Paola Farmers Market

May 17th, 2014

7:30 to 11:00am

Another year has rolled around and it is time again to Kickoff the Paola Farmers Market. Bring your friends and join the Paola Lions Club for biscuits and gravy while listening to the Paola Radio Station broad casting right from the square. Please show your support to the Lions Club as they make the Farmers Market a reality year after year.

This year brings new vendors and returning vendors this week will be selling fresh pork, fresh beef, asparagus, spinach, pecans, black walnuts, tomato plants, radishes, pies, lettuce to name a few. Also live plants including potted fig trees, goji berry plants, berry plants, yellow alpine strawberry plants, blueberry plants, wild apple trees along with succulent containers, and many perennials and herbs. Also all you kids don't miss a horse and cart ride around the square as Moe Trail and Miss Cupcake join us again this year.

Once again this year we will sell raffle tickets for various items to benefit the Miami County Cancer Society. This group provides gas cards, rides to Doctor visits, groceries and various other items to those in need of help. For any $50 donation or more to the Miami County Cancer Society the market will give you a Farmers Market bag filled with produce and baked goods.

If you know or have something you would like to donate to our raffle drawings we will gladly accept anything we can get. The more items we get – the more often we will draw a winner.

Also this year our vendors will participate in the Senior Farmers Market Nutrition Program once again. Information and registration for these coupons may be picked up from Diane Burnett at the Miami County Extension Office. I will also have a manual at the hospitality table which explains the program.

Also this Saturday my very good friend Alice Grandon will be playing the accordion at the request of a special guest who is coming all the way from Newfoundland in Canada - Pat Frazier, Joan Fehling's sister.

Don't forget to bring your old glasses as we will be collecting again this year for the Lions Club.

So bring all your friends, pray for sunshine and we will be on the square this Saturday morning 7:30 to 11 .

Don't forget our website for all the latest happenings at the Market. On the website you will find a list of our vendors, registration forms, and rules for the market. You can find some pretty good recipes out there too.
