

Suzuki Teacher Training in Hertfordshire

Hertfordshire Music Service is delighted to be working with Kasia Borowiak to provide Suzuki Piano Teacher Training at St Albans Music School from January 2014. Teachers interested in joining the course should contact HMS at enquiries@stalbanismusicschool.hertsmusicservice.org.uk

Kasia Borowiak is a graduate of the Fryderyk Chopin Academy of Music and the Guildhall School of Music & Drama (GSMD). She furthered her performing skills with Bernard Ringeissen and Richard Goode. She has won major scholarships from the Chopin Society, Myra Hess Trust and the British Council, and has performed throughout Poland for the Warsaw Philharmonic, Warsaw Music Society and Fryderyk Chopin and Karol Szymanowski societies, and throughout the UK and Ireland, both as a soloist and chamber musician.

Kasia is the European Suzuki Association (ESA) Teacher Trainer and Examiner, and has been the ESA Piano Director between 2002 and 2010. She is a Suzuki Method pioneer in Central Europe and a founder of the Polish Suzuki Association. During 2006-2009 she worked on the New International Suzuki Piano Edition as a member of the International Piano Committee.

Kasia has been professor of piano at the GSMD Junior School since 1992 and was a GSMD (later Trinity Guildhall) examiner between 1999 and 2008. She has performed, lectured and taught on numerous courses and seminars throughout the UK and worldwide - in Europe, Australia, Far East and the US. She has been with the HMS since 1990.
