Course Description, Narrative, & Rationale

This seminar explores the integration of an ecclesial foundation and effective professional skills to enhance ministry for a congregational context. Attention will be given to understandings of the Church in the Wesleyan tradition and their influence on ministry leadership practices such as preaching, evangelism, discipleship, and strategic church development.

In recent years, there has been a great deal of interest and scholarship in the broader theological/ecclesial community around the participation of the Church in the missio dei, God's mission in the world. While published works integrating the missional church with Wesleyan theological perspectives are emerging, there is a significant natural resonance between the missional conversation and the Wesleyan spirit which is both interesting and inviting to those of us in the Wesleyan tradition. In this seminar, we will explore the implications of the Church’s participation in the missio dei from a Wesleyan perspective as it relates to the practices of vocational ministry.

Course Outcomes

Students who complete this course will be able to demonstrate the following at a higher level of competence than achieved by completing the Master of Divinity degree.

1. Formation of a Wesleyan pastoral theology grounded in an understanding of and participation in the mission of God. Specifically this will include development in the areas of:
   a. Wesleyan practical and pastoral theology [Assignments #1, 2, 5]
   b. Exegeting cultural contexts [Assignments #4, 5, 6]
   c. Engaging the world in Christian mission [Assignments #3, 6].
2. Development and demonstration of advanced theological reflection on pastoral ministry. This reflection will be organized around these themes:
   a. Pastor as Prophet: Casting a Missional Vision [Assignments #1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6]
   b. Pastor as Priest: Nurturing a Missional People [Assignments #1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6]
   c. Pastor as Shepherd-King: Leading a Missional Church [Assignments #1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6]

Course Assignments & Requirements

Pre-Seminar Assignments (600 points)

These assignments are to be completed before the Seminar begins and submitted in Moodle.

1. Read all required texts and articles. [Outcome Objectives #1 and 2]

2. Write a reflection paper on each of the 11 required texts. (Note: Two reflection papers will be due for Hays, one on sections I and II and the second on sections III and IV. Reflection papers should include: 1) key ideas, 2) assessment/critique, 3) personal response or “take-aways.” Each paper should be 2 pages in length and will receive a maximum of 50 points. These are due on the day the text is scheduled for discussion in class. (Note course schedule below). First drafts of three reflection papers must be posted on Moodle for professor review and feedback by November 1 and three more by December 15. The remaining due dates can be found in the Course Calendar below. [Outcome Objectives #1 and 2]

3. Submit a sermon manuscript and video. Select a recent sermon that reflects your pastoral work of shaping a missional vision for your congregation or leadership community. The manuscript and video should be posted in Moodle by November 1. This assignment will become the subject of a personal consultation with one of the professors on Saturday of the Seminar. This full completion of this activity is worth 50 points. [Outcome Objective #2a]

4. Contextual assessment of the student’s ministry setting according to the Church Description and Assessment Tool provided by the professors (in Moodle). These assessments should be prepared for a 20-30 minute presentation to the class during the first days of the seminar. Students may employ media (Powerpoint, etc.) in the presentation. This assignment will not be graded. [Outcome Objective #1b]

During the Seminar (100 points)

5. Participation in the Seminar discussion. [Course Objectives #1 and 2]
Post-Seminar Assignments (500 points)

6. Post Seminar Project: The student shall write a post-seminar project in which the seminar concepts are utilized in addressing a ministry-related issue in the student’s leadership context. Projects may focus on such issues as worship, sacraments, preaching, discipleship, evangelism, compassionate ministries, organizational structure, congregational leadership, and missional re-visioning. The project should be 20-25 pages in length and should include interaction and feedback with those in the student's ministry context. The following is a suggested outline:
   a. statement of the problem or ministry issue to be addressed
   b. literature review (course reading materials and related theoretical models of ministry)
   c. gather research data (especially from interaction with those in the setting as well as from other relevant ministry models)
   d. construction of a ministry model or plan
   e. implementation of the ministry model
   f. evaluation of the effectiveness of the model
   g. final considerations.

   The project should be approved by the faculty facilitator(s) prior to the adjournment of the seminar sessions. Due date March 31, 2013. [Outcome Objectives #1 and 2]

DMin Program Assignments

A. In-Parish Committee:
   If this is your first Seminar, select the members for your In-Parish Committee as detailed in the DMin Handbook and post a list with their names, titles/positions, reasons for your choices, and the email address of your designated Committee Chairperson in Moodle by March 1.

