PART II General (rules 3-9)

3. Sittings and selection of judges

The date, time and venue of the sittings of the Court and the selection of the Judges of the Court required to attend at such sittings shall be determined by the President of the Court alone.

4. Judgment

The judgment of the Court shall be pronounced by the President or by such other Judge of the Court as the President of the Court may direct.

5. Fees of Court and legal practitioners' fees and allowances

(1) The fees set out in the First Schedule shall be payable in respect of the matters to which they relate.

(2) The fees and other allowances payable to legal practitioners in connection with appeals before the Court shall be as set out in the First Schedule:

Provided that the Taxing Master shall on every taxation allow such costs, charges and expenses as appear to him to have been necessary or proper for the attainment of justice or for defending the rights of any party, but, except as against the party who incurred them, no costs shall be allowed which appear to the Taxing Master to have been incurred or increased through over-caution, negligence or mistake, or by payment of a special fee to a legal practitioner or by other unusual expenses.

(3) Where, in the opinion of the Court, more than one legal practitioner has been necessarily engaged in the performance of any of the work covered by the tariff, then in such a case the Court shall allow full fees as set out in the tariff in respect of one legal practitioner, two-thirds of such fees for the second legal practitioner, and half of such fees for the third and any other legal practitioner:

Provided that each legal practitioner who has been necessarily engaged in the case shall be allowed his full travelling and subsistence allowances as set out in the tariff.

6. Registers to be kept by Registrar

(1) The Registrar shall keep-

- (a) a Criminal Appeal Register; and
- (b) a Civil Appeal Register.

(2) The following particulars shall be entered in the Criminal Appeal Register and the Civil Appeal Register-

- (a) the number of the appeal;
- (b) the names of the appellant and the respondent; and
- (c) the date and place of hearing of the appeal.

7. Forms

The forms set out in the Second, Third and Fourth Schedules, or forms as near thereto as circumstances permit, shall be used in all cases to which such forms are applicable.

8. Extension of time and departure from Rules

(1) The Court may extend the time prescribed for the doing of anything to which these Rules apply, or may direct a departure from these Rules in any other way in the interest of justice.

(2) Any application for extension of time shall be supported by an affidavit setting forth good and substantial reasons for the application and, where the application is for leave to file an appeal out of time, the affidavit shall contain grounds of appeal which prima facie show good cause for leave to be granted.

(3) Any application under this rule may be heard by a single judge of the Court, designated by the President of the Court of Appeal. The President or such judge may grant or refuse such application or may refer it to the Court for determination.

9. Service

(1) Any reference in these Rules to an address for service means an address within Botswana where any notice, pleading, order, summons, warrant, proceeding and written communication, if not required to be served personally, may be left, or to which they may be sent.

(2) Where, under these Rules, any person has given an address for service, any notice, pleading, order, summons, warrant, proceeding or other written communication which is not required to be served personally, shall be sufficiently served upon him if it is left at that address or sent by registered post to that address.

(3) Where, under these Rules, any notice, pleading, order, summons, warrant, proceeding or other application to the Court, or to the court below, is required to have an address for service endorsed on it, it shall not be deemed to have been properly filed unless such an address is endorsed on it.

(4) Any person desiring to change his address for service shall notify the Registrar, who shall thereupon communicate the new address for service to anyone to whom he or she may have communicated the former address.

(5) Where any person has given the address of a legal practitioner as his address for service and the legal practitioner is not, or has ceased to be, instructed by him for the purpose of the proceedings concerned, it shall be the duty of the legal practitioner, to inform the Registrar as soon as may be that he or she is not authorized to accept service on behalf of the client, and if he or she omits so to do he or she may be ordered to pay any costs occasioned thereby.

(6) Where, under these Rules, any notice, pleading, order, summons, warrant, proceeding or other written communication is required to be served personally, it shall be sufficiently served if it is served in the manner prescribed for the personal service under rules of the High Court.

PART III

Civil Appeals (rules 10-31)

10. Application

This Part shall apply to appeals from the High Court or other tribunal from which appeals lie to the Court acting either in its original or appellate jurisdiction in civil cases, and matters related thereto.

