Old Business

Lilliston Ford Show Update for being a brand new show and on a rain date the show went very well. It is still under discussion if we will have this show for next year. Made $235 for the charity which was the American Diabetes Foundation. A motion was made to up the donation to $500 and member Andrew Mineo offered to donate the additional $265 to bring the donation to $500. The profit for the club from the show was $1,676.83. A motion was made to have $1,000.00 from the profits to be put aside for the 2015 Christmas party. Some members were not sure about this but after committee members mentioned that the club puts out much more than this amount for the party the motion was seconded and approved.

Club Picnic – Terri and members who attended said how much they enjoyed the picnic and how much fun was had by all those who attended. Paul and Mary Morrengello were very good host, Bill Pearson was appreciated for working the grill and it was a nice afternoon for all.

Holman Show Update September 13th rain date September 20th – Gail informed everyone that the show will be dedicated to Joe Rementer and she is going to contact his family to see if they would like to have his cars on display at the show. It was thought that his son could not attend due to his club having a show the same day but this was not the case. Letters to go to merchants for Door prizes & Chinese Auction were here for members to take as well as fliers for the show. The dash plaques are order. Quick Lane is providing T-Shirts once again. Dave mentioned that the ford trailer will be at the show. Terri forward the insurance certificate to Dave Gonya at Holman The layout and parking plan was discussed to make sure we had a strategy for overflow in certain categories. Members at the gate will classify the cars as they come in by putting a post-it on the windshield with the class. As for Stock cars it was said that they should only have three modifications and that would be it. We have signup sheets going around for those who plan on volunteering for the show.
