TURN YOUR CLOCKS BACK TONIGHT! (SAT.)

IN SOME WAY, GOD IS CALLING EACH OF US TO BE A SAINT. EVEN AS WE REMEMBER OUR LOVED ONES WHO HAVE DIED, WE GET IN TOUCH WITH HIS CALL IN THE STORY OF OUR LIVES AND WE RENEW OUR EFFORTS TO BE FAITHFUL TO HIM AND TRUE TO HIS CALL, TRUE TO OUR REAL SELVES, TO BE “HEROES AND FRIENDS” AND “GUARDIAN ANGELS” FOR EACH OTHER!

SAINTS AMONG US

A recent poll asked American teenagers to name the ten people they admire most. When the results were published, it turned out that all ten of the youths’ heroes were entertainers; actors, singers, and comedians. Mother Teresa, who has spent her life working with the disease-ridden and poverty-stricken, did not make the list; neither did any doctors who have forsaken lucrative suburban clientele to practice medicine in the inner city; nor any of those who have dedicated their lives to promoting international peace and cooperation. These genuine modern-day heroes have been eclipsed by celebrities from the world of show business.

The Church today celebrates the Feast of All Saints, a day on which we honor all the holy men and women, who throughout the ages lived and died with one purpose: to give honor and glory to God and to foster the well-being of their neighbor. Only a few of these saints were well-known enough to be officially canonized; most remain anonymous. But all lived lives of outstanding virtue and are genuine heroes, models of holiness for us who nowadays can profit greatly from their example, their writings, and their prayers.

All Saints’ Day is an opportunity for us to look back in pride and gratitude at these heroes of the past and to become more familiar with the details of their lives. It is also a chance for us to reflect on and to recognize the modern-day saints leading truly holy, heroic lives in the service of God and humanity.

Rv. 7, 2-4, 9-14/ 1 Jn. 3, 1-3/ Mt. 5, 1-12

SANTOS ENTRE NOSOTROS

Recientemente, una encuesta les pidió a teenagers americanos que nombraran a las diez personas que admiraban más. Cuando se publicaron los resultados, salió a relucir que todas las personas que los jóvenes consideraban héroes eran actores, cantantes, y comediantes. La Madre Teresa, quien se ha pasado toda su vida trabajando con personas extremadamente pobres y enfermas, so apareció en la lista. Y tampoco aparecieron los doctores que han abandonado muchos clientes adinerados en los suburbios para practicar la medicina en las secciones pobres de la ciudad. Y tampoco aparecieron todas esas personas que se han dedicado a promover la paz y la cooperación entre las naciones. Estos verdaderos héroes modernos han sido echados a un lado por las celebridades del mundo del entretenimiento.

Hoy la Iglesia celebra el día de Todos los Santos, un día en el cual honramos todos los hombres santos y las mujeres santas que a través de todos los años vivieron y murieron con un solo propósito en mente: dar honor y gloria a Dios y promover el bienestar de su prójimo. Solamente un pequeño número de estos santos son lo suficientemente conocido como para ser canonizados oficialmente. La mayoría permanece en el anonimato. Pero todos ellos vivieron vidas muy virtuosas y son verdaderos héroes, modelos de santidad para todos nosotros que podemos beneficiarnos mucho de su ejemplo, sus escritos y sus oraciones.

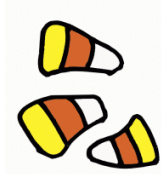

El día de Todos los Santos es una oportunidad para que le demos una mirada al pasado y, con mucho orgullo y gratitud por estos héroes del pasado, nos familiaricemos más con los detalles de sus vidas. También este día nos ofrece la oportunidad de reflexionar acerca de y de reconocer a los santos de hoy día que verdaderamente viven unas vidas santas y heroicas al servicio de Dios y de la humanidad.

HAPPY 60TH ANNIVERSARY, FR. JIM! WELCOME PFEIFER CLAN!