11. Appeals as of right

Where an appeal lies to the Court as of right, such appeal shall be instituted in the form of a notice of appeal signed by the appellant or the legal practitioner representing him. The appellant shall deliver, or cause to be delivered, such notice to the Registrar of the court below and shall at the same time serve a copy of such notice on the respondent. The Registrar of the court below shall, subject to the provisions of these Rules, date and file such notice on receipt thereof.

12. Notice of appeal

(1) A notice of appeal shall set forth the grounds of appeal and shall state the exact nature of the relief sought and the names and addresses of all parties directly affected by the appeal. It shall also have endorsed on it an address within Botswana for service.

(2) If the grounds of appeal allege misdirection or error in law, the particulars and nature of the misdirection or error shall be clearly stated.

(3) The notice of appeal shall set forth concisely and under distinct heads the grounds upon which the appellant intends to rely at the hearing of the appeal without any argument or narrative, and shall be numbered consecutively.

(4) No ground which is vague or general in terms or which discloses no reasonable ground of appeal shall be permitted except the general ground that the judgment is against the weight of evidence, and any ground of appeal or any part thereof which is not permitted under this rule may be struck out by the Court on its own motion or on application by the respondent.

(5) The appellant shall not, without the leave of the Court, urge or be heard in support of any ground of appeal not mentioned in the notice of appeal, but the Court may in its discretion allow the appellant to amend the grounds of appeal upon payment of the fees prescribed for making such amendment and upon such terms as the Court may deem just.

(6) Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions, the Court in deciding the appeal shall not be confined to the grounds set forth by the appellant:

Provided that the Court shall not, if it allows the appeal, rest its decision on any ground not set forth by the appellant unless the respondent has had sufficient opportunity of contesting the case on that ground.

13. Time for filing of notice

(1) A notice of appeal shall be filed within six weeks of the date of the judgment appealed against. The Registrar of the court below shall not file any notice of appeal which is presented after the expiration of the period set forth in this rule unless leave to appeal out of time has previously been obtained.

(2) When leave to appeal out of time is so granted, a copy of the order granting such leave shall be annexed to the notice of appeal.

14. Appeals by leave (Civil Form 2)

(1) Where an appeal lies only by leave of the Court or of the court below, any application to the court for such leave shall be made ex parte by notice of motion, stating shortly the reasons upon which the application is made. The notice of motion shall be supported by an affidavit deposing to all relevant facts including, where it is so, the fact that the court below has refused leave, annexing where possible the judgment of the court below.

(2) If leave to appeal is granted by the court below or the Court, the appellant shall thereafter file a notice of appeal within the period of time stipulated in the order granting leave, or, if no time is stipulated, then within 21 days.

15. Addresses for service

(1) Every person who by virtue of service on him of a notice of appeal becomes a respondent to any appeal or intended appeal shall within 30 days after service on him of the notice of appeal file with the Registrar of the court below notice of a full and sufficient address for service. The Registrar of the court below shall forthwith transmit a copy of the notice of address to the Registrar and shall cause a copy thereof to be served on the appellant.

(2) If any respondent fails or omits to file such notice of address for service, it shall not be necessary to serve on him any other proceedings in the appeal or any notice of hearing thereof.

(3) Any party to an appeal or intended appeal may change his address for service at any time by filing and serving on all other parties to the appeal or intended appeal notice of such change.

16. Registrar's summons

(1) The Registrar of the court below shall, after the expiration of the time prescribed for filing notice of address for service, summon the parties before him to-

- (a) settle the documents to be included in the record of appeal;
- (b) fix the amount to be deposited by the appellant to cover the estimated cost of making up and forwarding the record of appeal; and
- (c) fix the amount to be deposited by the appellant or secured by bond for the respondent's costs of the appeal.

(2) The Registrar of the court below shall, whether any of the parties attend or not, provided that notice has been duly served on each of the parties who filed an address for service, proceed to settle and determine these matters in accordance with the provisions of rules 17, 18 and 19.

17. Record of appeal

- (1) The record of appeal shall contain the following documents in the order set out-
- (a) an index;
 - (b)
 - (c) copies of the documents settled by the Registrar of the court below for inclusion in the record of appeal, in accordance with rule 16;
 - (d) a copy of the notice of appeal and other relevant documents filed in connection with the appeal.

