THE DECISION

Rick sat in his motel room and eyed the phone pensively. He' been have the same debate with himself that he'd had every Father's Day for the past few years — whether to call his dad and bury the hatchet.

His father had tried to talk to him often enough, but Rick had always avoided facing the issues that separated them. Rick felt a lot of bitterness toward his dad for criticizing his job as a salesman, which kept him away from home a lot. Rick felt his dad intruded in areas that should not be his concern. And then, to top it all off, his dad had married Agnes just four months after the death of Rick's mother. He'd never been able to forgive his dad for that and had broken off all contact with him.

But lately, Rick was feeling more and more uneasy about shutting his dad out of his life. "After all," Rick suddenly said to himself, "my boys need their grandfather." This thought decided him. He picked up the phone and dialed quickly, before he could have second thoughts.

After a few rings, Agnes answered with a hesitant, "Hello?"

"Hello, Agnes. This is Rick. Can I talk to Dad, please? I'd like to wish him a Happy Father's Day..."

There was such a long silence at the other end of the line that Rick repeated, "Hello, Agnes? Can I talk to Dad, please?"

Agnes' voice sounded strained, fatigued. "I called your house earlier, Rick, but your wife said you were on the road again... your dad had a heart attack last night and died this morning." Her voice dissolved into tears as Rick felt a chill of disbelief and remorse pass through him.

Any refusal to forgive and be reconciled can have painful, even devastating, consequences. Forgiveness is a gift from God that offers new life and new hope to each of us.

LA DECISION

Rick estaba sentado en su cuarto en el motel y miraba el teléfono pensativo. Durante los últimos años, el día de los padres, el había tenido la misma discusión consigo mismo—si llamar a su papá y olvidarse de lo que había sucedido en le pasado.

Su papa había tratado de hablar con el muchas veces, pero Rick siempre había evitado darle frente a los problemas que los separaban. Rick sentía mucha amargura por su padre por éste criticar su trabajo como vendedor, porque el trabajo no dejaba que Rick pasara mucha tiempo en su casa. Rick sentía que su padre se estaba metiendo en casas que no le concernían. Y también, para colmo, su papá se había casado con Agnes sólo cuatro meses después de la muerte de la mamá de Rick. Rick nunca había podido perdonarlo por eso y no tuvo mas contacto con su padre después del matrimonio.

Pero últimamente Rick se sentía peor por haberle dado la espalda a su papá. "Después de todo", Rick se dijo a si mismo, "mis hijos necesitan de su abuelo". Este pensamiento fue lo que decidió a Rick a actuar. El cogió el teléfono y rápidamente marcó el número antes de que pudiera arrepentirse.

Después de dar timbre varias veces. Agnes contestó con un "¿Oigo?" tentativo.

"Hola Agnes. Es Rick. ¿Puedo hablar con papá, por favor? Quisiera desearle un Feliz Día de los Padres..."

Hubo un silencio tan grande por parte de Agnes que Rick repitió.

"Hola, ¿Agnes? ¿Puedo hablar con papá, por favor?"

La voz de Agnes sonaba tirante, fatigada. "Yo te llamé a tu casa hace un rato, Rick, pero tu esposa me dijo que estabas de viaje otra vez...tu papá tuvo un ataque al corazón anoche y murió esta mañana". Su voz se convirtió el llanto mientras que Rick sintió un frio dentro, un frio de incredulidad y remordimiento.

HAPPY FATHER'S DAY, DAD! ¡FELIZ DIA DE LOS PADRES, PAPÁ!

This weekend we celebrate the 3rd Sunday after Pentecost, the 12th Sunday of Ordinary Time. How 'bout that? Not too impressive? Well how about FATHER'S DAY! Now that's impressive!! God does some of His noblest, deepest, strongest work through Father's like St. Joseph, like your Dad, my Dad, our grandfathers and great grandfathers. Yeah, it's a BIG deal! If he's still alive, show him that you know what a big deal it is that he loves you and you love him. If he's already in Heaven, you hug him and kiss his spiritually as you celebrate and receive Holy Communion in his honor. The older I get, the bigger deal I realize it is! Know what I mean?

