God's Hidden Face

When Saint Alphonsus went to give a mission, he was told that the archbishop of the diocese would like to meet him. When he arrived, the archbishop and his host were still at their midday meal, so Alphonsus went into the castle chapel to finish his Office. The priest-son of the castle owner, meanwhile, went into the chapel to close it up and saw a shaggy looking priest, dressed in rags and with a straggly beard, sitting in the chapel. He asked the man to leave. "May I finish my Office?" asked Alphonsus, but young priest snapped at him. A table cloth had been stolen just the day before, and he suspected this vagabond priest to come to steal another. Alphonsus went out to the square in front of the castle, where he finished his prayers.

When the archbishop and host family finished their meal, it was announced that he famous missionary Father Alphonsus Liguori had arrived for a visit. All went down to meet him. To the utter terror of the young priest, he discovered that Alphonsus was the beggar he had thrown out moments before. Alphonsus, however, acted as if he had never met the young priest before, greeted him warmly, and said nothing to anyone about the incident in the chapel. Only because the young priest spoke about it did it become known. (Rey-Mermet, Saint Alphonsus Liguori, pg. 405)

Saint Alphonsus Liguori's story makes the point clear—we should never dismiss anyone as being unimportant and always be alert to God's presence to us through others.

La cara de Dios que no vemos

Una vez que San Alfonso fue a predicar una misión, le dijeron que el arzobispo de la diócesis quería verlo. Cuando llegó, el arzobispo y sus anfitriones todavía estaban almorzando, así que Alfonso fue a la capilla del castillo para terminar el Oficio. Cuando un sacerdote que también era hijo del dueño del castillo llegó para cerrar la capilla, vio a un sacerdote harapiento y con una barba descuidada sentado en la capilla. Le pidió al hombre que se fuera. "¿Puedo terminar mi Oficio?" Alfonso le preguntó, pero el joven sacerdote le contestó de mala manera. Se habían robado un mantel el día anterior y sospechaba que este sacerdote vagabundo había venido a robar otro. San Alfonso camino a la plaza frente al castillo, donde terminó sus oraciones.

Cuando el arzobispo y sus anfitriones terminaron de comer, se anunció que Alfonso María de Liguori, misionero famoso, había llegado de visita. Todos fueron a verlo. Y el joven sacerdote se aterrorizó cuando vio que Alfonso era el vagabundo que el había botado pocos minutos antes. Sin embargo, Alfonso actuó como si nunca hubiera conocido al joven sacerdote: lo saludó muy cariñosamente y no dijo nada acerca del incidente en la capilla. Solo se supo lo que pasó porque el joven sacerdote lo contó. (Rey-Mermet, Saint Alphonsus Liguori, pag. 405)

Este relato acerca de San Alfonso María de Liguori hace hincapié en el hecho de que debemos siempre estar alertas a la presencia de Dios en los demás.

NOW we are getting into some ordinary Summertime days! School’s out! All the confirmations, First Communions, and graduations are over and we can settle in to the lazy, crazy, hazy days of Summer. It’s a fine time to “re-create,” refresh, and re-invigorate your soul, mind, and body—a good time to tune into the energy of your creator in Christ through the work of His Spirit. IT’S SUMMERTIME!

This weekend we’re celebrating the beginning of those good ole lazy, crazy, hazy days of Summer. It’s been plenty crazy and hazy already, lots of beautiful rain—and grass for the cows, horses, and goats to eat—and for us to cut! We’re bringing in grass for Nacho (the Guadalupe “camel”), Nico, and Candelario from Kamp Keralum! It’s a great time of year! If you haven’t got lazy yet maybe you ought to think about it! It’s a good time to stop and smell the roses (that’s not today’s cowboy song) Slow down and savor the flavor of life in the Summer of ‘10!

Vacation Survival Kit

If you think the wonderful vacations you see in Kodak ads are a myth, here a few pointers that may help you put some of the vacation back into your vacation.

1. Get your family together and talk about what you liked best and least about last year’s vacation, and about changes you might make this year.
2. Do your “homework” (each family member can help). A good travel agent, visits to the library, motor club road maps and literature, and some long-distance phone calls can help eliminate most “surprises.”
3. Don’t jam-pack your days. Less is more. See if you can cut your list of “to do’s” in half. Leave plenty of time to do nothing and to go nowhere.
4. Talk about what it will be like to wait in long lines or to travel 500 miles with a hot, salivating dog. Then ask, “Do we really want to do that? Is there something better/easier/more fun?”
5. What memories do you want to make? Twenty years from now, will see 105 Civil War battlefield attractions be important to you—or will memories or a relaxed, easy-going time with your family be what you’ll want to remember?

Elementary, Jr. High, High school, and college students! Besides hoping to see you at Mass every Sunday, we hope you’ll be able to be active in the parish in other ways. If you’re not already involved somehow and you want to be, call us and leave your name and number! The Summer Evening of Reflection Retreats at Kamp Keralum will be announced ahead of time in the bulletin. Didly, Augie, Cantina and the “pack” are already all fired up about getting down to the Rio Grande!

