010, then issue #220 Aug 2011 to #227 Aug 2012. Approximately 139 issues of Fine Woodworking .. A STEAL !!!! The person that donated these fine magazines wanted the proceeds to benefit T4T's. And last we have also received a large quantity of "This Old House" magazine. A lot of great reading just in time for the winter months when we are all spending more time inside.

Respectfully submitted:
Pete Bucki
