HOTEL BEATTY

HOTEL BEATTY

East Gresford's Hotel Beatty has been providing local hospitality for over one hundred years. Fourth generation owner Helen Richardson traces the family's ownership back to 1865.

Helen recalls her mother's stories of being locked in the hotel's cellars when bushrangers like the Governors and Captain Thunderbolt were in the area. With modern refurbishment, including an entertainment area, commercial kitchen, dining area and rear balcony to catch the sublime rural outlook, the Beatty has reinvented itself as a family hotel, restaurant and social meeting place. The emphasis is on providing quality food and wine, comfortable accommodation and friendly country service.
