

What's Wrong With This Picture???

King Saul made some decisions that he thought were just fine. However, he forgot to rely on God and chose to follow his own will. Why were the following decisions wrong for King Saul to make?

Saul offered a Burnt Offering before going into battle against the Philistines. He wanted to ask God for His blessings and to encourage the Israelites, who were scattering because they were afraid of the Philistines.

---

---

When the battle grew great, Saul made the Israelites promise not to eat anything until the battle was won.

---

---

Saul captured the king of the Amalekites, Agag, and spared his life. Saul also allowed the people to take some of the cattle and belongings of the Amalekites after they fought them to offer as sacrifices.

---

---

“Behold, to obey is better than sacrifice.”

I Samuel 15:32