- a. Permissible uses and Disclosures without Your Written Authorization: I may use and disclose PHI without your written authorization for certain purposes as described below. The examples provided in each category are not meant to be exhaustive, but instead are meant to describe the types of uses and disclosures of your mental health information that are legally permissible.
1. Treatment: I may use and disclose PHI to other clinicians involved in your care in order to provide integrated treatment to you. For example, I may discuss your diagnosis and treatment plan with your psychiatrist or nurse practitioner. In addition, I may disclose your PHI to other health care providers in order to provide you with appropriate care and continued treatment.
  2. Payment: I may use or disclose your PHI for the purposes of determining coverage, billing, claims management, and reimbursement. For example, a bill sent to your health insurer may include some information about our work together so that the insurer will pay for the treatment. I may also inform your health plan about a treatment you are going to receive in order to determine whether the plan will cover the treatment.
  3. Health Care Operations: I may use and disclose your PHI for the health care operations of my professional practice in support of the functions of treatment and payment. Such disclosures would be to Business Associates for health care education, or to provide planning, quality assurance, peer review, administrative, legal, or financial services to assist me in my delivery of your health care.
  4. Required by Law. I may use or disclose your PHI to the extent that the use or disclosure is required by law, made in compliance with the law, and limited to the relevant requirements of the law. Examples are public health reports, abuse and neglect reports, law enforcement reports, and reports to coroners and medical examiners in connection with investigation of deaths. I also must make disclosures to the Secretary of the Department of Health and Human Services for the purpose of investigating or determining my compliance with the requirements of the Privacy Rule.

Oversight agencies also include government agencies and organizations that audit their provision of financial assistance to me, such as third-party payers.
6. Threat to Health or Safety. I may disclose your PHI when necessary to minimize an imminent danger to the health or safety of you or any other individual.
7. Compulsory Process. I will disclose your PHI if a court issues an appropriate order. I will also disclose your PHI if (1) you and I have each been notified in writing at least fourteen days in advance of a subpoena or other legal demand, identifying the PHI sought, and the date by which a protective order must be obtained to avoid my compliance, (2) no qualified judicial or administrative protective order has been obtained, (3) I have received satisfactory assurances that you received notice of your right to seek a protective order, and (4) the time for your doing so has elapsed.

1. Prior Providers. I may disclose your PHI to your prior health care providers, unless I have given you the opportunity to agree or object, and you have objected in writing.
2. Close Personal Relationships. In accordance with good professional practice, I may disclose your PHI to person(s) who are close to you that are involved with your care, unless I have given you the opportunity to agree or object, and you have objected. When you are not present, or in situations of your incapacity or in an emergency, and where disclosure, in my clinical judgment would be in your best interests, I will disclose your PHI as minimally necessary.
3. Disaster Relief Efforts. I may use or disclose your PHI to a public or private entity authorized by law or its charter to assist in disaster relief efforts for the purpose of coordinating notification of family members of your location, general condition, or death.

c. Uses and Disclosures Requiring Your Written Authorization: I will make other uses and disclosures of your PHI only with your written authorization. Unless I have taken a substantial action in reliance on the authorization such as providing you with health care services for which I must submit subsequent claim(s) for payment, you may revoke an authorization in writing at any time. (Note about Psychotherapy Notes: I will not disclose the records of our work that I keep separate from the medical record for my personal use, known as psychotherapy notes.)
