

George Geary Culinary Tours And Great News Cooking School

Summer 2013 Tours:

Temecula Wine & Artisan Gourmet Food Tour

Sat. June 1st, 2013 8:30AM-6:00PM $130pp Guests will arrive to the store about 8:30 for coffee and pastry. We depart at exactly 9:00am by deluxe motor coach (restroom facilities on board) towards Temecula. Once arriving in Temecula home of the Butterfield Stage Coach we will stop at many artisan food establishments of the area. Tastings from the Temecula Root Beer Company that boasts over 500 sodas from around the world, then off to a family owned spice and tea store where the blends of teas are out of this world, a lavender store and a chile pepper store, we then will head to the olive oil factory to try the different types of balsamic to single origin oils with a full sit down class on olive oils and balsamic. You will have plenty of time to shop and pick something up for your lunch to enjoy out at the wineries.

We will make two winery stops, the first will be a larger producing winery with a class on the fine art of wine tasting and the second will be at a smaller artisan winery where you will be able to rub elbows with the winemaker! We will then head back to Great News with approximate arrival time 6pm.

Artisan Los Angeles Tour:

From Tamales to Coffee Roasting

Sat. July 13th 8:30AM-6:00PM $130 Venturing into Downtown Los Angeles has changed in the past few years with up and coming food establishments. We will explore the nooks and crannies of this historic city. Arrive to the store about 8:30 for coffee and pastry. We depart at exactly 9:00am by deluxe motor coach (restroom facilities on board) towards Los Angeles. Our focus is to find and taste the best that Los Angeles has to offer. Our first area will be East LA, from the area's best tortilla factory to hot tamales. We will consume it all! Then into the Core of Downtown Los Angeles for a tour of a coffee roasting facility, bread bakers and a French pastry shop to sample the colorful macaroons. Lunch will be on your own (approx. $12) at the award winning Phillippe's 'Home of the French Dip' operating for almost 100 years! Ample time will be given for a self-tour of Olvera Street (LA's First Street home to Mexican Candies and goods), The Historic Union Station, (Step back into the 40s in this last great train stations or China Town for herbs and teas).

George Geary Tours
#chefgeary

ggeary@aol.com

Facebook: George Geary Culinary Tours and Classes

We will now be off to Home Boy Industries, a short stop for you to experience the “HomeBoy and HomeGirl” experience. This facility is home to a café, school and event center. We will feast on some pastry or homeboy salsas! Our last stop will be Grand Central Market for a walking tour to many many food stalls from Moles to spices. George will also conduct a waking tour of the ground floor of the famous Bradbury Building seen in so many movies like last years award winning film ‘The Artist.’ We will depart from Los Angeles via The Great White Way Theater District for all to see what is happening for the future of the city.

Fine Print:

Tours are limited to age 16 and above. Under 21 may not taste or partake in the winery portions. All transportation, samples where indicated and private tours, award winning tour guide, all tipping and more is inclusive (except for lunch). All destinations and tours are subject to change. If we do have to change the tour we will substitute of equal or greater value. If the motor coach is changed, we will notify you in advance. Arrival back to the store is an estimate, as we cannot control the traffic.

The tour is limited to 50 seats so reserve today. NO CANCELLATIONS CAN BE REFUNDED AFTER 30 days prior to the tour. Wear comfortable shoes as we will be walking and getting on and off the motor coach.

To reserve your tour spot:

www.great-news.com

More information and to see other tours

www.georgegeary.com

#chefgeary

ggeary@aol.com