

We work with the people who work the land.

Cost-Share and Tax Credit Best Management Practices for Cropland

CCI-CNT: For producers who have been implementing conservation tillage which provide 60% cover on cropland. $5/acre/year for up to 5 years.

CCI-FRB: For producers who are utilizing forested riparian buffers between cropland and streams. $100/acre.

CCI-HRB: For producers who are utilizing non-forested riparian buffers between cropland and streams. $50/acre.

FR-3: For producers who wish to install forested riparian buffers between agricultural land and streams. $200/acre for pine trees and $650/acre for hardwoods. Includes 25% tax credit.

NM-1: This practices is to write and revise a current or existing nutrient management plan. Rate varies depending on operation type. Call to find out rate for your operation.

NM-3: For producers who wish to apply sidedress application of nitrogen to corn. 75% up to $6/acre or 25% tax credit.

NM-4: For producers who wish to split apply nitrogen to small grain crops in late winter. 75% up to $4/acre or 25% tax credit.

SL-8, SL-8B, SL-8H, WQ-4: Cover crop program that includes conservation cover for specialty crops, nutrient and residue management, legume cover crop, and a practice that allows harvest of small grain. Rate varies depending on type of cover crop implementation requested. Call to find out rate for your specific operation.

SL-15A: Payment for those you are converting from conventional tillage to conservation tillage. $100/acre or 25% tax credit.

WP-3: This practice cost-shares on the installation of grassed waterways on cropland. 75% and 25% tax credit.

WP-4D: This practice is to provide tax credit for soil tests need for nutrient management plans. 25% tax credit

WQ-1: This practice cost shares on the installation of grass filter strips between cropland and streams. $225/acre and 25% tax credit.

Many other practices are available for use by crop producers outside and within some of the practices listed above. For more information about what may be available contact James River SWCD at 804-957-6148.

James River Soil and Water Conservation District programs, activities and employment opportunities are available to all people regardless of race, color, religion, sex, age, disability, national origin or political affiliation. An equal opportunity/affirmative action employer.

The Commonwealth of Virginia supports the James River Soil and Water Conservation District through financial and administrative assistance provided by the Department of Conservation and Recreation.