THERE'S MORE TO IT THAN WE'LL EVER FIGURE OUT, BUT FOR SURE, GOD IS ALWAYS CALLING US TO GROW BIG-HEARTED, GENEROUS, AND COMPASSIONATE. BE CAREFUL WITH ENVY, IT CAN MOVE YOU IN THE WRONG DIRECTION AND EAT YOU ALIVE! ;CUIDADO CON LA ENVIDIA! ;TE PUEDE COMER VIVO!

On Not Judging Others

Once, in the same meadow, there lived a chipmunk, a rabbit, and a skunk. Now, as wide as the meadow seemed, the chipmunk and the rabbit were not at all happy that they had to share their space with the skunk. Not that she was such a bad person, but she just didn't seem to fit in.

The chipmunk and the rabbit, on the other hand, were good friends. The chipmunk and the rabbit, on the other hand, were good friends. The chipmunk admired the rabbit and knew that if ever there were a crisis, the rabbit would stand by her and help her out.

The test of her convictions came soon. One day, a nasty hunting dog*1 wandered into the meadow looking for any resident of the meadow who may have happened out of his burrow. The sudden appearance of the hound caught the chipmunk and the rabbit by surprise. "Eek, help me!" screeched the chipmunk as the huge form of the dog came barreling down on her. But, instead of the reassuring help of the rabbit, the chipmunk saw a clod of dust and the swindling fluff of a cottontail disappearing behind distant bushes. Her friend had abandoned her.

Just then, and awful smell stopped the charging hound in his tracks. With a yelp, the hound backed up, turned, and fled the meadow. The chipmunk turned to see the skunk standing beside her. She was embarrassed—she had thought and spoken so ill of her, and now she owed her life to him.

The readings of our liturgy today tell us not to be quick in our judgment of others. There is always good in others if we care to look for it.

*1—Not Chunkly of Valentine!

Isaiah 55:6-9/ Philippians 1:20-24, 27/ Matthew 20:1-16

PK-6 Grade Doctrina starts Next Saturday, Sept. 24th!

ACERCA DE NO JUZGAR A LOS DEMAS

En una pradera, vivían una ardilla, un conejo y una mofeta. Aunque la pradera era grande, la ardilla y el conejo no se conformaban con compartirla con la mofeta*1. No era que la mofeta era mala, pero ella no encajaba bien.

La ardilla y el conejo, en cambio, eran buenos amigos. La ardilla admiraba al conejo y sabía que si algún día se presenta una crisis, el conejo la ayudaría.

La crisis llegó pronto. Un día, un perro cazador*2 llegó a la pradera. El buscaba a cualquier habitante de la pradera que estuviera fuera de su casa. La aparición repentina del perro agarro desprevenidos a la ardilla y al conejo. "¡Socorro!" gritó la ardilla al ver al perro correr hacia ella. Pero el conejo, en vez de ir a ayudarla, la abandonó y fue a esconderse.

En ese momento se sintió un olor tan horrible que hasta el perro paró en seco, empezó a aullar y se fue de la pradera. La mofeta había venido a salvar a la ardilla y se paró orgullosa a su lado. La ardilla estaba muy avergonzada. Ella había hablado mal de la mofeta y ahora le debía su vida.

Las lecturas de la liturgia de hoy también nos dicen que no juzguemos a los demás. Siempre hay cosas buenas en todo el mundo si las buscamos.

*2No Chunkly or Valentin!

Isaías 55:6-9/ Filipenses 1:20-24, 27/Mateo 20:1-16

This week-end we celebrate the 25th Sunday of Ordinary Time. The Gospel is another one of those that we'll kind of chew on and keep on absorbing. If it bothers you, that's probably a good sign that you're paying attention to it. It's another one about being big hearted, magnanimous and noble. (Aren't they all?)

It's good for you even if (or maybe especially if) it bugs you. Maybe you can get into some good supper table discussions about what it means and what it doesn't mean.

DEAL?

WILL WE EVER OUTGROW IT?