This weekend we're celebrating the beginning of those good ole lazy, crazy, hazy days of Summer. It's been plenty crazy and hazy already, lots of beautiful rain—and grass for the cows, horses, and goats to eat—and for us to cut! We're bringing in grass for Nacho (the Guadalupe "camel"), Nico, and Candelario from Kamp Keralum! It's a great time of year! If you haven't got lazy yet maybe you ought to think about it! It's a good time to stop and smell the roses (that's not today's cowboy song) Slow down and savor the flavor of life in the Summer of '10!

DON'T WAIT

TO SHOW

FOR AN

DAD YOU

EMERGENCY...

LOVE HIM!

DON'T WAIT FOR HIM TO "BECOME" PERFECT EITHER!

"Atrévase a cometer errores!...Como padres tenemos derecho a ser imperfectos." (Fitzhugh Dodson)
Un padre nos cuente como un día perdió la paciencia y regañó a su hijo delante de uno de sus amigos. Al día siguiente le pidió disculpas y "aunque esperaba que la relación se enfriara, sucedió todo lo contrario. Fue la primera vez que Steve no me vio amable y calmado y se dio cuenta de que you era un ser humano, como él, capaz de cometer errores."

PARENT POWER: If my child were small again, I would stop Reading the newspaper when he wants to talk with me. I would try to refrain from words of impatience at the interruption. Such times can be the best times to show love and kindness. One evening a small boy tried to show his father a scratch on his finger. Finally, after repeated attempts to gain his father attention, the father stopped reading and said impatiently: "Well, I can't do anything about it, can I?" "Yes, Daddy," his small son said. "You could have said , 'Oh'" (John M. Drescher)

A father transmits a healthy positive energy.
"I know in my heart that man is good. That what is right will always eventually triumph. And there's purpose and worth to each and every life." (Ronald Reagan)

The great American father & general, Douglas MacArthur said, "By profession I am a soldier and I take pride in that fact—but I am a prouder—infinately prouder—to be a father. It is my hope that my son, when I am gone, will remember me not from battle, but in the home repeating with him our simple daily prayer: "Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name... Forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us."

"I never fully understood what (James) Joyce meant when he wrote, 'I desire to press in my arms the loveliness which has not yet come into the world,' until I sat cradling my newborn son, Brian, in my arms. Now, whenever I hug him—frequently—I recall those moments with an emotional intensity I never realized I had." (Joseph T. Gavaghan of Dorchester, Mass. in a letter to Newsweek.)

The man, Joseph, and his pregnant wife were on a journey. On arrival, the woman's time came and the man found a warm, private place for her in a stable (the only public lodging was a rough communal inn.)
He was with her during birth, held the newborn child and maintained a physical presence all during those day when visitors included shepherd and wise men.

JOSEPH MOST JUST

Joseph, there you were in vigil,
Your turn at night watch,
Your wife Mary on your mind,
Was it the experience of many a night nurse?
Tell us what you felt,
Maybe longing, maybe loneliness,
A deepening of faith just waiting it out ???
Without a doubt yours was like that of every father,
A blend of anxiety and trust.....
Yet even more, yours it was to watch, to wait, to listen,
And all the rest is history and dignity,
As you looked upon this child in Mary's arms,
And from then on to be their guide
And live in wondering love.
(Fr. Jerry McGovern, OMI)

Daddy's usually have lots of "projects" they're "fixin' to" get to work on! So... What about the expansion and renovation of the old Guadalupe?? Well... We're "fixin' to!" What's taking so long? The last step (I hope) before we put it up for the bids is a meeting with the architectural engineers, Fr. Jim, and Fr. Roy. We thought we were gonna have that meeting about two weeks ago! Anyhow... we're plugging right along. We'll see something happening purty soon now!

CAMP GUADALUPE! Six week Summer Day Camp, June 7th- July 16th, 2010. Boys and girls ages 3-13 are invited. Monday thru Friday 9:00 A.M.-3:00 P.M. (Children age 3 optional half-day 9:00 A.M. – 11:30 A.M.) Register at the school (585-6445) or the parish office (585-2623). $90 a week with discount for brothers and sisters! Check it out! We still got plenty of room!

