

Democrat and Chronicle

Mount Kisco restaurant names "healthful" soup after Cuomo

Posted by Cara Matthews • December 29, 2010 • 5:06 pm

A restaurant in Mount Kisco, Westchester County, has unveiled a new soup in honor of Gov.-elect Andrew Cuomo, who lives in the part of New Castle with a Mount Kisco mailing address. Via Vanti! is now serving "Lago di Cuomo" soup. It is a "puree of warming winter greens served with a crostini topped with goat cheese, chopped tomato and fresh basil," the restaurant said in a news release. The soup is vegan and non-dairy, and a gluten-free crostini is available upon request.

The soup, while named for Cuomo, is also inspired by the Lago di Como resort destination in northern Italy, according to the restaurant. Customers will get a free taste of the "inaugural soup" during January. Lago di Cuomo will be one of Via Vanti!'s seasonal soups, and $1 from every purchase of it will be donated to the Food Bank of Westchester.

The 2-year-old restaurant is located in the historic Mount Kisco Train Station at 2 Kirby Plaza.

Be heard in the Vote Up forums

Search

Search for:

Contributors

Brian Tumulty has worked in the Gannett Washington Bureau since 1992, first as a national business writer and then as a regional reporter for newspapers in New York, Iowa, Michigan, Minnesota and Wisconsin. A native of the New York City borough of Queens, he attended high school on Long Island and college in the Bronx. He has four children and one granddaughter.

Jill Terreri covers politics and Monroe County government. She's covered politics and government in New York since 2003 and joined the Democrat and Chronicle in 2007. She welcomes reader feedback at jterrerri@democratandchronicle.com or by sending a message to @jillterreri on Twitter.

Joseph Spector is Gannett Albany Bureau chief and has covered New York politics and government since 2002. He was the political reporter for the Democrat and Chronicle and has since joined the Albany Bureau, covering state government for all of Gannett New York.

Cara Matthews has been a statehouse correspondent in the Albany Bureau since August 2005. Prior to that, she covered Putnam County government and politics at The Journal News for nearly five years. Before that, she worked at newspapers in Connecticut and covered the state Legislature for one of them.

Recent Posts

Obama works the crowd at Albany International Senate to hold public hearing on health commissioner nominee

State GOP: Photo-Ops Don't Create Jobs

Gibson, At Obama Speech, Likes What He Hears

Schumer: Obama Speech Previews State of the Union

Tags

59 SD 130 AD 131 AD 132 AD AG Race Andrew Cuomo Ann Marie Buerkle Bill

Reilich Carl Paladino Chris Lee Congress

Dan Donovan Dan Maffei David Nachbar David Paterson Ed Cox Eric Massa Ethics Fred Smerlas George Maziarz James Alesi Janice Volk Jim Alesi

Joseph Morelle Kirsten Gillibrand Louise
Slaughter Maggie Brooks Mary Wilmot
Matthew Zeller mayoral control Mayor Duffy
Monroe County Legislature NY-25 NY-26 NY-28
NY-29 Obama Rick Lazio Robert Duffy
Robin Wilt SD-55 SD-56 Sean Hanna Tea Party
Tom Reed

Democrat AND Chronicle.com

WXXI
GoPublic