The camp and retreat center of the Episcopal Church in Connecticut, Camp Washington hosts a wide range of programs for children and adults throughout its 12-month program year. This beautiful, vibrant, and highly versatile 300-acre facility is nestled in the scenic hills of northwestern Connecticut.

One of the greatest aspects of time at Camp Washington is the opportunity to “take a moment to remind yourself you’re in God’s holy presence.” Reflection is a powerful tool in Christian formation, and a blessing of the camp environment is that it offers our guests and staff the chance for silence and the permission to think.

An idyllic setting, most of the rooms in the main building and lodge each have two twin beds (two of the rooms have double beds) and the eight winterized cabins each have 16 beds. Meals are served buffet-style and dietary requests are honored.

Please come and be refreshed in this blessed space.

We are located in a beautiful old Florida setting with big live oaks and pines draped with Spanish moss on serene Trout Lake, which has clear water and a sand bottom with swimming, kayaking, canoeing, and sailing. Rustic yet comfortable air-conditioned cabins and lodge. Delicious home-cooked, all-you-can-eat meals, we can feed 120 at a time and there are 150 beds, which are mostly bunks. In June and July, we have the best summer church camp! It's lots of fun as kids learn of Jesus' love, singing contemporary Christian songs and studying the Word of God. It is a peaceful place where campers feel God's presence.

Our mission is to provide an enjoyable, safe, and formational week-long residential summer camp for young people in our diocese. Our vision is to come together as a community, actively worship God, learn about our Christian faith, and go back into the world giving more than we have received. We celebrate a daily Eucharist where the young people plan and take part in all aspects and do outreach based on our yearly theme. We rent space at two camps in the area – Camp Newaygo, in Newaygo, Michigan, and Cran-Hill Ranch, near Big Rapids, Michigan.

Discover the beauty, peace, and spirituality of the Bosque Center. On the banks of the Rio Grande, the Bosque Center is nestled within the bosque (Spanish for forest). It is one of the largest urban forests in the United States. The river, tree canopy, and the serene setting create a place of relaxation, contemplation, and prayer. You are less than 15 minutes from an international airport, 15 minutes from major shopping opportunities and 10 minutes from historic Old Town Albuquerque.

The Bosque Center has one apartment/suite, six rooms with private baths and 32 single rooms. The great room within the residence hall is a perfect setting for retreats, meetings, and prayer groups. Walk the labyrinth based on Chartres (named one of top 100 in US) or sit by the pond. Throughout the grounds, one can find covered settings, benches, and areas for rest and relaxation. It's a short walk to the Paseo Del Bosque Trail. Recognized as one of the top 12 trails in the nation, you can view the river and a pristine habitat for wildlife.

Our beautiful state-of-the-art conference room can accommodate over 100 guests. Experience the Cocina Martita Dining Room that can seat 110 people. Dine outside and watch the beautiful mountains turn red at sunset. Our on-site caterer has earned a national reputation for healthy food and excellent cuisine.

Located on the Museum Mile in Upper Manhattan, House of the Redeemer was built in 1916 to serve as the town residence of Edith Shepard Fabbri, a great granddaughter of Commodore Cornelius Vanderbilt. Now the House exists as a retreat center in the Episcopal tradition to provide a place apart where all may find spiritual refreshment in their visit. The House provides guidance from clergy, daily prayers Monday through Friday in the Chapel, spiritual programs, and quiet times.

The converted servants quarters and family bedrooms function as overnight accommodations as follows: three doubles with private bath, three doubles with shared bath, and eight single rooms. The maximum capacity for our double rooms is for two persons (twin beds only in the rooms). For groups (12 or more) meals and meeting spaces are available at additional cost and can be arranged prior to arrival. We require that all guests are over the age of 16.

Immanuel Retreat Center offers programs in music and spirituality for adults and rents to non-profit and corporate groups. Our three buildings are on almost seven acres of land on a hill above the main square of the village of Bellows Falls, Vermont. The property includes Immanuel Episcopal Church, the Retreat House, and Currier Hall. The sanctuary's excellent acoustics have been noted by musicians and audiences alike and has served as the venue for Stone Church Arts concerts since 2004. It seats up to 200 people as a worship, performance, or lecture space. The Chapel, part of the church building, provides a spiritually oriented space for group work and also has excellent acoustics. The Undercroft has a professional kitchen as well as a dining room that can serve up to 100 people for a sit-down meal. The Retreat House sleeps up to 13 people in six bedrooms (nine without triple rooms). Currier Hall adds two meetings rooms and a dining room (seating 24 people) with a small kitchen. There are four bedrooms upstairs which will eventually add to the guest accommodations available in the Retreat House once they are fully refurbished.