Camp Guadalupe is separate from the Summer retreats at Kamp Keralum. Those are one day retreats, evenings of reflections, cookouts, fishing tournaments, for youth from 4th Grade to College, who attend mass here and there is no charge for those. More about that later! It'll be a fun summer!

MOM AND DAD!!! It is a healthy idea to make a "compromiso" to spend some quality time with your kids this summer! Before you know it, they'll be grown up and gone. Remember the words of the Dutch poet, Henry Amiel, "Life is short and we have not much time for gladdening the hearts of those who travel the way with us. Oh, be swift to love! Make haste to be kind!" You could make some precious memories this Summer!

Besides our "church" summer activities, the parish could easily act as a "clearing house" for summer part time jobs. Teenagers wanting to work could call in their name, age and what kinds of jobs they'd like to get and people looking for part time help could call in and let us know what kinds of jobs they need help with and we could help you find each other! How 'bout it? Vale la pena!

June is the month in which we honor the Sacred Heart of Jesus. We will be praying the Rosary everyday here at church at 6:00 p.m. (Sunday's at 4:00 p.m.).

High school and college students! Besides, hoping to see you at Mass every Sunday, we hope you'll be able to be active in the parish in other ways. If you're not already involved somehow and you want to be, call us and leave your name and number!

3rd Annual OLG Scholarship Re-Union Dinner "Battle of the Bands!" With music by: Flower Children vs. Inkeeper Band! July 2, 2010 at the Our Lady of Guadalupe Parish Hall from 6:30-10:30, with dinner being served until 7:30. All monies go directly to OLG Catholic School. $25 per person or $200 per table (admits 10). For more information call Dr. O'caña, Sr. at 222-5739. Sounds like fun! Y'all come!

Adult Summer Bible Classes, reflecting on the Gospel of Luke will be held in English and Spanish on Wednesdays, June 16-July 21. Classes are from 7:00 P.M.- 8:30.

Last week's Collection: $12,070.46
Please make your generous checks in black or blue ink. The "high tech machinery" at the bank can't read any other colors!
We will tenderly and lovingly remember all our sick friends and parishioners at all our masses. Please pray especially for Eric J. Mora, one of our young men, who has leukemia. Also, please remember in your prayers, +Manuela Gonzalez, +Yolanda Cerda, and +Julia G. Rodriguez, who died last week, and their families in their great sorrow. Que brille para ellos la luz perpetua.

In a world that loves to "scold" more than to really appreciate and express love, we can be a little too hard on each other (a little!) especially on our old Daddies who, while not perfect, are sure great instruments and "energizers" of God's love at work in our hearts and lives. Bucky Covington sings a neat "down to earth song about A Father's Love, "The Only Way he knew how! He was telling me he loved me!!" "I didn't hear it then, but I hear it now!"

For the longest time guess I thought he didn't give a damn Hard to read, hard to please, yeah that was my old man On the day I left for college, it was nothing new We never had the heart to heart, there was too much to do	A brand new life and a brand new wife and we'd just bought our first home When he finally came to visit, I thought he'd be so proud He never said he liked the place, he just got his tool belt out	Last Sunday we all gathered for his 65th birthday, I knew he'd stiffen up but I hugged him anyway, When it was finally time to say goodbye I knew what was next, Just like he always does, right before we left...
He checked the air in my tires, the beltsand all the spark plug wires He said, "when in hell's the last time you had this oil changed?" And as I pulled out the drive, he said "be sure to call your mom sometime" And I didn't hear it then, but I hear it now, He was saying I love you...the only way he knew how.	And put new locks on the doors, went back and forth to the hardware store Said 'come and hold this flashlight,' as he crawled beneath the sand These old wires ain't up to code and that old circuit box is going to overload And I didn't hear it then, but I hear it now He was saying I love you...the only way he knew how	He checked the air in my tires, the belts and all the spark plug wires He said, "when in hell's the last time you had this oil changed?" And as I pulled out the drive, he said "be sure to call your mom sometime" And I didn't hear it then, but I hear it now, He was saying I love you, He was saying I love you...the only way he knew how.
