GOD BLESS MISSION, TEXAS AND THE U.S.A., OUR HOME SWEET HOME! MAY THE PRAYERS AND LOVE OF OUR LADY OF GUADALUPE INSPIRE US TO FORM A COMMUNITY OF BRAVE, FREE, NOBLE PEOPLE WHERE OUR CHILDREN AND THEIR CHILDREN WILL ALWAYS HAVE THE RIGHT TO LIFE, LIBERTY, AND THE PURSUIT OF HAPPINESS, THE RIGHT TO BECOME THE WORKS OF ART GOD CREATED THEM TO BE!!

Our call to happiness

A Redemptorist missionary working in Brazil described how a teenager taught him in the meaning of happiness. The teen said, "Aunt Tilly will never be in heaven there is nothing to complain about!" Aunt Tilly's attitude points out what Abraham Lincoln once said, "Most folks are about as happy as they make up their minds to be." Nevertheless, we do try to find pathways to happiness.

The German writer Johann Wolfgang Von Goethe suggested "Nine requisites for contented living: 1) health enough to make work a pleasure; 2) wealth enough to support your needs; 3) strength enough to battle with difficulties; 4) grace enough to confess your sins and overcome them; 5) patience enough to toil until some good is accomplished; 6) charity enough to see some good in your neighborhood; 7) love enough to make you to be useful and helpful to others; 8) faith enough to make real things of God; 9) hope enough to remove all anxious fear concerning the future."

Jesus defined happiness more precisely: be poor in spirit, mourn with the sorrowful, be meek, hunger and thirst for justice, be merciful, clean heart, and seek peace. If we are persecuted for his sake, we should rejoice, because ours is the kingdom of heaven. (Mt 5:3-11).

Ultimately, we find happiness in God's love for us: "Love and be happy; those who love so good a God should never allow dark and gloomy thoughts to enter their hearts" (Saint Alphonsus Liguori).

Nuestra llamada a ser felices

Un misionero redentorista que trabajaba en Brasil describio como un joven le ensenó el significado de la felicidad. El joven le dijo: "Mi tia Tula nunca va a ir al Cielo. Ella solo se siente feliz cuando se esta quejando y en el Cielo no hay nada de que quejarse!" La actitud de la tia Tula describe lo que Abraham Lincoln dijo una vez: "La mayoría de las personas son tan felices como deciden que van a serlo". Sin embargo, tratamos de encontrar maneras de llegar a felicidad.

El escritor aleman Johann Wolfgang Von Goethe surgirio "nueve requisitos para vivir felices: 1) salud suficiente para que el trabajo sea un placer; 2) dinero suficiente para cubrir las necesidades; 3) fuerza suficiente para enfrentarnos a las dificultades; 4) gracia suficiente para confesar los pecados y sobrepasarlos; 5) paciencia suficiente para trabajar hasta lograr algun bien; 6) caridad suficiente para ver el bien en el proximo; 7) amor suficiente para ayudar y beneficiar a los demas; 8) fe suficiente para eliminar las ansiedades que sentimos en relacion al futuro".

Jesus definió la felicidad mas detalladamente: ser pobre de espiritu, llorar con los que sufren, ser humildes, tener hambre y sed de justicia, ser compasivos, ser de corazon limpio y trabajar por la paz. Si nos persiguen por causa de Jesús debemos alegrarnos porque es nuestro el Reino de los Cielos (Mt 5, 3-11).

El ultimo caso, encontramos la felicidad en el amor que de Dios nos tiene: "Ama y se feliz, aquellos que aman a un Dios tan bueno nunca deben dejar que pensamientos tristes y negativos entren en sus corazones" (San Alfonso Liguori).

This week-end is the 3rd Sunday after Pentecost—14th Sunday in Ordinary time. It's not very ordinary, though, we're reveling in the 4th of July week-end and some sweet, sweet summer rains! What a fine way to celebrate our liberty in the land of the free and the home of the brave! We'll have a good "21 gun salute" by our noble men of the C.W.V. with a red, white, & blue balloon release and watermelon & hot dog feast after the 12:30 noon mass this Sunday. The 4th of July is also A Feast of Mary—the day of Our Lady of Refuge! What a good name for the beautiful Statue of Liberty! Asi celebremos La Patria y la Patrona este fin de semana del Cuatro de Julio! We'll celebrate all our masses in thanksgiving for our blessings here in our "Home sweet Home" thanks to our fine Catholic War Veterans, our great choirs and altar boys, and all of you who come together to help us celebrate Summertime Thanksgiving Day! It's kind of like a hotdogs and watermelon Thanksgiving instead of a turkey and dressing Thanksgiving!