(2) The Registrar of the court below, as well as the parties, shall endeavour to exclude from the record all documents (more particularly such as are merely formal) which are not relevant to the subject matter of the appeal and generally to reduce the bulk of the record as far as practicable, taking special care to avoid duplication of documents and unnecessary repetition of headings and other merely formal parts of documents; but the documents omitted to be copied shall be enumerated in a list at the end of the record. Where part or parts only of any lengthy document are directly relevant to the subject matter of the appeal it shall be permissible to omit to copy such parts of the document as are neither directly relevant to the subject matter of the appeal nor necessary for the proper understanding of the part or parts that are so relevant.

(3) If the Registrar of the court below or any party objects to the inclusion of a document on the grounds that it is unnecessary or irrelevant and the other party nevertheless insists upon it being included the document shall be included and the record shall, with a view to the subsequent adjustment of the costs of, and incidental to the conclusion of, such document, indicate in the index of papers or otherwise the fact that the inclusion of the document was objected to and the party who so objected.

(4) It shall not be necessary for copies of individual documents to be separately certified but the Registrar of the court below shall certify as correct each copy of the record transmitted by him, in accordance with these Rules.

18. Cost of record

The appellant shall, within such time as the Registrar of the court below may direct, pay the fees prescribed for preparing the record, calculated at the full cost of one copy for the appellant and one-fifth of the cost for each of the five copies for the use of the Court.

19. Security for costs

The appellant shall, within such times as the Registrar of the court below shall fix, deposit such sum as shall be determined by such Registrar or give security therefor by bond with one or more sureties to the satisfaction of such Registrar for the due prosecution of the appeal and for the payment of any costs which may be ordered to be paid by the appellant:

Provided that no deposit or security shall be required where the deposit would be payable or security given by Government.

20. Non-compliance with rule 18 or 19

If the appellant fails to comply with any of the requirements of rule 18 or 19, the Registrar of the court below shall so inform the respondent and the Registrar, and the Court may thereupon order that the appeal be dismissed with or without costs.

21. Transmission of record

(1) The Registrar of the court below shall transmit to the Registrar the record when ready together with-

- (a) a certificate of service of the notice of appeal;
- (b) a certificate that the conditions imposed under rules 18 and 19 have been fulfilled;
- (c) five copies of the record for the use of the Court; and
- (d) the docket or file of the case in the court below containing all papers or documents filed by the parties in connection thereto.

(2) The Registrar of the court below shall also cause to be served on all parties mentioned in the notice of appeal who have filed addresses for service, notices that the appeal has been forwarded to the Registrar of the Court.

(3) On the receipt of all the documents referred to in subrule (1) and a copy of the document referred to in subrule (2), the Registrar of the Court shall enter the appeal in the cause list.

22. Cross appeal

(1) It shall not be necessary for a respondent to give formal notice of cross appeal; but if a respondent intends, at the hearing of the appeal, to contend that the decision appealed against should be varied or that it should be affirmed on grounds other than those relied on by the court below, or that part of it is erroneous and should be set aside, then he shall, within 30 days after service upon him of the notice of appeal, cause written notice of such intention to be given to every party who may be affected by such contention, whether or not such party has filed an address for service. In such notice the respondent shall clearly state the grounds on which he intends to rely and within the same period he shall file with the Registrar of the court below six copies of such notice of which one shall be included in the record, and the other five copies provided for the use of the Court.

(2) Omission to give such notice shall not diminish any powers of the Court, but may, in the discretion of the Court, be a ground for postponement or adjournment of the appeal upon such terms as to costs or otherwise as may be just.

23. Notice of preliminary objection to be filed

(1) A respondent intending to rely upon a preliminary objection to the hearing of the appeal shall give the appellant three clear days' notice thereof before the hearing, setting out the grounds of objection, and shall file such notice together with six copies thereof with the Registrar within the same time.

(2) If the respondent fails to comply with this rule, the Court may refuse to entertain the objection or may adjourn the hearing thereof at the cost of the respondent or may make such other order as it thinks fit.

