(3) The Guardian's Fund shall, subject to any directions that may be given by the Master in accordance with this Part, be administered by the Accountant-General.

102. Statements of unclaimed moneys to be published, and amounts to be paid into Guardian's Fund

(2) That statement shall as far as practicable set forth the full name and last known address of each of the owners aforesaid and shall be signed by the person carrying on business or some responsible person on his behalf and shall be published in the Gazette.

(6) If any person fails to publish the statement mentioned in this section or to pay into the Guardian's Fund any moneys which under this section ought so to be paid, as and when the same ought respectively to be published or paid, then every person having the custody or control of such moneys or, in the case of an association of persons other than a partnership, the secretary and every director thereof within Botswana or in the case of a partnership, every member thereof within Botswana shall be liable to a fine not exceeding P1000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months, or to both.

Interest at the rate of four per cent per annum or at such rate as may from time to time be fixed by the Minister responsible for finance by order published in the Gazette shall be allowed on the principal of every sum of money received by the Master for account of any minor, mental patient or unborn heir or, if the Minister so directs, on account of any other person, from the first day of the month following that in which the money has been so received and until the amount becomes legally claimable:

Provided that on 31st March in each year the interest that has become due on any moneys shall be added to the capital in the books of the Guardian's Fund, and in case such interest is not drawn by the person entitled thereto previous to 31st March following interest shall be allowed on the accumulated sum.

104. Guardian's Fund to be available for investment

The Guardian's Fund shall be deemed to be money available for investment which may be received for or on account of the Government, and the Accountant-General may from time to time at the direction of the Master withdraw, for the purpose of paying any amounts due and payable by the Guardian's Fund, any part of the working balances which are retained at the Master's disposal.

105 Ordinary payments from Guardian's Fund

The Master shall direct the Accountant-General to pay any sum of money standing to the credit of any person or estate in the books of the Guardian's Fund to the person by law entitled to receive the same:

Provided that the parent of a minor child having money deposited in the Guardian's Fund shall not be entitled to receive a greater amount of the interest due thereon than in the opinion of the Master has been reasonably necessary for the support and advancement in life of the minor, regard being had to his circumstances and condition in life.

106. Extraordinary payments from Guardian's Fund

(1) If after careful enquiry it appears to the Master to be for the interest of any minor, the Master may direct the Accountant-General to pay for the maintenance, education, or other benefit of that minor an amount which may be standing to his credit but this amount so paid shall not, without the sanction of the court, exceed P4000 in all.

(2) Whenever it appears to the Master that the interest upon any amount standing in the Guardian's Fund to the credit of a mental patient is not sufficient adequately to provide for the maintenance and treatment of the mental patient, the Master may direct the Accountant-General to pay for those purposes so much of the capital as, regard being had to the circumstances of the mental patient and of the persons dependent upon him, appears to the Master to be just and reasonable.

(3) The Master may, after consulting the guardian, direct the Accountant-General to pay to a person nominated by the Master from the working balances referred to in section 104 any sum of money belonging to a minor for the purchase of immovable property within Botswana, if he is satisfied that such purchase will be to the benefit of the minor.

(4) Nothing contained in this section shall authorize the Master to disregard the terms of any valid will or other deed.

107. List of unclaimed moneys to be published annually

(1) The Accountant-General shall in the month of July in each year cause to be drawn up a list of all amounts standing in the books of the Guardian's Fund which are claimable and are unclaimed, shall cause the same to be inserted in the Gazette, and shall forthwith transmit two or more copies thereof to the Master, who may cause the said list or any portion thereof to be published in such manner as he deems most expedient in any country or countries to which any person or persons interested may be supposed to belong.

(2) In the advertisements all persons shall be invited to submit their claims to the Master: Provided that no amount which is less than P100 need be advertised more often than once in every five years.

108. Lapse to the State of moneys unclaimed for 30 years

When any money which has been placed to the credit of any person or estate in the Guardian's Fund remains unclaimed by any person having a just and lawful right thereto for a period of 30 years from the date when the same was so placed to credit or in the case of a minor, from the date when he attains his majority, the claim shall lapse and the money shall become forfeited to the State and may be appropriated as part of the revenue of Botswana.

