Catalog Description

A study of the dynamics of leadership and administration of the total programs of the local church. Through lecture, discussion, projects, case studies, and research students will gain a working understanding of the necessary competencies for pastoral leadership.

Course Narrative & Rationale

The course is built upon the assumption that leaders make a difference in all organizations, including the church. This does not suggest that the pastor/leader is a dominant figure who “controls” everything the church says and does. It does imply that the leader is engaged in helping the ministry find its purpose and in moving it toward its stated objectives. Christian leaders are servant leaders who take their cues from Christ’s model of the first being last and the leader coming not to be served, but to serve. The class focuses on twelve leadership behaviors/competencies deemed to be essential for effective ministry.
Degree Objectives

Certain aspects of this course address all five M.Div. course objectives

Course Outcomes

At the conclusion of the course, the disciplined, serious student will be able to:

1. Understand that administrative leadership in the church is a ministry function and not an aside to “real ministry.” (M.Div. Objective 4) Achieved through readings, comprehension of the lectures, classroom dialogue, case studies, leadership interview, board meeting analysis, philosophy of ministry, and examination.

2. Articulate biblical and theological foundations for administration in the church. (M.Div Objectives 2 and 3) Achieved through readings, comprehension of the lectures, classroom dialogue, leadership interview, and examination.

3. Demonstrate a developing personal philosophy of ministry, particularly relating to administration, in light of the need of the church to meet the contemporary challenges of allocating and utilizing available resources in the 21st century. (M.Div. Objectives 4 and 5) Achieved through readings, comprehension of the lectures, and philosophy of ministry assignment.

5. Articulate the issues that distinguish leadership within the church from secular leadership while appreciating the similarities between the two. (M.Div. Objectives 3 and 4) Achieved through readings, comprehension of the lectures, classroom dialogue, case studies, board meeting analysis, leadership interview, and examination.

6. Comprehend and begin developing the twelve competencies expected of pastoral leaders. They include the minister as student, servant, person of moral character, shepherd, visionary catalyst, change agent, problem solver, delegator, team builder, planner, manager, and administrative overseer. (M.Div. objectives 1,2,3, 4, and 5) Achieved through readings, comprehension of the lectures, classroom dialogue, case studies, leadership interview, board meeting analysis, philosophy of ministry, and examination.

7. Leave NTS to lead congregations that are focused, organized, and resourced toward the fulfillment of their mission. (M.Div. objectives 4, and 5) Achieved through readings, comprehension of the lectures, classroom dialogue, case studies, leadership interview, board meeting analysis, philosophy of ministry, and examination.

Church of the Nazarene COSAC Competencies

The Church of the Nazarene has established competencies that must be met for Ordination within the denomination. The competencies that relate to this class are listed below. Other denominations and theological traditions will have similar objectives for ministerial preparation. Students from other denominations and theological traditions that require additional competencies are encouraged to discuss the need to address these requirements with the professor.

1. Ability to identify the directives of the Manual of the Church of the Nazarene that pertain to the organization and ministry of the local church and to the responsibilities of the pastor at local and district levels. (CN-29)

2. Ability to explain the governance systems of the church at local, district and general levels. (CN-30)

3. Ability to write an integrative philosophy of ministry that will answer "why I do what I do when I do it". (CP-4)

4. Ability to provide oversight of one’s ministry using management skills including servant leadership, conflict resolution, and administration. (CP-5)

5. Ability to manage ministry resources of one’s ministry (time, human, financial, etc.) in a way consistent with a church’s size and characteristics. (CP-6)

6. Ability to conceive and articulate purpose, mission, vision, and to develop strategic plans in ways that strengthen a unified vision. (CP-7)

7. Ability to develop team building skills, identify and cultivate spiritual gifts, recruit volunteers, empower laity, diagnose and intervene in problems. (CP-8)

8. Ability to appropriately lead congregations in developing principles for biblical stewardship of life resources. (CP-9)

9. Ability to prepare, organize, and deliver a biblically sound basic scheme of administrative oversight in culturally appropriate ways, using appropriate techniques and skills. (CP-34)

10. Ability to develop and utilize existing ministry forms (such as facilities management and safety assessment, personnel development, basic recordkeeping, maintaining church policies, etc.) by which individuals, families, and congregations may be formed into Christlikeness. (CP-35)

11. Ability to assess and implement emerging approaches to administration in light of enduring theological (Bible, doctrine, philosophy) and contextual (history, psychology, sociological) perspectives. (CP-36)

Course Assignments & Requirements

Students are reminded of the following minimum requirements for online participation:

