AS WE SAVOR THE BEAUTIFUL DAYS IN THE NEIGHBORHOOD, RECOGNIZING HOW BEAUTIFUL & BRIEF THEY ARE, OUR HEARTS ARE TUNED INTO THE SPIRIT. “I WILL PLACE MY LAW (MY TRUTH) WITHIN THEM AND WRITE IT UPON THEIR HEARTS; I WILL BE THEIR GOD AND THEY WILL BE MY PEOPLE.” WE THANK GOD FOR THAT AS WE ADMIRE AND BLESS OUR GRADUATES.

Confirmation Class

A catechism teacher was preparing her students for confirmation when one day she presented a riddle to them: “What gift can you receive only when you already have it and possess only when you give it away?”

The students were stumped.

To help them answer the riddle, the teacher asked other questions. “How many of you have done some kindness for someone this week?” Hands slowly went up as each student reviewed what kindness he or she had done that week. Some had visited elderly relatives. Others had tried to be particularly helpful at home by doing the laundry or the housecleaning. One young man had visited a friend in the hospital, and one of the young women regularly volunteered at a day care center.

“What do we call such kind actions?” The teacher asked. She had to prompt the answer; “Love.”

“And who is the Holy Spirit of God?”

Most responded, “The Third Person of the Blessed Trinity,” which was correct, but the teacher added another perspective.

“The Third Person of the Blessed Trinity is the Holy Spirit of God’s Love, whom God the Father and God the Son share with each other and want to share with us. “She explained that every kind, loving action in their lives was prompted by the Spirit of Love. And they can receive God’s Spirit of Love only if they have the Spirit of Love. They know they possess the Spirit of Love only if they give love to God and to the other people in their lives.

La Clase de Confirmación

Una maestra de catecismo estaba preparando a sus estudiantes para recibir la confirmación cuando un día ella les dijo una adivinanza a los estudiantes: “¿Qué regalo pueden recibir sólo cuando ya lo tienen y poseer sólo cuando lo regalan?” Los estudiantes no tenían ni idea.

Para ayudarlos a adivinar, la maestra les hizo otras preguntas. “¿Cuántos de ustedes le han hecho algún favor a alguien esta semana?” Los estudiantes empezaron a levantar las manos después de pensar en lo que habían hecho esa semana. Algunos habían visitado a familiares mayores. Otros habían tratado de ayudar con el quehacer de la casa lavando la ropa o limpiando. Un joven había visitado a un amigo en el hospital y una de las jóvenes era un voluntaria en una guardería.

“¿Qué nombre le podemos dar a esas cosas que hacemos?” La maestra preguntó. Ella tuviera que ayudarlos a que dieran la respuesta: “El amor.”

“¿Y quién es el Espíritu Santo de Dios?”

La mayoría respondió; “La tercera persona de la Santísima Trinidad,” lo cual era correcto, pero la maestra añadió otra perspectiva.

“La tercera persona de la Santísima Trinidad es el Espíritu Santo del amor de Dios, quien Dios Padre y Dios Hijo comparten y quieren compartir con nosotros también.” Ella les explico que cada favor o acto de amor que hacían era motivado por el Espíritu del Amor. Y ellos podían recibir el Espíritu del Amor de Dios solamente si tenían el Espíritu del Amor. Ellos saben que poseen el Espíritu del Amor solamente si pueden darle amor a Dios y a otras personas que son parte de sus vidas.

CONGRATULATIONS, GRADUATES!

With the great Feast of Pentecost last Sunday, we culminated the holy time of Easter. This is the First Sunday of Ordinary Time after Pentecost (the beginning of the 9th week of Ordinary Time). We celebrate this Sunday in honor of the mystery of the Holy Trinity – One God, Three Persons, Father, Son and the Holy Spirit.

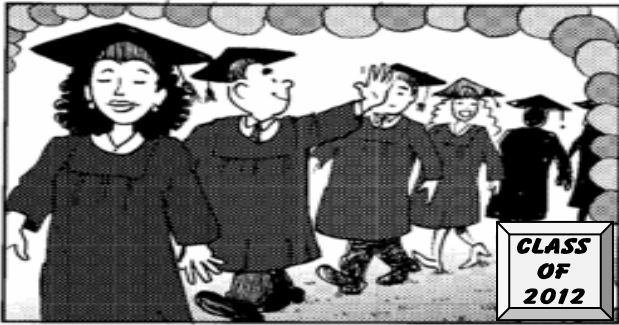

“In the summertime when the leaves and trees are green and the redbird sings...” We switch to the green vestments for “Ordinary Time”. My grandma had a little plaque on her wall that said, “Ordinary day! Let me be aware of the treasure you are!” Good “consejo”! We confirm a fine group of our young men and women this coming Thursday evening at 7 P.M. May the Holy Spirit refresh them as they continue to discover and respond to God in their everyday lives. We celebrate our Graduation Mass at 9 A.M. THIS Sunday. Ain’t they something?!

What an honor to watch them grow and develop as they move on in the great journey of life! What a mystery! Doesn’t it seem like they were little kids just the other day?! God really is creating a real works of art in these sons and daughters of ours!

Our Confirmation Retreats at Kamp Keralum have been very impressive for me and Fr. Phil & Fr. Jim and our Sisters and teachers. What fine “works of art” these young men & women are!

LOTS OF BEAUTIFUL DAYS IN THE OLD NEIGHBORHOOD!

SURE

...OF
YOU!

YEAH, IT SURE IS A BIG DEAL! YOU’RE GONNA MISS THIS!

