TWA Welcomes Jay Cash

Tuesday

November 18th, 2014

6:55 PM

at the Woodworking Shop
3141 Capital Boulevard, Raleigh, NC

Several members meet at 6:00pm at Buffalo Brothers Pizza & Wings for dinner prior to the meeting. Please join us!

Thinking Outside the Can

Jay Cash will be our guest speaker with a great "how to..." program on many aspects of finishing for woodworking projects. Topics included in Jay's presentation will be wood selection & matching finishes to the type of wood, sealing & conditioning, and using dyes & pigmented colors. He will also discuss recipes for desired wood colors and matching fillers to grain.

The program will have a lot of useful, practical information.

Visitors with an interest in woodworking are welcome.

Some of you will remember Jay from his days working at Klingspor. Others may have attended one of the classes he taught on finishing while working there. Jay has more knowledge about finishing in his little finger than some of us, well me anyway, have in our entire body.

Jay is now working for Finish Pros of Raleigh. Finish Pros specialize in furniture restoration and upholstery. Here you not only know how to finish new furniture you must also be able to match the finishes of 100+ years ago. <http://www.finishpros.com>

Come -- be entertained -- and learn!!!

The following is from Finish Pros website. Here is what Jay has to say about himself.

I'm Jay, the Shop Manager here at Finish Pros. I have over 35 years of woodworking, furniture making, and finishing experience. Early in my career, I began working in the carpentry field and later developed a passion for furniture making. I have studied the art of furniture making and design with Master Craftsmen around the world. I still enjoy advancing this knowledge through intensive woodworking and finishing classes around the country. This helps me provide critical guidance to our shop staff throughout the finishing process. In my free time, I still enjoy woodworking if you can believe it. When I'm not doing that, I am spending time with family and enjoying my grandchildren.

Host: Fred Ford

"The month of November makes me feel that life is passing more quickly. In an effort to slow it down, I try to fill the hours more meaningfully."

Thanks to our membership, at last month's meeting $765 was added to the Toys for Tots account.

There are no items for the 2 minute auction in November.

However, we are always looking for and willing to accept new or used woodworking tools or woodworking related items for our auction.

Raffle... $250 Gift Certificate Going, Going, Gone

There are only 16 tickets remaining. Once those are sold we can have our drawing. It would be nice to have that gift certificate just before Christmas. Meeting Minutes

October

Diane Philyaw opened the meeting and apologized for the late arrival of our monthly publication, it is out now and it is superb as usual.

Welfare Report: Sue Eckard had knee replacement surgery and is doing well. Sue owns the shop in Creedmoor where so many Toys for Tots have been made, and where many of us enjoyed her cooking.

Roger Sanwald, our vice-president, took over the meeting direction after Diane took a seat to conserve her energy. With everything Diane is going through it is very likely that Roger will need to open some meetings in the future. How better to learn than to just do it, and of course Diane was here to help out and keep things moving.

Announcements:

Roger requested that all of us fill out a Program Interest Survey so we can start scheduling speakers for next year. Roger did let us know that Brian Boggs is on board and Michael Fortune will possibly be here next year (he was supposed to be here this Friday). We also have a fourth generation cabinet maker from Va. coming in May 2015, a well known artisan from the Heath family. We are planning to send an e-mail to each member prior to our meetings with an update on the upcoming topic. (This is in addition to the newsletter). Next month Jay Cash will present on finishing.

Pete Bucki announced he would auction off some items tonight on behalf of Toys for Tots, along with the $250 raffle and the $25 auction. Up for auction were a Chippendale cherry cradle, a mahogany jewelry chest and an oak clock. He also thanked Terry Brown for helping to get that large lathe that had been donated to the club to Pete's house, where it was stored and later sold for $550. (It was worth approximately $1750). This money will benefit the Toys for Tots program. Incidentally, workshops for this program are already up and running.

We are now getting more used to collecting and turning in our name tags at the door, and Kay and Judy appreciate our cooperation.

Mac McCaaron suggested that all of us bring a buddy to meetings, in particular young persons, to help support and expand membership. There was general agreement about that and a discussion opened up about how to increase our membership. Having great programs is a result of not just the hard work of the programs committee, it could not happen without dues.

Show & Tell:

Show and tell was a good one. Bob Allen presented a replica of some railings (along with pictures) he recently installed in his home of a contemporary nature. It represented 4 months of steady work and looked masterly.

Bernie passed around some articles of interest to us of a creative nature including an interesting one on boxes used to house cremains.

Jim Wilder mentioned that there is a company known as Renovo that is building parts for old (Delta) equipment. www.renovoparts.com

Program:

Mike Payst was introduced as the evenings speaker. Although he was a replacement for our previously scheduled speaker, he came well prepared. Mike has been a club member since the 90's so he has had plenty of time to develop and share his many vices. I mean vices. He is always working on improvements (sic) to his vices. I mean vices. He spoke tonight about Wooden Jawed vices with metal hardware. Leg vices are the largest and tallest vices. The Moxon vise, more of a bench vise, was invented by a Frenchman in the late 1600's. Vive la France. Mike expounded on the leg vise anatomy. Mike's first leg vise was made in 2010! He was not happy with it. For details on making these leg vices you must attend one of Mike's workshops. His major piece of advice is to remember that one clamp is a pivot but 2 are needed to hold a board still. His first vise was from a Woodsmith Publication, it was quite nice for holding large objects for planing. Mike has pioneered the use of bearings as opposed to nuts for allowing the long screw that tightens the vise to move smoothly. He has been generous with sharing his ideas with others and his workshops are always well attended. He and other members of TWA have lent their vices to workshops that the club has hosted and they have proved invaluable.

