Funds raised through annual program advertisements directly support the general fund of the Commonwealth Ballet Company, a non-profit 501(c)(3) corporation.

CBC is a pre-professional youth ballet company providing cultural outreach to the Metro West Boston communities and professional performance experiences to young dancers.

*The Culture4Kidz program embodies CBC's commitment to enabling the widest possible audience to experience the art of ballet by providing disadvantaged youth with complimentary tickets to CBC performances. Regional Boys & Girls Clubs and other youth organizations assist by identifying children for whom a ballet performance would be beyond their means.