- Students are encouraged to read posts nearly every day.
- Students are required to write a quality post at least three days each week.
- A quality post is one that begins a new topic, critical reflection on another person’s post, or one that moves the discussion in a new direction.
- Unless otherwise assigned, posts in a Forum should be at least 75 words for a new topic and at least 50 words for a response to another’s topic.
- An assignment posted in a Discussion Forum may be considered a quality post at the discretion of the instructor.
- Correct grammar and accurate spelling are expected.
ASSIGNMENTS DUE EVERY WEEK

1. Class Dialogue and Attendance:
   - Students are encouraged to read posts nearly every day.
   - Students are required to write a quality post at least three days each week. A quality post is one that begins a new topic, is a critical reflection on another person’s post, or one that moves the discussion in a new direction. Submission of assignments other than weekly discussion question answers does not count as dialogue posts. (That is, students are required to submit quality posts at least three days per week and the only assignment that counts as part of the three quality posts is the discussion question answer.) (Course Outcomes 1-7 and COSAC Competencies 1-11)
   - Posts should be at least 75 words in length for a new topic and at least 50 words for a response to another’s topic. (Discussion question posts have their own word count requirement. See below.)
   - Correct grammar and accurate spelling are expected.

2. Discussion Questions:
   - I will provide discussion questions each week. Students are to select two of the questions and answer them no later than Wednesday of each week. Responses should reflect insights gained in the readings and life experiences. Responses should be roughly 300 words in length, per question. The submission of your discussion question answers count toward the dialogue requirement listed above. In addition to submitting your own discussion question answers, students are expected to respond to at least one of the answers of your colleagues by posting a note under the appropriate discussion thread. Responses to your fellow students count for the dialogue points mentioned in number one above. (Course Outcomes 1-7 and COSAC Competencies 1-11)

ASSIGNMENTS DUE ON ASSIGNED DATES THROUGHOUT THE TERM

1. Autobiography: Students are required during WEEK ONE to submit a brief autobiography to enable us all to get acquainted. Submit it to the appropriate week one forum. Tell us a little about your personal, professional, and educational life as well as about your ministry calling. Respond, as appropriate, to the autobiographies of your colleagues.

2. Reading Reports:
   Students are required to read six texts and report on five of them (Berkley, Carder, Carroll, Cladis, and Kouzes & Posner) by the assigned dates. The due dates for these reports will always be on Monday of the week in which they are due. Submit the report to the appropriate forum for the week in which it is due. Use the format displayed in the book report guideline sheet attached. Respond, as appropriate, to the submissions of your colleagues. (Course Outcomes 1-7 and COSAC Competencies 3-11)

3. StrengthsFinder Instrument:
   Complete the StrengthsFinder tool that is part of the Living Your Strengths book. Write a brief report (400-500 words) telling your colleagues about what you learned about you. Submit the report to the appropriate forum in the week in which it is due. Be prepared to dialogue with fellow classmates about their strengths. (Course Outcomes 1-3, 5-7 and COSAC Competencies 3,4,6,7, and 11)

4. Philosophy of Ministry:
Submit a personal philosophy of ministry by the assigned date to the appropriate forum. (It is assumed that each student in the class will have written a philosophy of ministry in earlier classes or during undergraduate work. This previous work may be submitted for this assignment, edited and/or re-written.) This assignment must be no more than the equivalent of three pages in length. It should answer, in part, the question, “Why I do what I do when I do it.” It is to be the type of document you would present to a church or other organization to which you were applying for a ministry position. Respond, as appropriate, to the submissions of your colleagues. (Course Outcomes 1-7 and COSAC Competency 3)

5. Revised Philosophy of Ministry:
At the end of the course by the assigned date submit to the appropriate forum a revised personal philosophy of ministry. Revisions to the original philosophy are to be noted in italic type and deletions noted with a strikethrough. At the end of the paper discuss (in 500 words or so) what changes there are in the philosophy of ministry that have been brought about because of the discussions and learning of this class. Respond, as appropriate, to the submissions of your colleagues. (Course Outcomes 1-7 and COSAC Competency 3)

6. Leadership Case:
Much of the course will concentrate on twelve leadership behaviors/competencies expected of pastoral leaders. Each student is to select one of the competencies and write a 1000 to 1500 word case study on the topic. It is preferred that the case come from your own experiences, but it may be fictional, if you prefer. It must identify issues covered in the lecture and facilitate the class in developing the skill in question. Cases are due no later than Tuesday of the week in which the topic in question is being covered in class. (See the calendar later in the syllabus.) Submit the case to the appropriate forum for the week in which it is due. Submit the case to the appropriate forum for the week in which it is due. Students are REQUIRED to send a post in dialogical response to each case submitted to the classroom and that post counts as one of your required posts for the week in question. The twelve competencies are: student, servant, person of moral character, shepherd, visionary catalyst, change agent, problem solver, delegator, team builder, planner, manager, and administrative overseer. Case topics are assigned on a first-come, first-served basis. E-mail me ASAP with your first, second, and third topic choice. (Course Outcomes 1-3, 5-7 and COSAC Competencies 1-11)