It's a happy and blessed coincidence that we celebrate Fr. Jim's 60th Anniversary this Sunday, the eve of the eve of All Saints' Day! The Saints are heroes and friends of ours on this great journey and Fr. Jim is sure a great hero and friend of ours here at the Old Guadalupe. Thanks, Fr. Jim, for being such a fine hero, friend, and priest of Jesus Christ! We all appreciate you more than we tell you!

We celebrate the hallowed evening (Halloween), the eve of All Saints' Day Monday. Tuesday is All Saints' and Wednesday is All Souls' Day. You could count any Mass this weekend as your All Saints' (or even All Souls'!) Mass. We'll celebrate two Masses at 6:55 A.M. & 7:00 P.M. on All Saints' & All Souls' Day. We'll keep the names you have written on the All Souls' envelopes on the altar all during the month of November. We honor all the famous saints and all of our loved ones who have gone before us as we celebrate our Masses this weekend. THANKS TO OUR FINE YOUTH GROUPS WHO ARE MAKING PRESENTATIONS ON THE ALL SAINTS – ALL SOULS THEME AT OUR WEEK-END MASSES. We thank God for the way he has enriched our human history and the story of our lives through our loved ones who have died and preceded us in eternal life. In those lonesome places left in our hearts by their death, we tune in on the gift of God they were and still are in our lives. We're close to them through, with and in the mystery of Christ, whose love conquers death. We pray a lot like Forrest Gump did over his wife's grave in that beautiful movie, "Momma always said that death is a part of life...I sure wish it wasn't and I sure miss you!"

The 18th Anniversary of good old +Fr. Sco's death is also Oct. 31st. He came to Mission with +Sr. Beatriz, Sr. Guadalupe, +Magna & +Brutus and me back in 1992! Time sure flies! ¡Que cosas!

OUR ANNUAL SWEEPSTAKES RAFFLE IS KICKING OFF!
HOW 'BOUT THAT AGGIE KING RANCH SPECIAL?

(Maroon & White) We couldn't get a maroon one because the tsunami destroyed the maroon paint factories in Japan. Go figure! If you want to donate a good prize or help us ask for prizes, give us a call! Even the lesser prizes should be worth 40-50 dollars. Let's start praying and thinking positive! Your big-hearted generosity and good will make all the difference! The prizes will be raffled off like last year at our Guadalupe Fiesta. Last year was great! Let's outdo ourselves! We're still looking for some courageous, creative people to work on the Jamaica committee!! This is the Raffle & Jamaica RIGHT BEFORE THE BIG RESTORATION—EXPANSION begins in January 2012! We need your help "big time!" If every family sells (or buys & sells) one or two books, we'll make out fine!

Our KINDER- 6th Grade "Doctrina" classes have started with much enthusiasm, joy, and promise. What a great bunch of "works of art"! It's going to be a great year in the neighborhood!

It's never too late to register! Call the C.C.D office, parish office, or school office and they'll help you get registered!

This has always been a big deal for us and it's getting bigger every year. Pray that we'll be up to the challenge! Help us meet the challenge!

Thanks to our fine Mission Historical Museum for the beautiful exhibit on the "Streets of Mission" with Francisco St., Fr. Sco's brother, Magna Street, & so many others. There is now a beautiful exhibit on "El Dia de los Muertos" Good Stuff!

WELCOME, BIENVENIDOS TO ALL OUR MIGRANT AND WINTER TEXAN NEIGHBORS who are already arriving back at the old Guadalupe. We're all glad to see you back! The 9:00 A.M. and the 4:00 P.M. masses made it through the summer, but there was always plenty of extra room. It seems like full houses are always more fun for everyone!

Bienvenidos a nuestros Migrantes que han regresado a nuestra Señora de Guadalupe. Nos da mucho gusto tenerlos ya aquí en su casa con nosotros!