24. Abandonment of appeal

(1) An appellant may at any time abandon his appeal by giving notice of abandonment thereof to the Registrar and to any respondent who has been served with notice of appeal, and upon such notice being given the appeal shall be deemed to have been dismissed by the Court. The respondent shall be entitled to costs up to the date on which he receives notice of such abandonment.

(2) If all parties to the appeal consent to the withdrawal of the appeal without an order of the Court, the appellant may file in the Court a document of notice of withdrawal of appeal by consent, signed by the parties or the legal practitioners representing them, and the appeal shall thereupon be deemed to have been withdrawn and shall be struck out of the list of appeals by the Registrar. In such event, any sum lodged in Court as security for the costs of the appeal shall be paid to the appellant.

(3) The withdrawal of an appeal with the consent of the parties under subrule (2) shall be a bar to further proceedings on any application made by the respondent under rule 22.

(4) A respondent who has given notice under rule 22 shall be entitled to proceed with his appeal under that rule notwithstanding the abandonment of the appeal by the appellant.

25. Notice of hearing

(1) The Registrar shall, after obtaining directions from the President of the Court, cause notice of the date of hearing to be served upon the appellant and respondent.

(2) At any time before the hearing of the appeal, any party to the appeal may file with the Registrar a declaration in writing that he does not wish to be present in person or by a legal practitioner at the hearing of the appeal. Such notice shall be accompanied by six copies of such arguments, if any, as he desires to submit to the Court. The party filing such declaration and arguments must serve a copy of such declaration and arguments upon every other party who has filed an address for service and thereupon the appeal shall be dealt with as if the party had appeared.

26. Heads of argument to be filed

(1) In every civil appeal the appellant shall, not later than 21 days before the day of hearing of the appeal, file with the Registrar of the Court six copies of the main heads of the argument to be presented on appeal, together with a list of the authorities to be quoted in support of each head.

(2) A copy of the main heads of the argument as aforesaid shall be served within the same period on the respondent. The respondent shall, as soon as may be thereafter, but not later than seven days prior to the hearing of the appeal, file with the Registrar six copies of the main heads of his argument in reply, together with a list of authorities to be quoted in support of each main head.

(3) When, however, the filing of the record on appeal does not allow the main heads of the argument to be filed within 21 days of the hearing, the appellant shall file the same without delay, and the respondent shall thereafter file his argument in reply as soon as possible.

27. Non-appearance of appellant

(1) If the appellant fails to appeal when his appeal is called for hearing and he has not taken action under rule 25, the appeal may be struck out or dismissed with or without costs.

(2) When an appeal has been struck out owing to the non-appearance of the appellant, the Court may, on a motion by the appellant and if it thinks fit, and on such terms as to the payment of court fees, costs or otherwise as it may deem just, direct the appeal to be re-entered for hearing.

28. Non-appearance of respondent

(1) If the respondent fails to appear when the appeal is called for hearing and he has not taken action under rule 22(2), the Court may proceed to hear the appeal ex parte.

(2) Where an appeal has been heard ex parte under this rule and any judgment has been given therein adverse to the respondent, he may apply to the Court to set it aside and to re-hear the appeal.

(3) No application to set aside and re-hear under this rule shall be made after the expiration of 21 days from the date of the judgment sought to be set aside:

Provided that a respondent who has failed within the period of 21 days to make application under this rule may nevertheless at any time within a further period of six weeks thereafter apply to the Court on notice to the appellant to set aside such judgment and the Court, if satisfied that good and sufficient cause has been shown for the application being out of time, may grant the application and make such order in relation thereto or as to costs as it may deem fit in the circumstances.

(4) Any such application shall be by motion accompanied by an affidavit setting forth the reasons and grounds for the application and the Court may thereupon in its discretion set aside the judgment and order that the appeal be re-heard at such time and upon such conditions as to costs or otherwise as it may think fit.

29. Powers of the Court

(1) It is not open as of right to any party to an appeal to adduce new evidence in support of his original case but, for the furtherance of justice, the Court may, where it thinks fit, allow or require any new evidence to be adduced in accordance with Part V of these Rules. A party may, by leave of the Court, allege any facts essential to the issue that have come to his knowledge after the decision of the court below and adduce evidence in support of such allegations.