7. Leadership Interview:
Interview a leader whom you consider to be “effective”, write a 3 page report on your findings. Submit the interview to the appropriate forum for the week in which it is due. Respond, as appropriate, to the submissions of your colleagues. (Course Outcomes 1-3, 5-7 and COSAC Competencies 3-11)

PTH 715 Leadership in Contemporary Contexts, Fall, 2013
8. Board Meeting Analysis:
Attend a Church Board meeting at your local church. Write a reflection paper on the experience and submit the report to both the appropriate assignment link and as an attachment in the Board Analysis Forum of week twelve. Respond, as appropriate, to the submissions of your colleagues. The report is to be eight to ten typewritten pages in length. It should use a standard research paper title page and begin with a paragraph describing the meeting particulars – when, where, who, how long the meeting lasted, etc. Please use titles for participants rather than personal names. Following this opening paragraph, the paper should have six clearly defined sections as indicated below. (Course Outcomes 1-3, 5-7 and COSAC Competencies 1-11)

A. Information for decision making – analyze the agenda, reports from committees, reports from pastoral staff, treasurer’s report, etc., for clarity, usability, and integrity.

B. Structures – describe, analyze, and assess how the group organized itself to do its work. That is, did the group follow formal structure, proper parliamentary procedures, etc., or was the group more informal in its processes?

C. Relationships – assess interactions between pastor, staff members, and group members. Did everyone have opportunity to speak or did a few dominate the process?

D. Effectiveness – analyze the productivity or outcomes of the meeting in light of the agenda and other stated goals for the meeting.

E. Theological Reflection – evaluate the process and outcomes of the meeting in light of your Biblical and theological understandings of spiritual leadership and uses of power. What is the assumed ecclesiology evident in the meeting? What understanding of God was portrayed by the leader of the meeting and those in attendance? What Biblical images came to mind as you observed the meeting? Articulate a doctrine based upon what you saw and heard. (This is the most important section of the report.)

F. Recommendations – suggest ways the meeting could be improved in light of the five areas of analysis listed above.

9. Final Exam:
The final comprehensive experience will be a single essay that must be written within a two hour time period during the final week of class and is to be written on the topic, “The Spiritual Ministry of Leadership and Administration.” It should demonstrate the student’s understanding of theological and biblical foundations of pastoral leadership as well as provide evidence that the student is aware of the range of church administrative responsibilities. The essay should not exceed seven pages, typed, double spaced. The essay may be written at any location with books, notes, articles, etc, and, if desired, a skeletal outline. Please cite resources properly. DO NOT pre-write the essay prior to sitting down to complete this assignment. It should be submitted to the appropriate assignment link during week fourteen. (Course Outcomes 1-7 and COSAC Competencies 1-11)

Method for Submitting Assignments

All assignments are to be submitted via the Moodle software and not as e-mail attachments. The only e-mail you are asked to submit to me is your list of preferred case topics. Of course, if you have individual questions to raise with me that you do not want to submit to the classroom, feel free to e-mail me; however no assignments are to be submitted as e-mail attachments.

Inclusive Language

NTS is committed to the equality of women and men. Recognizing that people have often used the English language in ways that imply the exclusion or inferiority of women, NTS urges students, faculty, and staff to avoid sexist language in public discourse, in classroom discussions, and in their writings. All written work presented to meet course requirements must use gender inclusive language.

Policy Regarding Late Work & Missed Exams

No credit will be given for late assignments unless arrangements have been made with me IN ADVANCE.

Course Grading

- Participation Points (10 points per week X 13 weeks) 130 points

In accordance with the provisions of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, NTS is committed to providing students with disabilities the opportunity to participate and benefit from its programs and activities. Accordingly NTS will make reasonable modifications to its programs and activities to accommodate otherwise qualified students with disabilities, unless such modifications would impose an undue burden on the operation of the particular program or activity or would fundamentally alter the nature or purpose of the program or activity. Students needing accommodations should contact the Office of the Registrar. They also should contact the instructor no later than the end of the first class session to discuss learning needs and adaptive strategies that have been beneficial for the student in the past.