During the break Pete held the auction and bidding was more spirited than in the past. The kits were very desirable. Diane bid on and won the cradle for $45 and Joe won the mahogany jewelry box for $70, the oak clock went for $100 to another member (name ?). I'm sure our treasurer Jack Kite got his name!

Mike continued with his demonstration of the bench vise he made. He demonstrated how the two Moxon vices he brought operate. To totally understand these instruments you should make one, at least. The beauty of these vices is that they can clamp tapered objects easily and the use of bearings in holding the screws allows for freedom and smoothness of movement. They just make some work easier!

Mike's presentation was very interesting and his workshops will be well attended. We all would like vices like his. I mean vices.

2014 Toys for Tots News

*"Dull November brings the blast,
Then the leaves are whirling fast. ~Sarah Coleridge*

We are entering the last month of production in our 29th year of the TWA Toys for Tots Program and it may well be the best year ever. By having 12 relatively small workshops we have been able to focus on different designs and quality. I am looking forward to seeing the results.

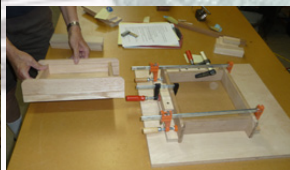

I have been trying to visit as many workshops as I can to see first hand how things are progressing. So far it has been a treat. I recently visited Terry Tenhouse. This is the 7th year that Terry has led T4T workshops. He had 3 years of making boxes of various descriptions, 3 years of making step stools, and now this year the team is focussing on wagons. I had the opportunity to see the group in action. Terry Tenhouse, Alex Knittel, Bob Long, and Bob Nauman are the elves this year. They are pictured along with a shot of the wagon and one of an assembly jig. We all love our jigs.

It will be nice to see all the finished products at our December meeting.

In addition to the workshops Terry has been instrumental in setting a relationship with The Hard-wood Store in Gibsonville, NC. The Hardware store has made available pallets of hardwood shorts to us that not only supplied Terry but many of the other eleven workshops.

This year we have had to purchase practically no wood. Numerous members, most workshop leaders, Pete Bucki's locating large caches to be donated, The Hardwood Store, and more have led to a very good supply. Thank you all.

December 9th

29th Annual Toys for Tots Calling All TWA Elves to bring your bags of Toys

Please join all the TWA toy makers at our December General meeting. As usual we encourage spouses to join us for this special meeting. We will be meeting at our normal meeting place Klingspor's Woodworking Shop at 3141 Capital Blvd. (.9 mile north of belt line exit 11)

Thanks to Paul Rolf and his staff. They have agreed to make extra room for our guests as well as the toys we would like to display by moving additional store displays.

Guest speaker Roy Underhill:

Roy is host of the popular tv show on PBS the Woodwright's Shop since 1979 and is a loyal supporter and friend of TWA, especially the Toys for Tots Program.

Roy's school located in Pittsboro for our convenience teaches the use of hand tools and much more. If you have not taken advantage of this valuable resource I invite you to consider it. I believe everyone that wants to be a woodworker should take at least one class on the proper use of hand tools. After twenty years of woodworking I took one and it has given me a totally new look at the Craft.

Program Interest Survey Results

At our last TWA meeting we conducted a brief survey asking members to rate their interest on a scale of 1-5, with 5 being greatest) in each of the following types of programs for the coming year.

- _____ “How to” presentations on woodworking techniques (joinery, dovetailing, glue-ups, etc.)
- _____ Informational programs on topics such as finishing, wood selection, glues, etc.
- _____ Carving techniques, types of carving, decorative arts, etc.
- _____ Woodworking hand tools – selection, use, care, etc.
- _____ Woodworking power tools – selection, use, value, etc.
- _____ Information and skill sharing among members
- _____ Project design in woodworking

Our objective in conducting the survey was to use the results to provide direction for Program Planning for the coming year.

We calculated the percentage of responses for each interest rating for all of the proposed program types. The results of the survey can be summarized as follows.

The program types most frequently rated highest (5 or 4) were the following:

- (88%) “How to” presentations on woodworking techniques
- (83%) Information and skill sharing among members
- (75%) Informational programs on topics such as finishing, wood selection, glues, etc.

Responses to the request for specific program suggestions were quite helpful. We now have a long list of suggestions to generate ideas for program planning.

Thanks to everyone who responded to the survey questions. This information is extremely valuable, as our goal is to maximize the relevance of TWA programs to our members.

Respectfully submitted: Roger Sanwald, Vice President & Programs Committee Chairman

What is mentoring?

Your role as a mentor is to serve as a catalyst. That is, you are there to aid your mentee in their quest for growth and excellence. And you can help shorten their journey because you've been there and done that.