(2) The Court shall have power to draw inferences of fact and to give judgment and make any order which ought to have been made by the court below and to make such further or other order as the Court may deem fit. The powers aforesaid may be exercised by the Court notwithstanding that the appeal may be that part only of the judgment be reversed or varied, and such powers may also be exercised in favour of all or any of the respondents or parties, although such respondents or parties may not have appealed from, or complained of, the decision.

(3) The Court shall have power to make such order as to the whole or any part of the costs of appeal as may be just.

(4) If, upon the hearing of an appeal, it appears to the Court that a new trial ought to be held, it shall be lawful for the Court, if it thinks fit, to order that the judgment shall be set aside and that a new trial shall be held.

30. Poor appellants

(1) If an appellant alleges that he is unable to pay the fees on appeal, the Registrar of the court below, upon application being made for that purpose, shall enquire into the means of the applicant and for that purpose may require the applicant to give evidence on oath, either in person or by affidavit:

Provided that an applicant who was allowed by the court below to sue or defend as a poor person shall be allowed, without further proof, to prosecute or defend an appeal before the Court as such poor person, unless the Registrar of the court below is satisfied that his financial position has materially changed.

(2) The decision of the Registrar of the court below shall be final as to whether the applicant has sufficient means to finance his appeal or not. If the Registrar of the court below is satisfied as to the applicant's lack of means, he shall refer the case to a legal practitioner for consideration.

(3) If the legal practitioner certifies that he has considered the case and that he believes the applicant has a reasonable probability of success, the Registrar of the court below shall forward to the Registrar the record of appeal, the legal practitioner's certificate and a statement of the proportion of the fees which the applicant is able to pay. No fees other than those in such statement shall be payable by the applicant. The Registrar shall thereupon assign a legal practitioner to the applicant. Such legal practitioner shall not take any fee from the applicant for anything done in the conduct of the appeal.

(4) If an appellant as aforesaid succeeds in any appeal which results in an order for payment to him of any sum of money from the respondent, whether by way of damages, costs or otherwise, the Court may order that the appeal fees shall be a first charge on any moneys recovered under such order and, from the balance of such moneys recovered, the legal practitioner for such appellant shall be entitled to such costs as may be allowed on taxation.

31. Taxation of costs

(1) The Registrar shall be the Taxing Master.

(2) Where costs are allowed in a civil appeal they shall be taxable according to the rules for the taxation of costs for the time being in force in the High Court but according to the scale in the First Schedule to these Rules:

Provided that costs allowed in respect of proceedings prior to the institution of an appeal shall be taxable according to the scale of costs for the time being in force in the court below.

(3) Any person aggrieved by any order, decision or ruling of the Taxing Master may apply to a Judge sitting in Chambers to set aside such order, decision or ruling and to make such further order as he may think fit. Any order or decision made by such Judge shall be subject to appeal to the Court as if it were an order or decision of the High Court.

PART IV

Criminal Appeals (rules 32-49)

32. Application

This Part shall apply to appeals to the Court from the High Court or from any other court from which appeals lie direct to the Court, acting either in its original or its appellate jurisdiction in criminal matters.

33. Commencement of appeal

(1) A person desiring to appeal to the Court against any judgment, sentence or order of the court below, whether in the exercise of its original or of its appellate jurisdiction, shall commence his appeal by sending to the Registrar of the court below a notice of appeal or notice of application for leave to appeal, or notice of application for extension of time within which such notice is to be given.

(2) The notice of appeal or notice of application for leave to appeal shall reach the Registrar not later than six weeks after the judgment, sentence or order appealed against:

Provided that where such notice relates to an appeal against a sentence of death, it shall be delivered to the person in charge of the prison where the appellant is confined not later than 14 days after the pronouncement of the sentence by the court below.

34. How notices, etc. must be signed

(1) Every notice of appeal or notice of application for leave to appeal or notice of application for extension of time within which such notice shall be given or other notice required or authorized to be given, shall be in writing and signed by the person giving the same or by the legal practitioner representing him. All notices required or authorized to be given shall be addressed to the Registrar of the court below.

