CHAPTER 1GENERAL PROVISIONS*Section 1-1. Designation and citation of Code.

This Code shall be known and may be cited as the “Hawai‘i County Code,” the “County Code,” or in the provisions which follow as “this Code.”
(1983 CC, c 1, sec 1-1.)

Section 1-2. Rules of construction.

(a) In the construction of this Code, the following rules shall be observed unless it is apparent from the context that a different construction is intended:

- (1) All words and phrases shall be construed and understood according to the common and approved usage of the language; but technical words and phrases and such others as may have acquired a peculiar and appropriate meaning in the law shall be construed and understood according to such peculiar and appropriate meaning.
- (2) Every word in this Code shall extend to and be applied to all genders; and every word importing the singular number only shall extend to and be applied to several persons or things as well as to one person or thing; and every word in the plural number shall include the singular number, and every word in the singular number shall include the plural number.
- (3) Every word used in the present tense shall include the future.
- (4) When any provision of this Code requires an act to be done, which may by law as well be done by a subordinate officer as by the superior officer, such requirement shall be construed to include all such acts when done by an authorized subordinate officer.
- (5) The time within which an act is to be done as provided in any provision of this Code or in any order issued pursuant to any provision of this Code, when expressed in days, shall be computed by excluding the first day and including the last, unless the last day is a Sunday or holiday, in which case it is also excluded. When so provided by the rules of court, the last day shall also be excluded if it is a Saturday.

(1983 CC, c 1, sec 1-2.)

Section 1-3. When rules of construction do not apply.

The rules of construction set forth in section 1-2 shall not be applied to any provision of this Code which contains an express provision excluding such construction, or when the subject matter or context of a provision of this Code may be repugnant thereto.

(1983 CC, c 1, sec 1-3.)

Section 1-4. Definitions.

- (a) For the purposes of this Code, the following terms, phrases, words, and their derivations shall have the meaning given in this section, unless it is apparent from the context that a different meaning was intended:
- (1) “And/or.” “And” may be read “or” and “or” may be read “and,” if the sense requires it.
 - (2) “Agency” means any office, department, board, commission, or other governmental unit of the County.

* Editor's Note: Section 4-2, Hawaii Revised Statutes was repealed.

Section 1-5. Reference to chapters, articles, divisions, subdivisions, and sections; conflicting provisions.

- (a) In addition to the rules of construction specified in section 1-2, the following rules shall be observed in the construction of the provisions of this Code:
 - (1) All references to chapters, articles, divisions, subdivisions, and sections are to the chapters, articles, divisions, subdivisions, and sections of the Hawaii County Code unless otherwise specified;
 - (2) If the provisions of different chapters of this Code conflict with or contravene each other, the provisions of each chapter shall prevail as to all matters and questions growing out of the subject matter of that chapter; and
 - (3) If conflicting provisions are found in different sections of the same chapter, the provisions of the section which was enacted later in time prevail unless such construction is inconsistent with the meaning of that chapter.

(1983 CC, c 1, sec 1-5.)

Section 1-6. Revival.

The repeal of any resolution or ordinance does not revive any other resolution or ordinance which has been repealed, unless that revival is clearly expressed.

(1983 CC, c 1, sec 1-6.)

Section 1-7. Effect on rights accrued.

The repeal of any resolution or ordinance shall not affect any act done, or any right accruing, accrued, acquired, or established, or any suit or proceedings had or commenced in any civil case, before the time when the repeal takes effect.

(1983 CC, c 1, sec 1-7.)

Section 1-8. Pending suit or prosecution.

No suit or prosecution pending at the time of the repeal of any resolution or ordinance, for any offense committed, or for the recovery of any penalty or forfeiture incurred under the resolution or ordinance repealed, shall be affected by that repeal.

(1983 CC, c 1, sec 1-8.)

Section 1-9. Severability.

It is declared to be the intention of the council that the sections, subsections, paragraphs, sentences, clauses, and words of this Code are severable. If any section, subsection, paragraph, sentence, clause, or word is declared unconstitutional, or otherwise invalid by the lawful judgment or decree of any court of competent jurisdiction, its unconstitutionality or invalidity shall not affect the validity of any of the remaining sections, subsections, paragraphs, sentences, clauses, and words of this Code, since the sections or parts of sections would have been enacted by the council without and irrespective of any unconstitutional or otherwise invalid section, subsection, paragraph, sentence, clause, or word being incorporated into this Code.
(1983 CC, c 1, sec 1-9.)

Section 1-10. General penalty.

- (a) Where there is a violation of a provision of this Code for which no penalty is provided, the person violating the provision shall be subject to a fine of not more than $100 for each offense, or to imprisonment of not more than ninety days, or to both.
 - (b) In all cases where a penalty is imposed by this Code, the court may, in addition to such penalty, award attorneys' fees to the County.
- (1983 CC, c 1, sec 1-10.)

Section 1-11. Violation of Charter.

- (a) As used in this section, “intentionally” means an act purposely, knowingly, or wilfully done.
 - (b) Any person who “intentionally” fails to exercise such person’s duties and responsibilities as expressed in the Charter, or to heed the prohibitions provided for therein, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by a fine of not more than $500 or by imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months, or by both.
 - (c) The provisions of this section shall not apply to article XIV of the Charter.
- (1983 CC, c 1, sec 1-11.)
