

Introduction

In centuries earlier than the twenty-first, the Bible was so universally taught in Western nations that nearly everyone had intimate knowledge of the basics of Scripture. Sadly, that interest in God’s word has waned mightily and now even among Christians, the young are more likely to be immersed in entertainment and recreation than fundamental, divine principles. This two-part series of studies, Bible 101, is designed to chase away ignorance of God’s word with an overview of the Bible message. Old Testament 101 begins at Creation and follows the patriarchs, judges and kings all the way to the Intertestamental Period.

2. Consult Genesis 1:3-31 and complete the following chart:

<table>

10. What happened to the Tower of Babel (Genesis 11:1-9)?
Lesson 2: The Patriarchs

1. Meet Abraham in Genesis 12. From what three things does God require him to leave? What three promises does God make him?

   God required Abraham to leave his country, his family and his inheritance. He promised him the land of Canaan, a great nation of Israel and to bless all the Earth through him.

2. Who is Melchizedek (Genesis 14:17-24)?

3. How did Abraham and Sarah try to help God fulfill his promises (Genesis 16:1-15)?

   They conspired to conceive a child for Abraham in Sarah's maid's womb. Ishmael was born to Hagar, but God rejected him as the son of promise.

God led them in a cloud by day and in fire by night, away from Philistia, lest Israel fear war and return to Egypt. He crossed them through the Red Sea by parting the waters.

Her thirst and hunger made her doubt God, who fed her anyway as an 11-day journey turned into 40 years.

   She had not accepted the rebuke and now God doubted her ability to be impressed anymore. He had no interest in their worship because it was not from the heart. God commanded them to make themselves clean by putting away their evil practices.

3. Isaiah turns to prophesy of the new kingdom of God to be established (2:1-5). Will its population be confined to Hebrews by birth? From what geographic location will the law of the kingdom emanate? How is this true of the church (Acts 10:34-35, 1:1-8)?

Ezekiel was the watchman crying out an unpopular warning.

11. How were Israel’s shepherds failing the flock (34:1-16)? Explain.

Describe how Christ ensures that a Christian may dwell in the house of the Lord forever (John 14:1-6, First Peter 1:3-5).

   Jesus is the Chief Shepherd of the church of God (1 Peter 5:4, John 10) and leads his sheep—his followers—by his word. Lesson 13: Review

1. Why did Cain kill Abel (Genesis 4:1-16)? What lessons do we need to learn from this episode and the way God handled it? What so upset God during Noah’s era (Genesis 6:5-8)? Why did Noah find grace in God’s eyes (Genesis 6:9-10)? How did Noah accept it?

Cain slew Abel out of jealous resentment over God’s approval. We learn that sin waits at our doors to destroy us, but we can rule over it when we obey God and live by love. God regretted creating man, because he had become so wicked in thought and deed. Noah found grace because he was different—he feared God, was penitently blameless and walked with the Lord obediently. Noah accepted God’s grace by building the ark.

2. Meet Abraham in Genesis 12. From what three things does God require him to leave? What three promises does God make him? To what is Jacob’s name changed (Genesis 32:22-32)?

God required Abraham to leave his country, his family and his inheritance. He promised him the land of Canaan, a great nation of Israel and to bless all the Earth through him. Jacob becomes Israel.

3. How did the Israelites avoid the tenth plague (Exodus 12:21-36)? How did they manage to cross the Red Sea (Exodus 14:1-31)? How did Israel almost immediately begin to show the weakness that would prolong her wandering (Exodus 15:22-26, 16:1-3)?

The Hebrews obeyed God and spread the blood of a Passover lamb on their doorposts and lintels, so that the Lord would know to “Passover” their houses and only afflict the Egyptians. God led them in a cloud by day and in fire by night, away from Philistia, lest Israel fear war and return to Egypt. He crossed them through the Red Sea by parting the waters. Her thirst and hunger made her doubt God, who fed her anyway as an 11-day journey turned into 40 years.
