

BOREALIS BULLEYES
ATHLETE & PARENT RESPONSIBILITIES

Athlete shall be expected to:

- Be ever vigilant regarding safe range practices.
- Show respect to coaching staff, club members and visitors.
- Care for all club equipment.
- Assist in setting up and cleaning up before/after practice sessions.
- Honor commitments (particularly as pertains to attending scheduled practices and matches).
- Participate in fund raising activities.
- Maintain and bring shooter's diary to EACH practice and match.

Parents will:

- Be supportive of coaching staff.
- Insist on their child's honoring commitments to the team.
- Volunteer as needed.
- Parents are financially liable for the care of club equipment on loan to their child. Any damage done through willful destruction, negligence or accidental (including loss of items) will be charged to the parent. Items which are checked out will be itemized and signed for.

BOREALIS BULLSEYES SHOOTING CLUB TEAM
ATHLETE and PARENT AGREEMENT

I have read the responsibilities and all information provided and I understand its contents.

I understand that my financial responsibility is a club membership fee. Membership in USA Shooting, Civilian Marksmanship Program (CMP) and the National Rifle Association (NRA) is recommended and required for some competitions.

I take full responsibility for the equipment I use and understand that, should it be damaged OR lost I will be required to replace the item.

I understand and agree to the athlete and parent responsibilities and outlined above.

I understand that selection for traveling teams is based on a variety of criteria (not just scores), the selection is made by the Head Coach and coaching staff and that the financial burden is on the participants.