So, you're all grown up and never made your 1st Communion, Confirmation, or maybe never even got baptized? Are you feeling HIS spirit calling you? Well...we can sure help you out! The class for adults preparing to celebrate and to receive those Sacraments began on Monday, September 12, in Rm. 8 (by the Parish Hall) and meets twice a month. They'll meet again on November 7 at 7 P.M. Pretty good deal! Check it out! You'll be glad you did! You can show up there to register.

Our college men and women have taken off for their further adventures in higher learning. We bless them and pray for them as they march bravely into the mystery that is their future. Father Roy needs a mailing list of our college \(and army, and other "prodigal" sons & daughters\) students. Please call the office. If we can get all those addresses in this month, I can send them something (not raffle tickets!) before Thanksgiving.

Bishop Daniel's Anniversary as a Bishop was also Friday, October 28. You can send him a card at: P.O. Box 2279 Brownsville, Texas 78522-2279

DON'T FORGET! NEXT SATURDAY NIGHT, TURN YOUR CLOCKS AND WATCHES BACK ONE HOUR!

*Please add your name and address to your regular Sunday envelopes for the next month so we can do a check and update on our "system!" Thanks!

In November, we share with faith and love that painful emptiness that the death of our loved ones has left in our hearts and we become more aware of the Spirit of the love of Christ moving in that emptiness bringing us in touch with His love through our love for those who have been separated from us physically by death and more aware of their love for us. The Lord himself said, "You will look for me, but... where I am going you cannot come." (Jn 13:33) It's tough, but essential, for us to face this with Faith and Love as individuals and as a family of Faith. Edna St. Vicent Millay spoke of this pain opening us up to the Spirit of Love in a poem called "DIRGE WITHOUT MUSIC:"

"I am not resigned to the shutting away of loving hearts in the hard ground. So, it is and will be, for so it has been, time out of mind: Into the darkness they go, the wise and the lovely. Crowned with lilies and with laurels they go; but I am not resigned. Down, down, down, into the darkness of the grave, gently they go, the beautiful, the tender, the kind; quietly they go, the intelligent, the witty, the brave. I know, but I do not approve and I am resigned."

Last week's Collection: $11,380.85

We will tenderly and lovingly remember all our sick friends and parishioners at the altar every time we say Mass. Fr. Beck is getting better poco-a-poco back in San Antonio. Also please remember in your prayers, +Fidel Chavez & +Aguedita Chavez, who died last week, and their families in their great sorrow. Que brille para ellos la luz perpetua.

There are a couple of cowboy songs echoing in my heart and mind as I put this down, I think I'm narrowing down to one. Not so easy! Randy Travis sings about "Heroes & Friends." Wynonna & the Judds sing about our "Guardian Angels"

Wynona & the Judds sing a sad, sweet song about how those who have gone before us are still a powerful part of our story and as Randy Travis sings, they are our heroes and friends who help us find good in ourselves and won't forsake us for somebody else! We also pray to be "heroes and friends," "Guardian Angels," for each other!

A hundred year old photograph stares out from a frame
And if you look real close, you'll see our eyes are just the same
I never met them face to face but I still know them well
From the stories my dear grandma would tell

They're my guardian angels and I know they can see
Every step I take, they are watching over me
I might not know where I'm goin' but I'm sure where I come from
They're my guardian angels and I'm their special one

They're my guardian angels and I know they can see
Every step I take, they are watching over me
I might not know where I'm goin' but I'm sure where I come from
They're my guardian angels and I'm their special one

Elijah was a farmer, he knew how to make things grow
And Fannie vowed she'd follow him wherever he would go
As things turned out, they never left their small Kentucky farm
But he kept her fed, she kept him warm

Sometimes when I'm tired, I feel Elijah take my arm
He says, "Keep a goin', hard work never did a body harm"
And when I'm really troubled and I don't know what to do
Fannie whispers, "Just do your best, we're awful proud of you"

A hundred year old photograph stares out from a frame
And if you look real close, you'll see our eyes are just the same