“VAYAN TAMBIÉN USTED A MI VIÑA.” Los planes del Señor no son nuestros planes, ni sus caminos nuestros caminos. El Señor es bueno con todos, bondadoso en todo lo que hace. Obra siempre amor, sin segundas intenciones. Es difícil comprender el Evangelio de este Domingo para nuestra mentalidad egoísta, calculadora, que quiere alcanzar meritos y no tiene en cuenta lo gratuito. Nadie merece la salvación, el algo que se nos da por amor. Siempre tenemos que ser humildes y agradecidos si el Padre nos da una partecita en su Reino, la que El quiera. El Señor nos llama a todos a trabajar en su viña. Algunos lo hacemos dedicando todo nuestro tiempo, o gran parte de él. Otros dispondrán de menos tiempo, pero pueden trabajar con entusiasmo y con fe, aunque sea en trabajos que parecen insignificantes. Cada uno de nosotros puede ser el poquito de levadura que fermente la masa de nuestros hermanos, vecinos y compañeros de trabajo. Hay un gran número de cristianos que es la retaguardia, que es con su oración y fe, aliento y alegría, animan a los que trabajan activamente en la construcción del Reino de Dios. Estos últimos que se fían del Señor, serán los primeros y su recompensa será el mismo Señor. La viña, el Reino de Dios, necesita trabajadores para cultivarla y gotas de sudor para regarla, para hacer realidad el “venga a nosotros tu Reino.” (Del Evangelio de Hoy)

BIENVENIDOS A NUESTROS MIGRANTES QUE HAN REGRESADO A NUESTRA SEÑORA DE GUADALUPE. iNOS DA MUCHO GUSTO TENERLOS YA AQUÍ EN SU CASA CON NOSOTROS!

WELCOME – BIENVENIDOS TO OUR WINTER TEXAN NEIGHBORS WHO ARE ALREADY ARRIVING BACK AT THE OLD GUADALUPE. THERE ARE ALREADY A FEW! WE'RE GLAD TO SEE YOU BACK! THE 4:00 P.M. AND 9:00 A.M. MASSES MADE IT THROUGH THE SUMMER, BUT THERE WAS ALWAYS PLENTY OF EXTRA ROOM. IT SEEMS LIKE FULL HOUSES ARE ALWAYS MORE FUN FOR EVERYBODY!

Our first kind of special “Fiesta” or “Borlote” around here will be the Feast of St. Francis with the beautiful (and raucous) Blessing of the Animals. Tuesday, October 4th is St. Francis Day, we'll probably bless the animals on Sunday, October 2nd in the afternoon, after the 5:30 Mass. More about that later.

Our college men and women have taken off for their further adventures in higher learning. We bless them and pray for them as they march bravely into the mystery that is their future. Father Roy needs a mailing list of our college (and army, etc.) students. Please call the office. If we can get all those addresses in this month, I can send them something (not raffle tickets).

So, did anybody ever tell you that you have a good voice for speaking or reading? Well, maybe you'd be a good lector! We're looking for some, especially at the 10:30 & 12:30 Masses. Let us know. Please leave your name & phone number in the front office.

Time to register for religious education! Please bring your children's baptism certificates when you come to register them. It is eternally important for all children from Pre-Kinder through high school to attend religious education classes. You can register at the CCD office, Parish office or school office. PK-6th grade Doctrina starts on Sat., Sept. 24th. 7th-12th grade Youth groups form up at a Youth Rally on Wed., Oct.5th! See y'all there!

So, you're all grown up and never made your 1st Communion, Confirmation, or maybe never even got baptized? Well...we can sure help you out! The class for adults preparing to celebrate and to receive those Sacraments began on Monday, September 12, 7 P.M.-8 P.M. Rm. 8 (by the Parish Hall) and meets twice a month. Pretty good deal! Check it out! You'll be glad you did! You can show up there to register

Our old friend and pastor and mentor, FR. GERRY BARRETT, former pastor of Port Isabel, has retired this Summer. He just seemed to get younger every year until the last year or two. Who knows? Maybe he'll come live with us at Guadalupe! For now, he is at the Oblate Madonna House 5722 Blanco Road, San Antonio, Texas 78216-6615.