YOU’RE STANDING IN LINE WAITING FOR YOUR DIPLOMA—a zillion thoughts racing through your head! College, Summer, A car! Glance across the crowd and see your Mom and Dad. This is an event very dear to their hearts. They’ve invested a lot of love, sacrifice, and heartache in the last 17 or 18 years of your journey—ever since your life began beneath your mother’s heart! As they “shoot love at you” with their cameras and hearts “shoot some love” back yourself and take some mental pictures. These are good old days!

Every one of our graduates is a real South Texas work of art in progress and we’re impressed and grateful!! Sam Levenson, teacher, writer, and humorist, wrote, “There’s an Old Talmudic teaching which says that every child is born with a message to deliver to the human race, a few words, maybe a bench he’ll build, maybe something he’ll say that completes the explanation of why we’re here.”

Father James Keller, founder of the Christophers, told young people: “God has put some of his own power into your hands; for he has work He wants you—and no one else—to do... The uppermost thought in your mind should be: ‘How shall I best serve God and my fellow man?’”

Speaking of “works of art”... We just blessed a beautiful statue of one of the sons of Our Lady of Guadalupe, KIKA DE LA GARZA! It’s out on the SW corner of Conway & Old 83, where he used to sell newspapers and shine shoes as a young boy growing up in S. Mission! ¡Que cosas! Felicidades to Kika, Lucille, and the whole family!

The OLD GUADALUPE is looking and will be lonesome for a few months, probably about as long as it takes for a baby to be born! In that “lonesomeness” the Spirit is moving! We’ve all been pleased and even surprised and delighted by the Spirited, happy, and positive response of everybody to our move into the hall, now our Summer Place, the “Guadalupe Parish Chapel Adjunct.” Something like that. It already looks and feels pretty good and we’ll be “fixin’ it up” more & more as we settle in and “make ourselves at home,” kinda like “campin’ out” until we can move back into our old home all repaired and expanded! We haven’t figured it out exactly, but it seems like we are able to seat as many or maybe even a few more in the Parish Hall set up as we did in the Church. Not bad! We’ll survive and thrive like we have since the days of La Lomita and the Cavalry of Christ! Thanks to everybody for your generosity, good will, and to all our good helpers and volunteers. This move is no small project!

Our fine “Asociacion Guadalupeana” is already raising funds for the building fund with a good raffle. Please pitch in! $3 a ticket, or 2 for $5. We’ll need to make an extra effort to pull it off and I know we will! If 3,000 of us gave an extra dollar a day (price of a beer maybe?) We’d have $1,095,000 by this time next year. Ain’t that something? I’m gonna get out a coffee can and start now! We are going to need lots of EXTRA help on this beautiful project!

Speaking of pitching in... The Bishop’s Appeal got thrown off by this move... So, we’ll extend it into June. If you haven’t yet, please get an envelope and pitch in what you can. Every “little bit” helps! The response so far is a little wimpy... not typical for the Guadalupe!

HERE’S A GOOD MOVIE ABOUT OUR CATHOLIC FAITH, HOPE, AND LOVE IN CHRIST! LET’S SPREAD THE WORD AND MAKE OPENING WEEKEND A SUCCESS! FOR THE GREATER GLORY- THE TRUE STORY OF CRISTIADA SHOWING NOW AT TINSELTOWN! PASEMOS LA VOZ Y AYUDEMOS A QUE EL FIN DE SEMANA DE ESTRENO SEA TODO UN EXITO!

Private nurse available. Call Sr. Elizabeth at 956-867-0993.

Thanks! ¡Muchisimas gracias! What a great 67th birthday! What a great life! I sure appreciate all your cards, kisses, gifts, good wishes, etc. Your friendship and love is the greatest gift! What an honor and joy to grow older, grayer, and “chunkier” here with you all! I wish I could thank you each personally. I do thank you and love you as we celebrate the sacred mysteries together. ¡Que cosas!

Last week’s Collection: $11,036.59

We will tenderly and lovingly remember all our sick friends and parishioners at our masses this week-end. Also, please remember in your prayers †Guadalupe Villarreal & †Julia Treviño, who died last week, and their families in their great sorrow. Que brille para ellas la luz perpetua.

WELL, ANOTHER
SCHOOL YEAR
DOWN...

...LET’S
ENJOY
SUMMER!

God bless our graduates & “confirmandi,” with robust Faith, Hope, & Love! The words to “I Hope You Dance” by LeeAnn Womack make a fine reflection on how these “beautiful days in the neighborhood” tune you and all of us into the Spirit at work in our hearts!

I hope you never lose your sense of wonder
You get your fill to eat but always keep that hunger
May you never take one single breath for granted
God forbid love ever leave you empty handed
I hope you still feel small when you stand beside the ocean
Whenever one door closes I hope one more opens
Promise me that you'll give faith a fighting chance
And when you get the choice to sit it out or dance

I hope you dance
I hope you dance

I hope you never fear those mountains in the distance
Never settle for the path of least resistance
Livin' might mean takin' chances, but they're worth takin'
Lovin' might be a mistake, but it's worth makin'
Don't let some Hellbent heart leave you bitter
When you come close to sellin' out, reconsider
Give the heavens above more than just a passing glance

And when you get the choice to sit it out or dance

I hope you dance
I hope you dance
(Time is a wheel in constant motion always rolling us along)
I hope you dance
I hope you dance
(Tell me who wants to look back on their years and wonder, where those years have gone?)

I hope you still feel small when you stand beside the ocean

Whenever one door closes I hope one more opens
Promise me that you'll give faith a fighting chance
And when you get the choice to sit it out or dance

Dance
(Time is a wheel in constant motion always rolling us along)
I hope you dance
