Bring canned food, hygiene items, or clothes to "Fill the Boat" for local charities!

Have a great time socializing and reminiscing about the sailing season! Highlights include the club meeting, awards, raffles, photos from the year, and great food - all in a banquet hall with plenty of room to stretch out.

We will have some great raffles going on with the proceeds benefiting the Fox Valley Sailing School including these great items from FVSS:

- 1 Boat rig tune-up
- 1 Race coaching session
- 1 Private sailing lesson (2.5 hours)
- 1 Youth lesson for a week

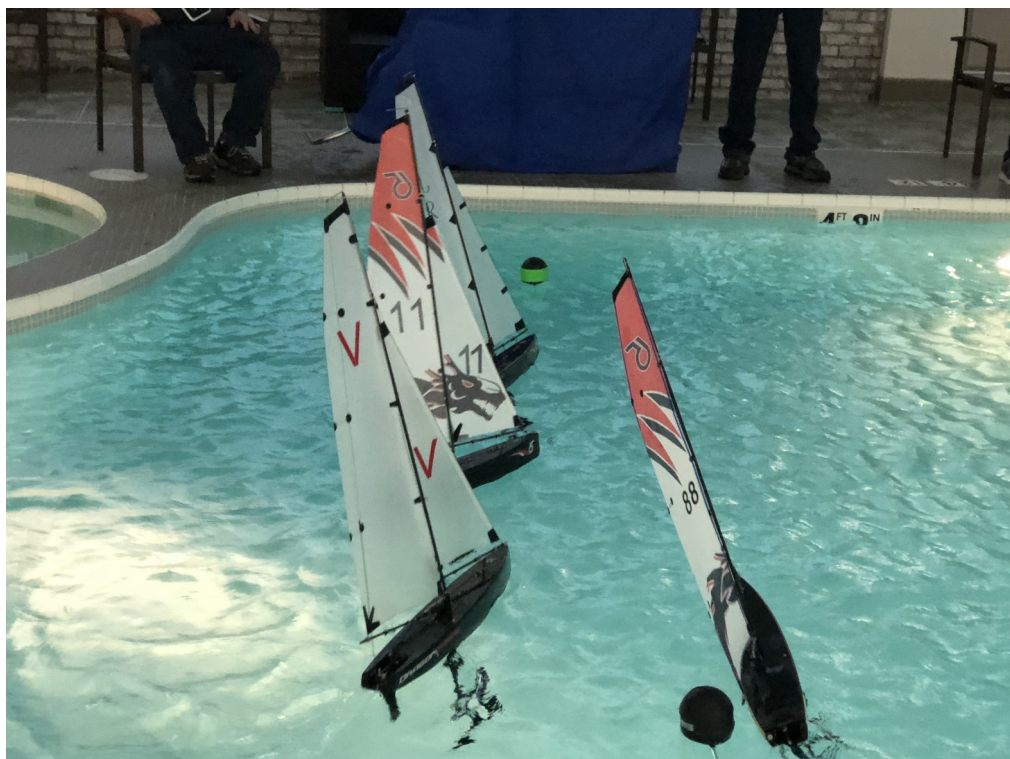

Get all the details and RSVP and pay at www.nnyc.org/agm.

CHESAPEAKE CRUISE WRITE-UP

Ken Friedman has turned his funny and interesting observations of the 2017 NNYC Chesapeake Bay Cruise into a short write up. If you want to learn more about the trip, or if you were there and want to see if Ken's version of the story matches yours, check it out - NNYC Club Cruising in the Chesapeake - 2017 by Ken Friedman

INDOOR R/C SAILING RETURNS

It may be getting colder outside but things are heating up as the DragonForce 65 radio control fleet is back to racing in the indoor pool of the Doubletree Hotel (formerly Riverwalk). If you want to come and watch the action on a Sunday afternoon check out the schedule on the NNYC calendar or if you are interested in more details or getting involved drop a note to rcfleetcaptain@nnyc.org. The next race afternoon is scheduled for 3PM on Sunday, November 19th.