(2) Where an appellant is unable to write, he may affix his mark on any notice of appeal or notice of any application in the presence of a witness who shall attest the same, and thereupon such notice shall be deemed to be duly signed by such appellant.

(3) Where, on a trial of a person entitled to appeal, it has been contended that he was not responsible according to law for his actions on the grounds that he was insane at the time the act was done or the omission made by him, or that at the time of the trial he was of unsound mind and consequently incapable of making his defence, any notice required to be given and signed by the appellant himself may be given and signed by his legal representative.

(4) In the case of a body corporate where any notice or other document is required to be signed by the appellant himself, it shall be sufficient compliance therewith if such notice or other document is signed by the managing director, secretary, manager or by the legal practitioner representing such body corporate.

35. Appeals as of right

(1) Where an appeal lies to the Court as of right, it shall be instituted in the form of a notice of appeal. The appellant shall deliver or cause to be delivered such notice to the Registrar of the court below and at the same time he shall deliver or cause to be delivered a copy of such notice on the respondent.

(2) A notice of appeal shall in all respects comply with the provisions relating to the notice of appeal in civil appeals as laid down in rules 12 to 20 inclusive.

36. Appeals by leave

(1) Where an appeal lies only by leave of the Court or of the court below, any application to the Court for such leave shall be made by notice of application for leave to appeal, stating shortly the reasons upon which the application is made. The notice shall state all relevant facts including, where it is so, the fact that the court below has refused leave, annexing where possible the judgment of the court below. The notice shall also set forth concisely and under distinct heads the grounds of objection to the judgment appealed against and such grounds shall be numbered consecutively.

(2) The notice shall be delivered to the Registrar and a copy shall be served upon the respondent forthwith.

(3) If leave to appeal is granted by the Court, it shall not be necessary for such appellant to give any notice of appeal but the notice shall in such case be deemed to be a notice of appeal.

37. Cost of record

(1) The appellant shall, within such time as the Registrar of the court below may direct, pay the court fees prescribed for preparing the record, calculated at the full cost of one copy for the appellant and one-fifth cost for each of the five copies for the use of the Court.

(2) The Registrar of the court below may, on good cause shown, waive payment of the fees payable under this rule. Any refusal by such Registrar to waive such fees shall be subject to appeal to a Judge of the High Court sitting in Chambers whose decision shall be final.

38. Fees

(1) The fees set out in the First Schedule shall be paid in respect of the several matters mentioned therein:

Provided that the court below or the Court may waive in whole or in part the payment of any fees by any appellant or may order that any fees already paid be refunded to the appellant as may seem just.

(2) The fees payable in appeals from prosecutions by persons other than the State shall be as laid down in respect of civil matters.

39. Record in criminal appeals from the court below in its original jurisdiction

(1) The record of appeal in an appeal or application relating to an appeal from the court below acting in its original jurisdiction in criminal cases shall contain legibly typed copies of the following items, arranged in this order-

(a) an index;

(b) the charge or information;

Provided that if shorthand notes or tape or other recording has been taken, a copy of the transcript thereof shall be included, either in addition to or in substitution of the Judge's notes, as he may direct;

(d) the judgment and any explanation thereof;

(e) the proceedings on or after sentence insofar as not included in the notes of the hearing or minutes of proceedings;

(f) all documentary exhibits put in at the trial, including depositions read in consequence of the absence of a witness:

Provided that in the case of books of accounts or other documents of great length, extracts of the relevant portions thereof only may be included;

(g) the notice of appeal or notice of application for leave to appeal, or notice of application for leave to appeal out of time in which such notice shall be given.

(2) It shall not be necessary for the record of appeal to contain copies of any recognizances entered into or documents filed in connection with the appeal or application other than those set out in subrule (1) unless the Court or a Judge of the court below shall otherwise direct.

40. Record in appeals in criminal matters from the court below in its appellate jurisdiction

(1) The record of appeal in an appeal or application relating to an appeal from the High Court acting in its appellate jurisdiction in criminal matters shall contain legibly typed copies of the following items, arranged in this order-