DAY...

...IN
THE
NEIGHBORHOOD!

THE NEW COLOSSUS

Not like the brazen giant Greek of fame,
with conquering limbs astride no land to land;
here at our sea-washed, sunset gates shall stand a mighty woman with a torch, whose flame is the imprisoned lightning, and her name Mother of Exile. From her beacon hand glows world-wide welcome; her mild eyes command the air bridged harbor that twin cities frame. "Keep, ancient lands, your storied pomp!" cries she with silent lips. "Give me your tired, your poor, your huddled masses yearning to breathe free, the wretched refuse of your teeming shore, send these, the homeless, tempest-tost to me.
I lift my lamp beside the golden door!"
(Emma Lazarus, 1883)

Our Lady of Refuge,
Pray for us!

"WOW. THE DARK IS TAKING A REAL BEATING TONIGHT!"

Some of us have chosen America as the land of our adoption; the rest have come from those that did the same. For this reason we have some right to consider ourselves a picked group, a group of those who had the courage to break from the past and brave the dangers and loneliness of a strange land. What was the object that nerved us, or those who went before us to this choice? We sought liberty, freedom from oppression, freedom from want, FREEDOM TO BE OURSELVES. (Judge Learned Hand)

+JOHN PAUL II, IN AN ADDRESS AT HIROSHIMA, SAID: "CITIZENS MUST CULTIVATE A GENEROUS AND LOYAL SPIRIT OF PATRIOTISM, BUT WITHOUT BEING NARROW-MINDED. THIS MEANS THAT THEY WILL ALWAYS DIRECT THEIR ATTENTION TO THE GOOD OF THE WHOLE HUMAN FAMILY, UNITED BY THE DIFFERENT TIES WHICH BIND TOGETHER RACES, PEOPLE AND NATIONS." THE SPECIAL GRACE OF AMERICAN CATHOLIC PATRIOTS COMES FROM THE FACT THAT WE CAN WORK FOR THE GOOD OF OUR COUNTRY AND FOR THE WORLD IN A CLIMATE OF LIBERTY AND FREE SPEECH. WE CAN AND DO WRITE LETTERS AND DOCUMENTS, EVEN PEACE PASTORALS. WE CAN AND DO MARCH, SING, APPLAUD, PROTEST, SEND DOVES AND BALLOONS AND MULTICOLORED ROCKETS INTO SUMMER SKIES. WE CAN DO ALL THIS AND MORE BECAUSE IN THIS COUNTRY WE ARE FREE, FREE TO BE GOOD, FREE TO DO GOOD, AND FREE TO SEEK THE GOOD OF ALL GOD'S CHILDREN. I DON'T KNOW IF THIS CAN HAPPEN IN MANY OF THOSE FARAWAY PLACES WITH THE STRANGE-SOUNDING NAMES. LET ME ASSURE YOU THAT I TRULY LOVE THE FLAG AND THE REPUBLIC FOR WHICH IT STANDS. SOMETIMES I EVEN FIND REAL TEARS IN MY EYES WHEN THEY UNFURL THE FLAG OR PLAY "THE STAR SPANGLED BANNER." I'M NOT ASHAMED OF THIS. THAT'S BECAUSE I RECALL THAT A HUNDRED YEARS AGO, JOHN IRELAND, THE FAMOUS CATHOLIC ARCHBISHOP OF ST. PAUL, MINNESOTA, WROTE THAT PATRIOTISM IS A HEAVENLY VIRTUE AND THAT LOYALTY TO COUNTRY IS LOYALTY TO GOD." (FATHER NORMAN J. MUCKERMAN, C.S.S.R.)

Our good Pope Benedict XVI, when he visited the U.S. in 2008, expressed his admiration for our robust "chispa" and love of freedom: "Freedom is not only a gift, but also a summons to personal responsibility. Americans know this from experience [...] the preservation of freedom calls for the cultivation of virtue, self-discipline, sacrifice for the common good and a sense of responsibility towards the less fortunate."

Well, our Mass of Thanksgiving for the rain at La Lomita got postponed because of the rain! Actually, by the time the rain came, we would have been finished, but the weather reports sounded like we'd be rained out and rained on! We'll celebrate in Thanksgiving this weekend & have some good watermelon, hot dogs & "s'mores" after the 12:30 noon Mass this Sunday, July 3rd. Thank God for the rain & SAN ISIDRO for his prayers! We'll still celebrate a Mass of Thanksgiving at La Lomita later on.

