Old Business

Holman Show Update September 13th rain date September 20th – Gail informed everyone that the Charity for the show will be St. Jude's Children's Hospital in memory of Joe Rementor. She also mentioned that we still needed items for the Chinese Auction. Joe's family be in attendance and will be bringing Joe's car to be on display at the show. We got a number of items back from vendors for door prizes dash plaques are in. Quick Lane is providing T-Shirts once again. Dave mentioned that the ford trailer will be at the show and also said that for next year they will try to have the Rice & Holman sponsored '69 429 on display for the show. There are approximately 25 cars already pre-registered. We need more members to sign up for Judging and if you have not judged before you will be put with members who have done judging. This is the best way to learn. Goodie bags will be stuffed tonight after the meeting. The layout and parking plan was discussed to make sure we had a strategy for overflow in certain categories. At the gate the cars will be classified as they come in to help with parking. Again we have signup sheets going around for those who plan on volunteering for the show.

Richland Festival 2016 – The membership decided to participate in the Richland festival for 2016 on May 21st after it was put to a vote.

Club's Christmas Party- It was decided to have a DJ at the Christmas party and forgo the Grinch Game. The time it takes to play the game was the issue. The DJ requires a $100 deposit and it mentioned that the DJ they was picked is good at getting everyone up and participating. The cost to members will remain the same as it was last year and the club will supplement the difference per person.

Bridgeton Crab Festival – The City council loved that our club participated and wants to contact us again for next year.

National Directors Report – Nothing new to report, Frank mentioned again the Labor Day MCA Show in Columbus OH. There are three shows approved for 2016. There is a website set up for the 40th Anniversary MCA Indy show in 2016 and you must preregister.