CAMP GUADALUPE! Six week Summer Day Camp, June 7th- July 16th, 2010. Boys and girls ages 3-13 are invited. Monday thru Friday 9:00 A.M.-3:00 P.M. (Children age 3 optional half-day 9:00 A.M. – 11:30 A.M.) Register at the school (585-6445) or the parish office (585-2623). $90 a week with discount for brothers and sisters! Check it out! We still got plenty of room!

Camp Guadalupe is separate from the Summer retreats at Kamp Keralum. Those are one day retreats, evenings of reflections, cookouts, fishing tournaments, for youth from 4th Grade to College, who attend mass here and there is no charge for those. More about that later! It’ll be a fun summer!

MOM AND DAD!!! It is a healthy idea to make a “compromiso” to spend some quality time with your kids this summer! Before you know it, they’ll be grown up and gone. Remember the words of the Dutch poet, Henry Amiel, “Life is short and we have not much time for gladdening the hearts of those who travel the way with us. Oh, be swift to love! Make haste to be kind!” You could make some precious memories this Summer!

Besides our “church” summer activities, the parish could easily act as a “clearing house” for summer part time jobs. Teenagers wanting to work could call in their name, age and what kinds of jobs they’d like to get and people looking for part time help could call in and let us know what kinds of jobs they need help with and we could help you find each other! How ‘bout it? Vale la pena!

June is the month in which we honor the Sacred Heart of Jesus. We will be praying the Rosary everyday here at church at 6:00 p.m. (Sunday’s at 4:00 p.m.).

High school and college students! Besides, hoping to see you at Mass every Sunday, we hope you’ll be able to be active in the parish in other ways. If you’re not already involved somehow and you want to be, call us and leave your name and number!

Don’t wait till the last minute! Our Lady of Guadalupe Catholic School is still registering for the 2010-2011 academic school year. We’re opening 5th Grade, and we still have room for a few more students. The office will be open during the summer if you’re interested or know of someone who would like to join our family. For a Quality Catholic Education call (956) 585-6445.

3rd Annual OLG Scholarship Re-Union Dinner “Battle of the Bands!” With music by: Flower Children vs. Inkeeper Band! July 2, 2010 at the Our Lady of Guadalupe Parish Hall from 6:30-10:30, with dinner being served until 7:30. All monies go directly to OLG Catholic School. $25 per person or $200 per table (admits 10). For more information call Dr. O’caña, Sr. at 222-5739. Sounds like fun! Y’all come!

Adult Summer Bible Classes, reflecting on the Gospel of Luke will be held in English and Spanish on Wednesdays, June 16-July 21. Classes are from 7:00 P.M. 8:30.

Last week’s Collection: $11,784.97
Confirmation Mass: $658.81

We will tenderly and lovingly remember all our sick friends and parishioners at all our masses. Please pray especially for Eric J. Mora, one of our young men, who has leukemia. *If you eat at Chic-Fil-A in Sharyland on Exp. 83 between 5 & 8 P.M. on Thurs, June 17th, 20% of their income will go toward Eric’s medical expenses! Let’s go get a chicken sandwich!* Also, please remember in your prayers, +Nellie Garza (Rev Garza’s wife), +Andrea S. Tanguma, and +Guadalupe Corpus (funeral Tues @1 p.m.), who died last week, and their families in their great sorrow. Que brille para ellos la luz perpetua.

In today’s Gospel, Christ, the “down home, friendly country boy” clashes with the high tone, hot shot, sophisticated Scribes and Pharisees. I always love it when He does that! It’s not a bad Summertime reflection. Clay Walker sings a healthy, hearty song that could come right out of today’s Gospel and help you soothe and refresh your Spirit this Summer! Jesus was a country boy! Oh yes! I believe...!

I stumbled on a preacher Sunday mornin'
All decked out and made up for t.v.
Askin’ for some money from God’s people
Talkin’ all that high theology

Well I might be just an old blue collar
There’s things about the Lord that I don’t know
But I bet he never had a million dollars or wore a lot of stylish fancy clothes.

Cuz Jesus was a country boy
Walkin’ down a dirt road with everything that he owned
He never met a stranger

Born in a barn, underneath the stars
His mamma laid him in a manger
Swimmin’ in the river fishin’ for his dinner livin’ with
the sinners like me
Makes me think that Jesus was a country boy

My daddy never cared much for religion
And my mamma worried a lot about his soul
She’d hit her knees and pray for him on Sunday
While daddy hit his favorite fishin’ hole

You see daddy was a rebel and a rambler
But I always knew he loved my mamma so
And I never doubted he’d make it to heaven

Cause it ain’t who you are, it’s who you know,
and daddy knew

Cuz Jesus was a country boy
Walkin’ down a dirt road with everything that he
owned
He never met a stranger
Born in a barn, underneath the stars
His mamma laid him in a manger
Swimmin’ in the river fishin’ for his dinner livin’ with
the sinners like me
Makes me think that Jesus was a country boy

Oh yes, and I believe that Jesus was a country boy