Speaking of tuning in on the Spirit... KAMP KERALUM is coming back up from the flood! The Seniors (Class of '11) have had their retreats there already and we'll be back on for the Summer retreats this Summer for the 4th Grade- College retreats. We had to sit out last Summer due to the big flood of 2010! Everything was really messed up, but now after much work, we're getting everything back in shape and even better than ever in some ways! We've sure had some good help from lots of talented and hardworking neighbors! You'll be seeing pictures! It's gonna be a great summer!

The Seniors & Juniors (Classes of '12 & '13), have had their retreat rained our big time TWICE already! It's a happy problem! We're back on for Thursday, July 7th, hoping it'll be dried up by then! The Sophmores & Freshmen (Classes of '14 & '15) will have theirs on Friday, July 9th. We'll keep in touch with you as things develop. Getting rained out isn't all that bad when you need the rain and you have the time! We do & we do! We'll have some beautiful days in the neighborhood playing & praying, feasting & fishing. The field will be in good shape for tug-o-war, Volleyball, & sack races! The fish are waiting for us to go catch 'em! They're fired to the gills!

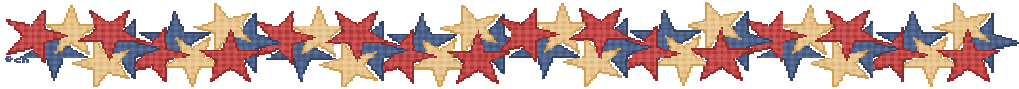

On behalf of the Administration and Board of Trustees of Juan Diego Academy, we wish to express our continued gratitude for the prayerful and financial support we have received. Juan Diego Academy will open its doors to freshmen on Monday, August 22, 2011. Registration remains open for any student entering the 9th grade. Tuition scholarships are available. Call 287-3260 for more information, or visit the website, juandiegoacademy.org, to learn more about the school and follow the progress of construction to its completion.

Last week's Collection: $10,158.64

We will tenderly and lovingly remember all our sick friends and parishioners at all our masses. Most of you know how much we've been praying with and for Andy Guajardo (Class of 2008) as he fights the good fight against leukemia. We're praying extra fervently right now. He's taking a new treatment and we're looking for some good results. Also, please remember in your prayers, +Pablo F. Navarro & +Arturo Sanchez, who died last week, and their families in their great sorrow. Que brille para ellos la luz perpetua.

On Independence Day: God, source of all freedom, this day is bright with the memory of those who declared that life and liberty are your gift to every human being. Help us to continue a good work begun long ago. Make our vision clear and our will strong. That only in human solidarity will we find liberty and justice only in the honor that belongs to every life on earth. Turn our hearts to the family of nations to understand the way of others to offer friendship, and to find safety only in common good of all. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Zac Brown Band sings a sweet summer song that makes a good theme song for 4th of July and the life, liberty & pursuit of happiness that we celebrate, nourish, & share and transmit as we gather around the altar and the fire and the picnic table on the 4th of July.

Chicken Fried--by the Zac Brown

You know I like my chicken fried
A cold beer on a Friday night
A pair of jeans that fit just right
And the radio up

Well I was raised up beneath the shade of a Georgia pine
And that's home you know
Sweet tea pecan pie and homemade wine
Where the peaches grow
And my house it's not much to talk about
But it's filled with love that's grown in southern ground

And a little bit of chicken fried
Cold beer on a Friday night
A pair of jeans that fit just right

And the radio up
Well I've seen the sunrise
See the love in my woman's eyes
Feel the touch of a precious child
And know a mother's love

And it's funny how it's the little things in life that mean the most
Not where you live, what you drive,
or the price tag on your clothes
There's no dollar sign on a piece of mind
this I've come to know
So if you agree have a drink with me
Raise you glasses for a toast

To a little bit of chicken fried
Cold beer on a Friday night

A pair of jeans that fit just right
And the radio up
Well I've seen the sunrise
See the love in my woman's eyes
Feel the touch of a precious child
And know a mother's love

I thank God for my life
And for the stars and stripes
May freedom forever fly, let it ring
Salute the ones who died
And the ones that give their lives, so we don't have to sacrifice
All the things we love

Like our chicken fried
Cold beer on a Friday night

A pair of jeans that fit just right
And the radio up
Well I've seen the sunrise
See the love in my woman's eyes
Feel the touch of a precious child
And know a mother's love

Get ya little chicken fried
Cold beer on a Friday night
A pair of jeans that fit just right
And the radio up
Well I've seen the sunrise
See the love in my woman's eyes
Feel the touch of a precious child
And know a mother's love