PART VII

Miscellaneous (ss 109-125)

109. Failure to lodge administration account

(1) If any executor, administrator, tutor or curator fails to lodge any account with the Master as and when required by this Act, or to lodge any vouchers in support of such account or to perform any other duty imposed upon him by this Act, or to comply with any reasonable demand of the Master for information or proof required by him in connection with the administration of the executor, administrator, tutor or curator, the Master or any person having an interest in the matter may, after giving the executor, administrator, tutor or curator not less than one month's notice, apply to the court for an order directing the executor, administrator, tutor or curator to lodge such account or vouchers in support thereof or to perform such duty or to comply with such demand.

(2) An executor, administrator, tutor or curator who receives such a notice may apply to the Master for an extension of time wherein to lodge such account or vouchers in support thereof, or to perform such duty, or comply with such demand, and the Master may grant such extension as in the circumstances of the case he may think reasonable.

(3) If the Master refuses any such extension of time and an application under subsection (1) is made to the court, and if upon that application the court is of opinion that an extension of time ought to have been granted by the Master, the Master or other person by whom the application was made shall nevertheless be entitled to his costs if there was sufficient time before the notice of the application for the executor, administrator, tutor or curator in default to bring in review by the court the refusal of the Master to extend the time.

(4) The costs adjudged to the Master or such other person shall, unless otherwise ordered by the court, be payable by the executor, administrator, tutor or curator de bonis propriis.

110. Failure to pay over moneys

Any executor, administrator, tutor or curator who, without sufficient excuse, retains, and fails as and when required by this Act to pay over, any moneys to the Master or for the benefit of a minor to any other person, shall be liable to forfeit at the instance of the Master or such other person for the benefit of the estate, or (as the case may be) for the person to whom the money belongs, interest upon the amount of the default at the rate of 12 per cent per annum as from the commencement of the default.

111. Master's costs when not otherwise recoverable payable out of Guardian's Fund

(1) Whenever any executor, administrator, tutor or curator is ordered to pay de bonis propriis the costs of any proceedings instituted by the Master, the Master may, if he finds it impossible to recover the same from the executor, administrator, tutor or curator, pay or order payment of such costs from any property subject to the administration of the executor, administrator, tutor or curator in regard to which the proceedings were taken, or if there is no such property available, from the Guardian's Fund.

(2) All costs incurred by the Master in the ordinary course of his duties under this Act or otherwise and not recoverable by him from any other source, may be drawn by him and paid out of the credit balance of the Guardian's Fund unless the court in any case order that the costs be paid by the Master de bonis propriis:

Provided that the Minister may specially authorize that any costs ordered to be paid by the Master de bonis propriis be refunded to him or met out of the Guardian's Fund.

112 Form of court proceedings taken by Master

Whenever by this Act the Master is required or authorized to take civil proceedings against any executor, administrator, tutor or curator, he may proceed by way of application or motion and may when so proceeding report to the court in writing the facts upon which he relies instead of stating them in an affidavit, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any law or rule of court.

113. Report by Master to the court otherwise than upon formal application

Whenever in the course of his duties the Master finds it necessary to lay any facts before the court otherwise than upon formal application or motion, the Master may lay those facts before the court having jurisdiction by a report in writing transmitted through the Registrar of the court. The court may thereupon make such order as it thinks fit:

Provided that the court may in every case, if it thinks fit, refer the report back to the Master and require the same to be presented upon formal application in court.

114. Statement of case by Master to the court in certain events

Whenever any difference of opinion upon a question of law arises between the executor or administrator and the Master in the distribution of an estate or property subject to administration and a minor is interested in the decision of that question, the Master and the executor or administrator may state a case in writing for determination by a judge of the court and his determination shall be binding upon the Master and the executor or administrator, without prejudice to the rights of other persons interested in the distribution:

Provided that the judge may refer the matter to the court for argument.

115. Review of Master's appointments, etc.

Every appointment by the Master of an executor, administrator, tutor or curator, and every order or decision of or taxation by the Master under this Act shall be subject to appeal to or review by the court upon motion at the instance of any person aggrieved thereby, and thereupon the court may confirm, set aside or vary the appointment, order, decision or taxation, as the case may be.
