FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

The Cupid Players present a special Valentine's Day performance of Cupid Has a Heart On... in Bed!
Saturday, February 13

CHICAGO – Coming off of sold out performances at the 15th annual Chicago Sketch Comedy Festival, The Cupid Players of Stage 773, 1225 W. Belmont, will present a special Valentine's Day performance, Cupid Has a Heart On... in Bed!, for those looking for an unconventional way to celebrate love on Saturday, February 13. Couples, singles, and groups of friends can catch Chicago's longest running musical comedy show, Cupid Has a Heart On... in Bed!, at 8 p.m. where they will be serenaded with hilarious new numbers as well as Cupid classics. With feisty songs about relationships, love and life, guests will be sure to have a "pants-dropping" good time. Tickets to the performance will be $30 per person or $50 per couple.

The Cupid Players will additionally offer a special 10:30 p.m. late-night performance ($15 single ticket) for those who enjoy a supremely adult-themed show. The one-act performance includes the cast's most loved, risqué (and always sex-positive) numbers. Audiences of both shows will be treated to a champagne toast, a V-Day goodie bag, and a funny, whimsical night of musical comedy.

Hailed as a "Must-see!" by TimeOut Chicago and feted as "full of wit and zest" by the Chicago Tribune, Cupid Has a Heart On has been making Chicago laugh at love since 2002. Backed by the skillful piano-playing of creator/director Brian Posen, this original production has toured to Toronto, New York, Los Angeles and beyond, featuring "seasoned performers at the top of their game" (Windy City Times). Named "Best Sketch Comedy Group" by the Chicago Reader, The Cupid Players continue to delight audiences with a raunchy, touching, smart show that is -- above all -- very, very funny.
