(14) Any bank at which a legal practitioner keeps such trust account shall not, by reason only of the name or style by which the account is distinguished, be deemed to have knowledge that the legal practitioner is not entitled absolutely to all moneys paid or credited to the account:

Provided that nothing in this subsection shall relieve a bank from any liability or obligation under which it would be apart from this Act.

(15) A bank at which a legal practitioner keeps a trust account shall not, in respect of any liability of the legal practitioner, not being a liability arising out of or in connection with the account, have or obtain any recourse or right, whether by way of set-off, counterclaim, charge or otherwise against moneys standing to the credit of the account.

(5) A copy of the recommendation shall be served on the Attorney-General by the Secretary.
