Pastor's Letter

Elder Glenn Blanchard

We were especially thankful for the way the Florida Fellowship Meeting went this year. We are the host every four years and each one is different.

A special thank you to Sisters Rebecca Roberts and Lauren Penfold. These ladies did most of the planning and much of the work. They had an army of helpers that also deserve our gratitude.

One of the best things about these meetings is the memories that are created both in getting ready for the meeting and the actual meeting itself. Sometimes this is the glue that holds a congregation together in difficult times.

The following Elders attended the meeting: Buddy Abernathy, Randall Cagle, Charles Dennis, Chris Folsom, James Hall, Jr., Hulan Harvill, Phillip Howell, Marty Hoskins, Charles Kitchens, Ronald Lawrence, John Melvin, Jon Mizell, Tim Montgomery, Mark Nunley, Dolph Painter, Mike Roberts, Carl Staten, Chris Taylor, Perry Terrell, Shannon Whipp, Ben Winslett and John Yadamec. We are very thankful to these men for taking the time to make our meeting a success. The preaching was harmonious and spirit-filled.

After lunch on Sunday, we held an ordination service for Brother Joel Fuller to the full work of the ministry. The Presbytery was composed of Elders Carl Staten, Dolph Painter, Shannon Whipp and Glenn Blanchard. Everything was done with much solemnity and joy. Elder Fuller is a member at Winter Garden PBC and has an active ministry in our local nursing home.

We thank God for His kindness and mercy to us during this special meeting.

The next Florida Fellowship is scheduled for February, 2011 and will be held in Vero Beach, hosted by Antioch PBC. We'll keep you posted.

Imagination

The other day my twenty year old son and I were giving fun reminiscing. He recalled two phrases he had heard his father say more than once. The first phrase was, "Use your imagination," followed a couple of hours later by, "What were you thinking?" The second phrase was proclaimed after anything to do with water, Georgia clay, matches, bicycles, or my tools. My son's point, "Why should a lake in the bedroom be a surprise after telling three little boys to use their imaginations?"

In a sense, he was right. Turns out, not once does scripture use the word imagination

Letters

So sorry I can't come to the Fellowship Meeting, but pray the Lord will wonderfully bless you all.

Please pray for me.

Church News

Winter Garden PBC, Fl.

We are pleased to announce the graduation of one of our members, Michael Mason, from the Police Academy on Feb. 22. Michael was fully sponsored by Winter Garden Police Department and will be working there.

Michael is married to Winter Garden member, Brittney Mason and they reside in the local area. Michael served in the army previously and he and Brittney have been a blessing to our church since returning.

positively. Deceit, mischief, vanity, and evil are what scripture attaches to imagination (Ps 38:12, 62:3; Nah 1:11; Zec 7:10; Acts 4:25). No wonder God said, "Gird up the loins of your mind" (I Peter 1:13). He doesn't want us imagining.

Is an imagination a good thing or a bad thing? When it comes to decorating a room? Yes. Composing a melody? Yes. Little boys? No. Truth? Absolutely not. Reason with me: If God went to all the trouble of recording and preserving His word (2Peter 1:20-21; Ps 12:6-7), why would He ask us to imagine? May God help us to put away imaginations and hold the truth fast (Proverbs 6:18; I Thessalonians 5:21).

Poem from Mom

My son came home from school one day,
With a smirk on his face.
He decided he was smart enough,
To put me in my place.

“Guess what I learned in Civics Two,
That’s taught by Mr. Wright?
It’s all about the laws today,
The ‘Children’s Bill of Rights.’”

It says I need not clean my room,
Don’t have to cut my hair
No one can tell me what to think,
Or speak, or what to wear.

I have freedom from religion,
And regardless what you say,
I don’t have to bow my head,
And I sure don’t have to pray.

I can wear earrings if I want,
And pierce my tongue & nose,
I can read & watch just what I like,
Get tattoos from head to toe.

And if you ever spank me,
I’ll charge you with a crime.
I’ll back up all my charges,
With the marks on my behind.

Don’t you ever touch me,
My body’s only for my use,
Not for your hugs and kisses,
That’s just more child abuse

Don’t preach about your morals,
Like your Mama did to you.
That’s nothing more than mind control,
And it’s illegal too!

Mom, I have these children’s rights,
So you can’t influence me,
Or I’ll call Children’s Services Division,
Better known as C.S.D.”

Mom’s Reply and Thoughts

Of course my first instinct was
To toss him out the door.
But the chance to teach him a lesson
Made me think a little more.

I mulled it over carefully,

I couldn’t let this go.
A smile crept upon my face,
He’s messing with a pro.

Next day I took him shopping
At the local Goodwill Store.
I told him, “Pick out all you want,
There’s shirts & pants galore.

I’ve called and checked with C.S.D...
Who said they didn’t care,
If I bought you K-Mart shoes
Instead of those Nike Airs.

I’ve canceled that appointment
To take your driver’s test.
The C.S.D. is unconcerned
So I’ll decide what’s best.”

I said, “No time to stop and eat,
Or pick up stuff to munch,
And tomorrow you can start to learn
To make your own sack lunch.

Just save the raging appetite,
And wait till dinner time.
We’re having liver and onions,
A favorite dish of mine.”

He asked, “Can I please rent a movie,
To watch on my VCR?”
“Sorry, but I sold your TV,
For new tires on my car.

I also rented out your room,
You’ll take the couch instead.
The C.S.D. requires
Just a roof over your head.

Your clothing won’t be trendy now,
I’ll choose what we eat.
That allowance that you used to get,
Will buy me something neat.

I’m selling off your jet ski,
Dirt-bike & roller blades.
Check out the ‘Parents Bill of Rights’,
It’s in effect today!

Hey, hot shot, are you crying,
Why are you on your knees?
Are you asking God to help you out,
Instead of C.S.D?”
MOM, (Mean Old Mother)
