

GREAT THEMES OF DANIEL

A Thirteen Lesson Bible Study by Jeff S. Smith

Introduction

The book of Daniel is numbered among the Old Testament’s major prophets, called that not because of greater significance, but relative length. Daniel was a prisoner-of-war, captured by Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon when Jerusalem finally met its long-predicted demise. Daniel was taken away, educated and trained that he might serve his new king in government service, but he maintained so much of his Hebrew culture and upbringing that he and many like him were able to preserve a faithful remnant on which a new Israel was founded. The book that bears his name begins with six historical chapters about his own exploits, while the last half displays a series of prophetic images.

Lesson 1: The King's Service

Text: Daniel 1:1-21

1. How did Nebuchadnezzar apparently defeat Jehovah in 605 B.C. (Daniel 1:1-2; cf. Second Chronicles 36:5-7)? How could God allow himself to be humbled like this (see Second Kings 20:17-18 and Habakkuk 1:1-11)?

2. The Babylonians carried out at least three deportations of the Hebrews, beginning with this one. What was Ashpenaz looking for in a captive (Daniel 1:3-5)? How long were Daniel and his three friends to train?

3. Discuss the benefits and dangers of a secular education as it relates to the spirit of a man (see First Corinthians 1:19-24 and Acts 4:13).

4. Complete the name change chart below (Daniel 1:6-7):

Hebrew Name	Hebrew Meaning	Chaldean Name	Chaldean Meaning
Daniel
Hananiah	Jehovah hath favored	Shadrach	of the Sun god
Mishael
Azariah	Whom Jehovah helps	Abed-Nego	Servant of shining fire

5. Why did Daniel refuse to eat the king's delicacies (1:8-16; see also Leviticus 11:41-47 and Deuteronomy 32:36-38)?

6. Think about the reasoning in which Daniel might have engaged. Consider what has happened, not only to him, but to the temple and all Israel. Can you see how Daniel might have arrived at a different conclusion? What might his reasoning have been? Why would that have proven faulty?

7. Why did the chief of the eunuchs give Daniel and his three friends a chance to observe their own diet?

8. What is the danger of wine (Proverbs 20:1, 23:29-35; First Peter 4:1-4)?

9. How did they appear after 10 days? Was this effect natural or miraculous?

10. How did they get their wisdom (Daniel 1:17)? How did Solomon get his (First Kings 3:5-14)? How can we get wisdom (Proverbs 4:5-7, 16:16; James 1:5-8)?

11. How long was Daniel's public ministry (Daniel 1:18-21)?

Lesson 2: Nebuchadnezzar's Dream

2. Why did he refuse to tell them the details of his dream (2:5-9)?

4. What conclusion did Nebuchadnezzar draw when the wise men refused even to try to describe his dream (Daniel 2:10-15)? How did Daniel and his three friends escape his rage?

6. What is to be done with false prophets and teachers today (Revelation 22:18, Second Peter 2:1-3, Second Timothy 3:5, Romans 16:17-18)? How can their reliability be tested (First John 4:1-6, Acts 17:11)?

7. How did Daniel discern the dream and its interpretation (Daniel 2:16-23)?
