Author Presentation

Group Size: Any (40 or fewer students will have option of writing activity)

I introduce myself and my experience with writing, and then introduce my novels. I speak in depth about my experience becoming an author, the novels themselves, and how my writing process has been shaped by each novel. This presentation is highly flexible and can be modified to fit course content themes or core standards that teachers are currently working with.

Writing Workshop

Group Size: 40 or fewer students

I present workshops on worldbuilding, voice, romance, and historical research. I briefly introduce myself and my experience with writing, and then introduce the SCARLET Trilogy—Scarlet, Lady Thief and Lion Heart, which are a retelling of the Robin Hood legend set in medieval England. Starting off with a writing exercise, I introduce concepts related to the topic and then allow students to try it in a new exercise. Exercises are shared with the group and discussed. All workshops include 15 minutes of Q&A
