DRAGONFORCE 65 R/C SAILING

This Sunday, January 24rd starting at 2:30PM we will be racing R/C boats in the indoor pool of the Neenah Riverwalk Hotel. Drinks will be available from the bar. Come out and race your boat or maybe take a turn on someone else's. The weather forecast is guaranteed to be nice in the indoor pool! Come out and join the fun!

If you want to learn more or have any questions please contact R/C fleet captain Mark Johnson at mark@bejubi.com.

SAILONLINE.ORG RACE 2016

NNYC will once again be partnering with SailOnline.org to host a computer race around Lake Winnebago starting at 10AM on Saturday, February 6th for racers here and all over the world. The race tests your skills in navigation and plotting to make it around the marks as quickly as possible using the actual weather data of the day! This will be the first ever sailonline.org to use DN iceboat polars!

If you are interested, please register here All you need to provide is your email address, a boat name, and password. We suggest using the prefix "NNYC_" on your boat name. For example, Derek Walker has NNYC_Scooter. Feel free to use your real boat name, or something else.

If you have any questions you can contact Derek Walker at jderekwalker@gmail.com

Submit your sailing photos to communications@nnyc.org or upload them to our Facebook page and they might end up in a Zephyr!