WHAT ABOUT THE BIG SWEEPSTAKES RAFFLE for our FIESTAS GUADALUPANAS?! Well, it's about to kick off! The truck is on the way! We're putting together the prize list already! If you want to donate a good prize or help us ask for prizes, please give us a call! Your big-hearted generosity and goodwill will make all the difference! Thanks to those who have already called to offer their donations and those who already brought in their donations! The prizes will be raffled off like last year at our Guadalupe fiesta in December. Last year was great!

Here is some real surprising news about the Magnificent Maroon Machine for this year! The tsunami in Japan last year destroyed the factories that manufactured the MAROON PAINT! So, we'll get a WHITE truck with some maroon trimmings!! ¡Que cosas! So, it'll be a Aggie/Eagle maroon & white (mostly white!) How 'bout that?

We come from a long line of love! Everyone knows the story behind Shary Road, Conway Avenue, and Tom Landry Street, but many of the streets in Mission have less obvious, but equally interesting historical ties. Streets such as Dunlap, Magna, Holland (no it's not named after the country in Europe), and Fulgencio Velasco III all came by their names in fascinating ways that relate to important people and themes in the history of our community. Mission Historical Museum: 900 Doherty Ave. Thanks to Mrs. Hurtado and the project and the Texas Animal Hall of Fame, we got a new medal for Magna's statue! It's there in Museum now! You may remember that her old medal was stolen from her statue in the church by some scoundrel!

Last week's Collection: $12,678.05

We will tenderly and lovingly remember all our sick friends and parishioners at all our weekend masses. Our young hero, Andy Guajardo, is up at M.D. Anderson fighting valiantly with Leukemia and related heartaches and attacks on his young body. Please pray fervently with us and with him and his family that he will come through this “Valley of Death” with flying colors. I said mass up there with him and +Mike Allen almost exactly two years ago. Also, please remember in your prayers, +John F. Mohring & +Policarpio Villarreal, who died last week, and their families in their great sorrow. Que brille para ellos la luz perpetua.

LORD OF THE TEENAGER:

Lord Jesus, it seems a lot to me to know that You were also once a teenager. You know what it's like – to be treated like a child when you're really not a child; to try to get accepted as an adult when you're really not an adult. You know what is in the young heart. You now my true longings and feelings, even those I do not recognize or know how to express. When I come to you, as I do now, I know You're not judging me by what other young people are doing, or even by what others think of me. And I know You're not laughing or shaking Your head at me. You, who understand me so well, help me understand myself. Keep me aware of Your love and what I can become in that love. I thank You for coming to be my eternal Friend and Savior of all mankind – also of us teenagers.

So, how 'bout that Gospel? How 'bout this life? Not so easy to figure it out, is it? It sure doesn't always work out like we thought it was suppose to. That can pull you into a more sincere, intense, and intimate conversation with the mystery and the movement of His love force, life force in your story. Don Williams sings I sure haven't got it all figured out yet and I don't know about a lot of stuff, but “I BELIEVE IN YOU!” Not a bad way to speak and listen to Him, whose “thoughts are not our thoughts and ways are not our ways.” ¡Que cosas!

“I Believe in You”—Don Williams

I dont believe in superstars organic food and foreign cars
I dont believe the price of gold
the certainty of growing old that right is right and left is wrong that north and south can't get along that east is east and west is west
and bein first is always best

but I believe in love
I believe in babies
I believe in mom and dad
and I believe in you

well I don't believe that heaven waits
for only those who congregate
I'd like to think of God is love
He's down below
He's up above
He's watchin people everywhere
He knows who does and doesn't care
and I'm an ordinary man
sometimes I wonder who I am

but I believe in love
I believe in music
I believe in magic
and I believe in you

I know with all my certainty
what's goin on with you and me
Is a good thing
it's true
I believe in you

I don't believe virginity is as common as it used be in workin days and sleepin nights
that black is black and white is white that Superman and Robin hood are still alive in Hollywood that gasoline's in short supply

the risin cost of gettin by

but I believe in love
I believe in old folks
I believe in children
I believe in you

I believe in love
I believe in babies
I believe in mom and dad
and I believe in you