   By May 1 all students must meet with their in-Parish Committee and post in Moodle the date of the meeting and who attended. The Chair (not the student) will write-up the In-Parish Committee Report and send it to Anne R. Hardy (using the Form and Instructions in the DMin Handbook), also by May 1.

B. Pastoral Research Project (PRP):
   Resources:
   - NTS DMin Handbook section on “Research Process” (available online at www.nts.edu/dmin)

   Find the assignment below that applies to you, and post it in Moodle by March 1:

   If this is your first Seminar – read Practical Theology and Qualitative Research and write 2-3 paragraphs on a possible topic for your PRP and how this book has begun to shape your thinking about your PRP.

   If this is your second Seminar – read the DMin Handbook descriptions of the Research Process, paying special attention to the Topic Selection Form. Review Practical Theology and Qualitative Research and write 2-3 paragraphs on your developing ideas of the project you would like to conduct in your own ministry context.

   If this is your third Seminar – carefully re-read the DMin Handbook descriptions of the Research Process, review Practical Theology and Qualitative Research, and submit a first draft of the Topic Selection Form.

C. Electives:
   Find the assignment below that applies to you, and post it in Moodle by March 1:
If this is your first Seminar – read the DMin Handbook instructions for the Electives portion of the program, paying special attention to the Electives Proposal Form, and write 2-3 paragraphs describing the area(s) of study you are considering for your Electives and how your Electives may contribute to your PRP.

If this is your second Seminar, carefully re-read the DMin Handbook descriptions of the Electives, and complete and submit a first draft of the Electives Proposal Form.

If this is your third Seminar – and you have not already done so, submit a first draft of the Electives Proposal Form; if adjustments were required from your first draft, submit those for final approval.

Method for Submitting Assignments

This course requires internet access to NTS Moodle for instructional information about assignments and electronic assignment submission. Unless otherwise instructed, do not send assignments to the professors via email. Your electronic submissions will automatically be linked to the “Grades” area of Moodle to which you have access for viewing your grades. Contact support@nts.edu with technical questions or for assistance.

Form and Style Expectations

All formal written documents are to be carefully proof-read for correct spelling and grammar before submission; it is the responsibility of the student to ensure “clean” copy, even if it means securing assistance.

All research-based written documents are to be formatted (and will be evaluated) utilizing either the “Footnotes-Bibliography Style” or “Parentheses-Reference List Style” for source citation as detailed in the most current edition of the Turabian Style Guide: http://www.press.uchicago.edu/books/turabian/manual. This is the style required for the DMin Pastoral Research Project document.

Inclusive Language

NTS is committed to the equality of women and men. Recognizing that people have often used the English language in ways that imply the exclusion or inferiority of women, NTS urges students, faculty, and staff to avoid sexist language in public discourse, in classroom discussions, and in their writings. All written work presented to meet course requirements must use gender inclusive language. Inclusive Language usage guidelines can be found at www.nts.edu/student-handbooks.
Policy Regarding Late Work

Grades for late assignments will be affected as follows: a minimum deduction of 2% of assignment grade per day late.

Course Grading

Doctoral students are expected to perform consistently at above average achievement. The following grade standards will be applied:

“A” (1080 - 1200 pts.) - EXCEPTIONAL WORK (strong, significant achievement of course objectives)
“B” (960 - 1079 pts.) - GOOD WORK (basic, essential achievement of course objectives)
“C” or “D” (720 - 959 pts.) - MARGINAL WORK (inadequate, minimal achievement of course objectives)
“F” (0 - 719 pts.) - UNACCEPTABLE WORK (failure to achieve course objectives)

You have access for viewing your grades in the “Grades” area of Moodle. Any questions or concerns about your assigned grades should be immediately brought to the attention of the professors.

In accordance with the provisions of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, NTS is committed to providing students with disabilities the opportunity to participate and benefit from its programs and activities. Accordingly NTS will make reasonable modifications to its programs and activities to accommodate otherwise qualified students with disabilities, unless such modifications would impose an undue burden on the operation of the particular program or activity or would fundamentally alter the nature or purpose of the program or activity. Students needing accommodations should contact the Office of the Registrar. They also should contact the instructor before the first class session to discuss learning needs and adaptive strategies which have been beneficial for the student in the past.
