

Equipoise

Made in locally + sustainably sourced solid pignut hickory with a tung oil finish and a stainless steel square tube base, this coffee table was designed to be straightforward, practical and to fit well in a variety of settings. Its cool and attenuated base complemented by the warmth and grain character of its top, this piece is characterized by its quiet presence.

