LITURGIA DE LA PALABRA Y COMUNION /

LITURGY OF THE WORD W/ COMMUNION

NO 5:30 P.M. MASS THIS SUNDAY (AUG 7)!

IN THE CALM AND IN THE STORM THE LORD SPEAKS, “DON’T BE AFRAID! IT’S ME!” CRISTO NOS ESTA HABLANDO EN LAS BRISAS Y EN LOS VIENTOS CONTRARIOS. “¿ANIMO, SOY YO, NO TENGAN MIEDO!” DON’T BE AFRAID TO GET INTO THOSE “ADVENTURES” WHERE YOU WILL BE SCARED! GO AHEAD AND “JUMP IN WITH BOTH FEET!”

BE NOT AFRAID

“Take this bread and cup; eat and drink, for this is my body, this is my blood.” Peter reverently pronounced the blessing and thought again how wonderful it was to celebrate the Lord’s Supper with Gaius, Lucius, and all his fellow Christians in Rome. No mere decree of the emperor could frighten them into abandoning the way of life that Jesus had taught them.

Having finished the hymns and prayers, Peter spoke to the assembly: “My brothers, the widow, Claudia, is ill and thus unable to join us tonight. Lucius, will you take her the Sacred Bread so that she too may receive?”

“Lucius blurted, “But the emperor’s soldiers and spies are everywhere.” Then he fell silent. In Lucius’ eyes, Peter saw hesitation, reluctance, and fear. It brought to Peter’s mind a flash of memory over 30 years old and how his own youthful bravado had sunk in the wind and waves of his stormy sea—and how fragile his own courage had been. Peter smiled gently and said, “I understand, Lucius. Gaius, could you go in his stead?”

As the worshippers dispersed, Lucius knelt before Peter and wept, “can you forgive me, Teacher? I...”

“I am a sinful man,” Peter interrupted softly, lifting Lucius to his feet, “and I know well how it feels to lack courage. That is why I not only forgive you, Lucius, I embrace you and love you. And I give glory to the Lord Jesus, who strengthened me when I was weak.”
1 Kgs. 19, 9-11-13/ Rom. 9,1-5/ Mt. 14, 22-33

NO TENGAN MIEDO

“Tomen este pan y esta copa; coman y beban, porque este es mi cuerpo, esta es mi sangre,” Pedro pronuncio la bendición reverentemente y volvió a pensar en lo bueno que era celebrar la Cena del Señor con Gayo. Lucio y todos los otros compañeros cristianos en Roma. Ningún decreto del emperador los podía asustar tanto como para abandonar la manera de vivir que Jesús les había enseñado.

Cuando terminaron los himnos y las oraciones, Pedro le hablo a la asamblea: “Hermanos y hermanas, la viuda, Claudia, está enferma y por eso no pudo unirse a nosotros esta noche. Lucio, ¿le podrías llevar el Pan Sagrado para que ella también lo pueda compartir?”

“Lucio dijo abruptamente, “Pero los soldados del emperador y sus espías están dondequiera.” Y después de eso se quedo silencioso. Pedro vio vacilación, renuencia y miedo en los ojos de Lucio. Le recordó a Pedro algo que había pasado 30 años atrás y como su arrogancia se había dispersado y se había hundido en un mar turbulento—y cuan frágil su propio valor había sido. Pedro sonrió suavemente y dijo “Lucio, yo entiendo. Gayo, ¿podrías ir tu en vez de Lucio?”

Cuando ya se habían ido las personas de la asamblea. Lucio se arrodillo delante de Pedro y lloro, “¿Maestro, me puede perdonar? Yo...”

“Yo soy un pecador.” Pedro le dijo, interrumpiéndolo, y levanto a Lucio. “y yo se muy bien lo que es no tener valor. Por eso es, Lucio, que no solamente te perdono, sino que te doy un abrazo y te quiero. Y yo le doy gloria al Señor Jesús, quien me dio las fuerzas cuando yo fui débil.”
(1 Re 19, 9,11/Rom. 9, 1-5/ Mt. 14, 22-33)

This is already the 19th Sunday of Ordinary Time and moving toward the last summer Sunday for the public school teachers. School is already “fixin’ to” crank up. Labor Day used to be kind of the last summer week-end. Not anymore! As we crank up to begin the voyage of another school year, we say farewell to our college men and women as they get ready to take off for more adventures in higher education. Christ tells us about His presence in the storms we encounter on the voyage and assures us he won’t let us “go under”. We’ll bless our teachers at all our masses next weekend. We’ll have the special blessing for all our students the following week-end. College students who are leaving early can ask for a blessing any time before or after mass.

Where does the time go? Doesn’t it seem like just the other day these college kids were being baptized, making their First Communion etc? Time flies! Before you know it the future you thought would never get here (the kids would never grow up!) is (are) already gone! What a great and beautiful mystery – our pilgrimage through time, through Him with Him and in Him. Doesn’t it make you want to pay a little more attention to the development of that mystery in each of your own kids, loved ones, and friends before they’re off to wherever and whatever in this great adventure if life?

COLLEGE STUDENTS interested in an evening of reflection, fishing, eating, “yachting,” etc. at Kamp Keralum can sign up at mass giving us some idea of WHEN you’re available. We’ve pulled it off before, but it’s a little tricky to find a good time for our “over extended” scholars!

EVEN WITH SCHOOL STARTING SO EARLY, YOU COULD STILL TAKE SOME GOOD SUMMER BREAKS!

HOW’S

YOU CAN STILL

YOUR

TAKE SOME

SUMMER

TIME OFF TO

GONE?

ENJOY EACH OTHER!

Before you know it, summer’s gone! We’re all passing through. Vale la pena, take some time, relax and do something fun together this summer! Even though school’s “fixin’ to” crank up already, it’s a great time for a change of pace. There are a lot of neat things you can do without spending too much time or money. Talk it over with the family and come up with some fun, crazy ideas and then do it! Remember again the profound words of the Dutch Poet, Henri Amiel: “Life is short and we have not much time for gladdening the hearts of those who travel the way with us. Oh, be quick to love! Make haste to be kind!”

WHERE DID THE SUMMER GO?

WE COULD REALLY DO
A LOT...

...WITH
LEFT!

It’s been a fine summer down on the Rio Grande at Kamp Keralum. Check out the pictures! This is the first Summer (in over 15 years) that we’ve caught an alligator gar! He was the one that got away, but we managed to get a couple of good pictures of him before he went back to tell his family about how crazy we are! It sure has been a beautiful Summer in the neighborhood.

Lord, let me find back the lost treasure of time: for gentle listening to a friend, for sharing, the play of a child, for consoling a suffering fellow man, for thinking without strain, for labor without pressure. Time to delight in birds and flowers, blooming trees and lustrous green. Time to enjoy music, friends, and meals, time to be silent and alone, time to be quietly at home, time to be present to Your mystery. Free me from the tyranny of time urgency. Let time not possess me neither the pressure of daily concerns. Let me not cram every moment with useful or exciting things to do or say. Let my life be a gentle preparation for the pure and precious moments of listening to You so that I may not drown in the rushing waters of practical pursuits.
Fr. Adrian Vankaam, CSSP

SEÑOR, SI ERES TU...
-Mándame ir a ti sobre el agua...
-Mándame ir a ti, pensando en este resentimiento que, desde hace días, me hace mostrarme hosco con mi esposa.
-Mándame ir a ti, obedeciendo a mis padres.
-Mándame ir a ti y alejarme de esa amistad que tu y yo sabemos que no me conviene.
-Mándame ir a ti, poniendo lo que esté de mi parte para que nuestro matrimonio vuelva a ser el de antes.
-Mándame ir a ti, preocupándome un poco más de los que me rodean.
-Mándame ir a ti, poniendo mi mejor esfuerzo en mi trabajo o en mis estudios.
-Mándame ir a ti, siendo amable con todos.
-Mándame ir a ti, ayudando a todo el que yo pueda.
-Mándame ir a ti, soportando con paciencia esta enfermedad o esta pena.
JESÚS LE CONTESTO: “VEN”...

Next Monday, August 15th, is the Feast of the Assumption of Mary. Nobody ever forgets the day their momma went to heaven. We’ll celebrate the Sunday Masses remembering her, with the 5:30 evening and 6:55 A.M. Monday as Masses of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary.

Our old friend and pastor and mentor, FR. GERRY BARRETT, now pastor of Port Isabel, is retiring this Summer. He just seemed to get younger every year until the last year or two. Who knows? Maybe he’ll come live with us at Guadalupe! You can send him a card at Our Lady, Star of the Sea. P.O. Box 6504 Port Isabel, Texas 78578.

Juan Diego Academy, NEW Catholic High School in Mission Opening August 2011, NOW REGISTERING 9TH GRADE. Tuition Scholarships Available For more info. call 956-287-3260 or visit juandiegoacademy.org. They’re looking for a custodian right now—nice place to work!

Don’t wait till the last minute! Our Lady of Guadalupe Catholic School is still registering for the 2011-2012 academic school year. We’re looking forward to opening 6th Grade. The office will be open during the summer if you’re interested or know of someone who would like to join our family. For a quality Catholic Education call (956) 585-6445. You’d be surprised how our tuition compares to other schools or to day care! It’s lower than any other private school in the Valley! If you’re already paying for day care you could save money and get a Quality Catholic Education at O.L.G.!!

Everyone knows the story behind Shary Road, Conway Avenue, and Tom Landry Street, but many of the streets in Mission have less obvious, but equally interesting historical ties. Streets such as Dunlap, Magna, Holland (no it’s not named after the country in Europe), and Fulgencio Velasco III all came by their names in fascinating ways that relate to important people and themes in the history of our community. Please join us to celebrate the opening of the Mission Historical Museum’s new exhibit, “Streets of Mission,” with an informal reception on August 13, 2011 from 10 A.M.-2 P.M. Exhibit designer Maria Hurtado will be available to answer questions about the exhibit, and light refreshments will be served. Mission Historical Museum: 900 Doherty Ave.

We will tenderly and lovingly remember all our sick friends and parishioners at all our Masses this weekend. Also, please remember in your prayers, +Jose Antonio Funes (funeral Monday at 10 A.M), who died last week, and his family in their great sorrow. Que brille para él la luz perpetua.

A good cowboy song to help you appreciate the “Adventure” of today’s Gospel and the “Adventure” of your life is “Storms of Life,” by Randy Travis.

There's a dirty piece of cardboard
That reads Montgomery Ward
Taped across the window of my old Ford.
A six-pack on the front seat and a box of chicken wings,
I'm dialin' 'cross the radio for a song that
I can sing

I'd better change my wandrin ways,
I know I've seen my better days,
Always gettin' high when I get low.

Well, I left my soul out in the rain,
Lord, what a price I've had to pay.
The storms of life are washin' me away.

An old mail pouch, tobacco sign
Fadin' on the barn,
Bringin' back sweet memories of Mama's
farm
When love was just a country girl that lived on down the road.
(Spoken) you know, she almost had me

turned around,
But that was years ago.

I'd better change my wandrin ways,
I know I've seen my better days,
Always gettin' high when I get low.
Well, I left my soul out in the rain,
Lord, what a price I've had to pay.
The storms of life are washin' me away.
Yeah, the storms of life are washin' me away.
